

AROUND THE COURTS.

that Justice Morris engaged with the Jerry Case.

A SEALED VERDICT RETURNED.

Just and Severe—Name too, the Vigilant" required it so.
Jerry.

George English, leading attorney for Cottonwood Creek Justice Morris, is now an associate in the Teller law office, returning from the woods home.

The last session of the Legislature was one of the most exciting ever at Salt Lake City. The second session of the Trade House, or Second Legislature, began
February 10, and adjourned on the 25th.
In a series of meetings, the Legislature acted favorably on the proposed bill to amend the Constitution, the principal measure being the proposal to increase the tax on tobacco.

FOR REED AND PARADE.

The second session of the Legislature
was one of the most exciting ever at Salt Lake City. The second session of the
Trade House, or Second Legislature, began
February 10, and adjourned on the 25th.

THE DUNFORD SHOE CO.

Speaker Cannon released a West of Australia liner from San Francisco.

Reuben Clemons has addressed
Missouri to the City of Sacramento regarding the George Durand case, requesting he be given a hearing before a trial date is set.

It was agreed to render judgment against the claimants in the George Durand case, and the trial date will be set in Sacramento.

In addition, it was agreed that strength negotiations, the principal negotiations will be held in Sacramento.

Local police are investigating the disappearance of the man who killed his employer.

DISAPPEARANCE.

In the case of Benjamin Farnum et al. vs. C. C. Clark, all seven were convicted and sentenced to the state prison.

MURKIN'S ACQUITTAL.

James Lee, one of the three women concerned who had been found dead in Colorado, Grossmont's case, is now in the charge of the long-hair. When he was found dead, he was found to have a bullet wound in his head.

The other two women are still missing.

WOMEN'S MEETING.

Minutes of the Presented Board Issue
and Preliminary Question.

This was a large audience at the meeting of the women's board at the Wheat Pavilion yesterday afternoon.

Resolutions were adopted urging support of the Anti-Saloon League, the necessity of improving the condition of the streets, and urging the writers of the new constitution to reverse past errors,
and to make the new constitution as far removed from the old as possible and acceptable to all.

The meeting was addressed by J. H.
Hawley, the woman of the year, Lawrence
Baker, and others.

A discussion was then opened concerning the election of United States member by a view of the people; that the people of the country are the best representatives of the people, and should be elected.

After the discussion was held and votes were given, resolutions were adopted, and the meeting adjourned.

The next meeting will be given with short address by prominent women.
