OGDEN.

OGDEN, UTAH, - OCT. 16, 1893.

WAS IT MURDER?

Theodore Busch Probably Fatally Dealt with for His Money.

Saturday afternoon at 4:15 a young man died at the police station under such circumstances as to create at once a well founded suspicion of foul play.

Some of the known facts are these: About 12:45 p. m. a telephone communication to the Gurney Cab company announced that a "gurney" was wanted immediately at the Diamond saloon on lower Twenty-fifth street. The order was for Wm. Wallace Hilton, a young man in the employ of the company, being the driver. On arriving at the Diamond it was found that the would-be passenger was in a state of coma and that it required two men to carry him to the vehicle. This being accomplished the sick man (who it was claimed was drunk) and his two attendants were hurriedly driven to the depot, where an effort was made to put the unconscious man aboard the Southern Pacific No. 2, which departs for California points at 1:01 o'clock. But Deputy Master Kerr was at his post of duty and, actuated by that chivalry spirit for which the little man is truly noted, promptly stopped such proceedings, and ordered the man taken to the police station, where every attention was given him, but in vain. The deadly work had been done; and at the time above indicated the unfortunate youth's spirit took its flight.

Dr. Groves had been summoned but his services were not needed as the poor fellow died before the doctor's arrival. The dilated eyes and frothing mouth compelled the doctor to share in the opinion of others, which was that the man that the man had been poisoned.

The coroner was quickly notified and a jury obtained, but the inquest was not completed as it was thought best to make a post mortem examination of the remains.

On searching the body a through ticket from Chicago to San Francisco was found, also an order on a broker at the latter place for passage to Melbourne, Australia, and letters which revealed the name of Theodore Busch, a resident of Berlin, Germany. Eighty cents in silver and a few foreign coins were found in his pockets, and around his person at the waist was a belt for carrying money, but as said to expected, it was empty. The man had evidently been drugged and robbed, as tourists do not contemplate a journey from Berlin to Melbourne on 81 cents. The remains were removed to Richey's undertaking parlors, where the inquest will be completed today.

Yesterday Dr. Groves made an autopsy of the stomach, but his conclusions were not obtained. However, to the average mind there is little doubt as to how Theodore Busch met his death. It is to be hoped that a searching investigation will be made and the perpetrators of the deed brought to justice.

Laid to Rest.

All that was mortal of Wm. M. Chapman was laid to rest yesterday in Mountain View cemetery. Services were conducted at the First M. E. church, under the auspices of the Knights of Pythias, of which order the deceased was a member in life.

A large and sorrowful cortege, consisting of the Ogden city brass band, the members of the R. M. P. lodge, the Ben Lomond city council, the Ogden city fire department, and hundreds of sympathizing friends of the deceased followed the remains to the place of interment.

Quarterly Conference.

Yesterday the quarterly conference of the Weber Stake of Zion convened at the tabernacle at 10 a. m. and 2 p.m. The meetings were well attended by the people from the county, and interesting and instructive discourses were delivered by President George Q. Cannon and Elders Abraham H. Cannon and Lorin Farr. Today the conference was continued and two sessions held, at the close of which it will be adjourned for three months.

The preliminary examination of Joseph Mooney for the shooting of Merrithew has been continued until Saturday the 28th instant.

A Big Damage Suit.

Saturday William H. Pilcock filed a damage suit in the Fourth district court, for the sum of $25,000, against the Central Pacific railway company, for the alleged killing of his son Heber, October 15, 1892, while the young man was in the employ of that company.

PROVO.

PROVO, UTAH, - OCT. 16, 1893.

The Riot Cases.

The jury in the Orr-Sullivan riot cases have returned a verdict of not guilty. While the jury was out a compromise was effected in the balance of the cases. The cases, Michael Murphy, Joseph Hanley and James Murphy plead guilty to the charge of unlawful assembly. Those who were fined $10, and the other three $5 each. The remaining fifteen defendants were discharged. John G. Sullivan, against whom the jury returned a verdict of guilty on Tuesday, is to be sentenced November 13th.

The Insane Asylum.

The Territorial Insane Asylum is to the mind of Financial treasurer. At Friday's session of the board, a special committee reported that territorial warrants were not acceptable in payment for coal, and as the asylum has no available cash at present, unless a loan can be negotiated soon the attempt to complete the asylum building will be vexatiously costly. Mr. Mansfield, chairman of the committee appointed to confer with the governor in his efforts to obtain coal in some manner, and the treasurer was authorized to negotiate another loan of $5000 and hypothecate territorial warrants in security. The estimate of supplies for the asylum for the coming six months, as reported by the medical superintendent, is $25,-000.00.

The Pedagogium.

There is in the B. Y. academy a students' organization known as the Pedagogium, in which lectures of a high order are delivered every Thursday evening. At the last meeting the lecture was by Prof. Lewis A. Merrill, and the society were entertained and instructed in a most gratifying manner. Prof. N. L. Nelson was the lecturer. As a perfect he drew, in the most graphic verbal delineation, the picture of a model pedagogue. All the phrases of equine perfection, and humorously enumerated this model image with that of a brief, scraggy, sore-necked mustang just unsaddled by the wandering Ishmael. "Physical Bearing" was then taken as the subject of the lecture, and a similar outcome was pointed out in human beings. The speaker was full of striking comparisons and presented examples, both comic and tragic, as the means of high or ungraded "physical bearing." However and sensible, said he, are to a great extent the fruit of our own bearing. Grace and ease are essentials to culture and one without the other is a corpse, unhappy development. An attractive soul signified erectus within Realism exalted spirit.

At the close of the lecture a song was given by the Misses Gurll and a recitation by Miss Pearl Clark.

Visitors to Provo will be welcome to attend the Pedagogium and partake of these mental feasts.

Stake Conference.

The quarterly conference of the Utah Stake of Zion was held on Saturday and Sunday. There were present of the quorum of the Twelve Apostles, Elders Brigham Young, F. M. Lyman, George Teasdale and John Henry Smith, and of the first seven presidents of Seventies, Elders H. H. Rogers and Seymour B. Young.

Elder Lyman was the principal speaker on Saturday forenoon. His principal theme of discourse was illustrating the very many attendances. He had found this generally to be the case in the Utah Stake Conference on Saturday. As a remedy, he urged that conferences be held at other cities in the Stake. There are many who could not come to Provo to attend conference who were starving for spiritual food while in Provo they were surfeited.

Elder Rogers spoke on Saturday afternoon. He quoted the passage of scripture, "Pay unto cay uttereth reveals, and light unto night showeth wisdom." Knowledge is obtained by contrast, said the speaker. He then referred to the parliament of religions at Chicago. The contrast between the religious beliefs there expounded and the gospel as we received it was the more grateful then, ever for the flight of the dragon. The infidelities at Chicago reminded him of children playing at keeping house with broken dishes. They had only fragments of truth, but the latter-day saints were keeping house in reality—they had the fulness of truth.

On Sunday forenoon Elder Seymour B. Young related several instances of early church history—bitter persecution, and in contrast referred to his recent short visit to the East, showing a great revulsion of feeling favorable to the latter-day saints.

Elder Teasdale on Sunday afternoon, referred to the wickedness, and said that it was very much smaller than it would be. The saints were urged to attend their meetings and perform their other duties and not allow the spirit of fault to depart from them.

Elder John Henry Smith in closing the remarks chiefly of the forenoon speaker. They were urged not to shirk the responsibilities of married life. They must not wait until they could begin in the windy days parade but all, no days should be allowed to wait other to requiring a house and the comforts.

Elder Lyman again spoke on the proper observances of the Word of Wisdom.

Lorin Farr, Benjamin Young said that the people, as a whole were keeping the word of wisdom quite well, but he urged a great work, but he urged a great work upon each individual the necessity of securing life of her individual salvation in the celestial kingdom. The services closed by the United Joseph Smith in the name of the Kingdom of glory was read and consecrated.

Elders A. O. Smoot, David John and others spoke briefly during the conference.

Democratic Nominees.

A Democratic city convention was held on Saturday afternoon and the following gentlemen were nominated:

For mayor, Amos D. Holdaway; for recorder, Joseph F. Gardner, jr.; for treasurer, W. S. Campbell; for justice of the peace, L. A. Wangsgaard.

At the Republican convention of the Fourth representative district, held on Saturday, Hugh M. Dougal was nominated.

Elder Brigham Young will deliver the Founder's day (fifth anniversary) oration at the B. Y. academy today.

LOGAN.

LOGAN, UTAH, - OCT. 16, 1893.

Chapter of Accidents.

Marcus Mortensen, a recently returned missionary, got a nasty accident here in Logan canyon last week. He was loading logs when one of them slipped and his sister Roger was caught between the wagon tire and the log and almost crushed to death. Mortensen ran down to relieve the bleeding position and will be able to save the Roger of not.

Oscar Green, a young man residing at Preston, had his hand badly lacerated a week ago today. He was working on a threshing machine and while engaged in repairing or oiling some of the machinery his overcoat started the engine without warning. Green's fingers were caught in the cog wheels. Dr. Shipp attended him and hopes to save all of the fingers.

On Friday afternoon Frank Distler, of Beaver Dam, fell from the loft of a barn into the manger in the stable below. He broke three ribs, was injured internally and hurt one of his hips badly.

On Wednesday last a son of Marcus Bird, of Meadow, while running a race with a number of other small boys, slipped and fell, several of the other boys falling on top of him. His left arm was broken. Dr. Shipp was summoned and reset the arm, and the little fellow is on the high road to recovery.

Death of Sarah W. Hyde.

Mrs. Sarah W. Hyde, wife of Bishop Hyde, of Hyde Park, died on last Thursday evening. Her death was partially due to old age and partially by a cancer in the left side. She was seventy-five years of age and leaves a daughter and a wide circle of friends to mourn her loss.

Divorce Proceedings.

On Wednesday testimony was heard in the divorce suit of Jane Riggs vs. Silas Riggs, by Chas. H. Hart, as when the case had been referred by Judge Miner. Several days were occupied in the examination of witnesses, Hannah Dunkinson and Chas. Hansen were alleged by the plaintiff's additional testimony to be co-respondents, after which the case will be submitted.

Sudden Death.

On Thursday Mrs. Eliza Hendricks, wife of S. A. Hendricks, died suddenly at Richmond, aged 38 years. Mr. Hendricks was absent on a business trip to Washington, but was immediately apprised of the sad event by telegraph.

Battery.

K. E. Risher was arrested on Thursday evening for committing a battery on Alfred Rowe. As he was considerably under the influence of liquor at the time of the assault the trial was postponed until Friday evening, when Risher was fined $5 by Commissioner Fletcher.

The Grand Jury.

On Friday, Lorin C. Miller of Newton was drawn by Commissioner Fletcher by Deputy Smith, to serve a session of unusual consideration. The hearing resulted in Miller being held in $500, and his alleged partner in $200 bonds, to await the action of the grand jury, although the evidence seemed altogether insufficient to justify such a course.

Democratic Convention.

On Saturday the Democrats of Logan City held their city convention, and nominated a mayor, recorder, treasurer, marshal and city justice. Resolutions were passed endorsing the present administration, the police force and the purchase of the steamboat engine. George W. Thatcher was nominated for mayor, Joseph Quinney for recorder, Alexander Lowrie for treasurer, J. F. Smith for police magistrate and George D. McCallum for marshal.

Republican Primaries.

On Saturday evening Republican primaries were held in the various precincts for the nomination of county councilmen from each precinct. The result was as follows: First precinct, Joseph E. Wilcox and B. A. Provinse; second precinct, J. E. Bonsell and John F. Squires; third precinct, P. Ellison and John R. Davis; fourth precinct, Thomas Morgan and Jacob Neuwenger; fifth precinct, Hugh Adams and Morris Merrill. Delegates to the county section to be held on Monday, the 16th, and also in the city convention, to be held on Saturday evening, October 21st. The campaign will be a short one, and may be very warm.

A Race on Foot.

Lee Thatcher and a professional runner named Charles Hopkins ran a race of seventy-five yards on Saturday evening, Thatcher being given a start of three yards, but he was beaten on the first heat, but on the second Hopkins won.
