CATARRH

Ostarrh of the Nasal Cavities, Acute, Chronic, and Ulcerative, Hay Fever, or Rose-Catarrh, Catarrh of the Eye and Ear, and Catarrh of the Throat.

SUCCESSFULLY TREATED WITH

SANFORD'S RADICAL CURE.

CATARRH is a disease of the mucous membrane, or lining tissues and conditions vary its severity in individual cases. Catarrh may arise from a cold or a succession of colds, from sudden change of atmosphere, wearing wet clothing, or exposure to inclement weather, and from those thoroughly skilled when the digestive organs are in a morbid or inactive condition, and the strength and vital powers enfeebled. The diseases may arise from a scrofulous condition of the blood, from Scarlet Fever, Measles, and Diphtheria, in which cases the eyes and ear are generally implicated, with discharges of matter. The discharges from the nose, the distinctive feature in all catarrhal cases from whatever cause they arise, are at first thin, watery, and so acid as to cause redness and excoriation of the skin with which they come in contact, or with which they mingle, as in the nose, or clear and white like the white of an egg. There may be an entire lack of secretion, and then the eyes are dry and feverish, the throat parched, and the head feeling uncomfortable, and if it was restricted by a light sprinkling. But the usual symptoms are a profuse watery discharge, which causes the passages to swell and become inflamed, rendering breathing through the nose difficult, and, in bad cases, almost impossible. It is necessary to breathe through the mouth, thereby permitting dust to pass directly to the throat, bronchial tubes, and lungs. The matter passing down the throat creates a constant desire to hawk and expectorate (to throw it up) and by the irritation it produces, is frequently the cause of passing freely down from the nose and throat, the mucus becomes hard and forms into scabs, sometimes of considerable size, which adhere so firmly to the nasal passages and throat as to require very persistent effort to dislodge them. The eye is frequently affected, becoming weak, and in bad cases, inflamed, discharging quantities of matter, the tissues being visited by the most violent inflammation, and ulceration of the cornea, with more or less impairment of vision, and finally deafness. The throat, bronchial tubes, and lungs are in many cases affected by catarrh, and the frequent prostration of the nervous system is unparalleled, such affections become easily developed.

A brief survey of this most serious disease warns all who are afflicted with it to make speedy preparation for its treatment before it becomes chronic. The Extract, Ointment, and Pills of SANFORD'S RADICAL CURE we confidently believe are to be found in no other remedy. Every step in its preparation, every item in its combination, has been scientifically calculated to meet every phase of the disease. The numerous testimonials from the best people in the United States attest the power in which it has been used by those who have been freed from the most deceptive and dangerous disease with which mankind is to-day afflicted.

JUST PUBLISHED.

A carefully revised Treatise on Catarrh, with an accurate description of the many symptomatic diseases, together with simple directions for effecting with SANFORD'S RADICAL CURE a speedy and permanent cure, also observations on diet and the general health, of vast importance to all afflicted with catarrh. BOX ELDER STAKE.

The regular Quarterly Conference of Box Elder Stake of Zion was convened in the public hall at Brigham City, at 10 a. m., October 26th, 1875. There were present on the stand, Lorenzo Snow, of the Twelve Apostles; O. G. Snow and E. A. Box, of the presidency of the Stake; Wm. Box, Patriarch, members of the High Council, bishops and leading members from different Wards of the Stake.

Conference opened with singing and prayer. The statistical report of the Stake was read, also the financial report of the Relief Societies of the Stake, shewing the aggregate receipts to be $13,981.05. Disbursements for charitable, Temple, Sunday School, missionary and other laudable purposes, $7,048.58, besides balance on hand, there is stored up 1,120 bushels of wheat.

President O. G Snow gave a synopsis of the conference held in Malad City, one week ago, and was followed by Counselor E. Box on the political condities of the people there. Bishop Welsh made a few remarks on the early rise of the church.

2 p. m.

Singing and prayer. Elder Jonah Evans remarked on our present condition, and the effect of the gospel upon us. Elder C. Kelly compared the present condition of the people in this Stake, to that of earlier days and the labors we have performed. Elder W. G. Cole briefly alluded to his early experience in the Church. Bishop Henry Tingey exhorted the young to study the church works and gain knowledge. Bishop A. Hunsaker showed that it is necessary to pass through trials to give us experience. Bishop Neeley remarked that the mission of God's people was to fulfil his designs and purpose.

Sunday, 10 a.m.

Singing, prayer.

Bishop A. Goodliffe spoke on the stability of the work of God in which we are engaged.

Bishop F. A. Hammond, of Huntsville had passed through here in 1848; it was then a barren country, the only road was an Indian trail; how different was this county to-day; truly Zion is extending her borders. He was prompted to come here for the purpose of endeavoring to catch the inspiration that has actuated the Saints to build up a system of co-operation that has placed them in an almost self-sustaining condition.

Bishop J. D. Burt related his early experience in the Church.

Elder J. F. Merrill stated that for the past few months he had been engaged running a saw mill near Malad City, for Brigham City Co-op., cutting ties and timber for the Utah and Northern Railroad, while thus engaged he was arrested, tried, fined over $13,000 and cast into the jail at Malad City. After lingering there some time, he was taken by the officers to Corinne, understanding he was being conveyed to Boise City to undergo an imprisonment in the penitentiary according to the judgment of the court. He was left standing in the street in Corinne; being cold and hungry he went to the house of his friends; his release and the remittance of his fine had been sent from Washington prior to his removal from jail at Malad City. He considered it a religious persecution. Most all the people had for years cut and hauled timber from the same quarter, and saw mills had been on the same stream for years, but no one was molested.

Bro. H. P. Jenson made a few remarks.

2 p. m.

Singing, prayer.

The sacrament was administered.

The general Authorities of the Church, and of this Stake of Zion were unanimously sustained.

Bro. G. Facer made a few remarks on the principle of Union.

Bishop O. A. Perry had passed through the persecutions in Missouri and Illinois, could see the hand of Providence over the people, and the outpouring of his judgments upon the earth.

Bro. J. C. Wright rejoiced in the truth, and desired to endure faithful to the end.

Bishop G. W. Ward exhorted the young to shun every evil.

Prest. L. Snow, remarked, the officers of this Stake are the people's servants, and should make sacrifices in their interest if necessary. Jesus, Moses and the Prophets did so for the people in former generations.

Singing, benediction.

Adjourned for three months.

Correspondence.

SNOWVILLE, Boulder County, Utah,

Editors Deseret News:

Snowville is growing. We have the county surveyor busily engaged, and to-day we completed a survey of a ditch which will bring the waters of Deep Creek out on several thousand acres of splendid and as yet unclaimed lands. What we want is 50 more families to take this good land and help us to convert it into a grain field. Our town will be laid off into lots ready to give to those that wish lots. A good well of water was dug on my lot, and at the depth of 38 feet splendid water was found, but the curious thing about it was that the bone of a buffalo horn was found at the above depth in a state of good preservation. We also found, in a well dug last winter, about one mile from the above well, the rib of an animal, supposed to be a buffalo, at the depth of 25 feet, in a good state.

Our crops have been good, from 40 to 60 bushels of wheat and barley to the acre.

The health of the settlement is good, and general peace prevails.

Your brother in the gospel.

ARNOLD GOODLIFFE.

A Snake Story.

One day this week, while Mr. Boone and Mr. Kim Thomas were out in the woods, near town, engaged in chopping, Mr. Boone saw a large black snake run into a log. He told Mr. Thomas about it, and the latter went to the end of the log to take a peep at his snakeship. Just about this time, the black reptile dashed out, and before Mr. Thomas could think, was securely coiled around his neck, with his head in front of his, licking out its tongue ferociously at him. Although nearly choked, he seized it near the head, and with the aid of Mr. Boone, who had gathered enough of courage to take hold of the tail, the business of unwinding was successfully performed. The snake was about six feet long. Mr. Thomas will not explore any more hollow logs for a while.—Plattsburg (Mo.), Lever.

The late Erastus Smith of Hartford, Conn., used to be very neglectful of his personal appearance, and wore a soiled coat very much the worse for wear. One day Mr. Richard D. Habbard, now Governor of the State, met Mr. Smith wearing a beautiful rose in his buttonhole. "Is not this rose a beautiful one?" said Mr. Smith. "Now, Mr. Hubbard, can you imagine where I got it?" "It might have grown there," was the reply.

THE SUN FOR 1876.

The Sun will be printed every day during the year to come. Its purpose and method will be the same as in the past. To present all the news in a readable form and to tell the truth though the heavens fall.

The Sun has been, is, and will continue to be independent of everybody and everything save the Truth and its own conviction of duty. That is the policy which has won for this newspaper the confidence and friendship of a wider constituency than was ever enjoyed by any other American Journal.

The Sun is the newspaper for the people. It is not for the rich man against the poor man, or of the poor man against the rich man, but it seeks to do equal justice to all interests in the community. It is not the organ of any person, class, sect or party. There need be no mystery about its 1876 resentments. It is for the honest man against the rogues every time. It is for the honest Democrat as against the dishonest Republican, and for the honest Republican against the dishonest Democrat. It does not take its cue from the utterances of any politician or political organization. It gives its support unreservedly when men or measures are in agreement with those principles upon which the Republic was founded for the people. Whenever the Constitution and constitutional principles are violated—as in the outrageous conspiracy of 1876 by which a man not elected was seated in the President's office, where he still remains—it speaks out for the rights. That is THE Sun's idea of independence. In this respect there will be no change in its programme for 1876.

THE SUN has fairly earned the hearty hatred of rascals, frauds, and humbugs of all sorts and sizes. It hopes to deserve that hatred for least in the year 1876. Since its 18th, 1877, for any price soever up. THE SUN will continue to shine on the wicked with unmitigated brightness.

While the lessons of the past should be constantly kept before the people, THE SUN does not propose to make itself in 1876 a funeral of ancient history. It is printed for the men and women of to-day, whose concern is chiefly with the affairs of to-day. It has both the disposition and the ability to set and its readers the promptest, fullest and most accurate intelligence of whatever in the wide world is worth attention. To this end the resources belonging to well established prosperity will be liberally employed.

The present disjointed condition of parties in this country, and the uncertainty of the future, lend an extraordinary significance to the events of the coming year. The discussions of the press, the debates and acts of Congress, and the movements of the leaders in every section of the Republic will have a direct bearing on the Presidential election of 1876—an event which must be regarded with the most anxious interest by every patriotic American, whatever his political creed or allegiance. To these elements of interest may be added the probability that the Democrats will control both houses of Congress, the increased feebleness of the fraudulent Administration, and the spread and strengthening everywhere of a healthy abhorrence of fraud in any form. To present with accuracy and clearness the exact situation in each of its varying phases, and to expound, according to its well-known principles, the principles that should guide us through the labyrinth, will be an important part of THE SUN'S work for 1876.

We have the means of making THE SUN, as a political, a literary and a general newspaper, more entertaining and more useful than ever before; and we mean to apply them freely.

Our rates of subscription remain unchanged. For the DAILY SUN, a four page sheet, the daily cost in consequence of the price, by mail, postpaid, is 55 cents a month, or $6.50 a year, postpaid. The price of the SUNDAY SUN, a great 48 column paper, is 70 cents a year, postpaid. The price of THE WEEKLY SUN, eight pages, fifty-six columns, is $1 a year, postpaid. For clubs of ten sending $10 we will send an extra copy free. Address
