LOCAL BRIEFS.

One Smallpox Victim—Miss Clara Thomas, 19 years old, of 545 West Third North street, was the only victim of smallpox reported today to the city board of health.

To Entertain—Kingsley—Darwin E. Kingsley of the New York Life Insurance company will be in town later in the week, and a luncheon and reception are planned for him at the Knobstone hotel.

Assessing Water Users—Thomas Hobday, superintendent of the water works, detailed three men today to assess water rates for the new ginning January 1, 1899 under the new ordinance which will raise the schedule about ten per cent. It will take about two months to complete the work and it is estimated that the receipts will amount to $170,000.

Organ Recitals Next Week—The organ recitals voted for by the general conference yesterday will begin next Monday, and continue for the next six months. A recital on the great organ will be given in the Tabernacle each day, and will be given promptly at 1 o'clock. Sunday recitals will be at specially appointed hours. All will be entirely free to the public.

Harding Family Organizes—A meeting of the Harding family Genealogical society was held yesterday at the residence of Charles D. Harding, 179 North Second West street at which a program was carried out and a reorganization was effected. Charles Harding Sr. was elected president, C. D. Harding manager, Dr. George F. Harding secretary and trustee. Committees as previously standing were retained.

Daughters of the Pioneers—On most Sundays April 1st, the annual encampment of the Daughters of Utah Pioneers will be held at Social hall and a cordial invitation is extended to all sons and daughters of pioneers or any interested to be present. It will commence at 7 o'clock in a business session at which the election of officers will take place, and at 8 o'clock the program will be held, the numbers to include addresses by prominent speakers and a notable musical program.

OGDEN GIRL WINS.
Nettie Stephens is awarded decision in declamation.

The contest in declamation, which was held last evening in the assembly hall of the university, was won by Miss Nettie Stephens, of the Ogden High school. The contest was very close, especially between Miss Stephens and Pauline Fuller of the Wasatch Academy, who was awarded second place.

Miss Stephen's subject was "The Man Without a Country," by Edward Everett Hale, which she delivered in such a manner as to win much applause. Pauline Fuller gave "Patsy" by Kate Douglas Wiggin.

The judges were Maud May Beck, Prof. F. W. Reynolds and D. N. Straup. Music was furnished by the university quartet and Miss Eleanor Provo, who sang "Less Than Dust" and "Simple Bells."

The full list of competitors was as follows:

"Mairs in Cuba," John A. Allen, Gordon academy.

"The Death of Benedict Arnold," by Lippard, Julius Higdon, All Hallows college.

"The Soul of the Violin," by Margaret Merril, Ruby Tuttle, Mantua High school.

"The Sorrow of Rahab," Lillian Bourne, Fillmore High school.

"Patsy," by Kate Douglas Wiggin, Pauline Fuller, Wasatch Academy.

"The Value of a Home," by Mrs. J. T. Rowan, Salt Lake City.

"Humanity's Cure Triumphant," by John M. Thurston, Barnest H. Quayle, Salt Lake High school.

"The Man Without a Country," by Edward H. Hale, Nettie Stephens, Ogden High school.

"In the Children's Hospital," Sammuth, Springville High school.
