JAIL WATER TAX.

A Subject of Sharp Controversy Between City and County.

The city and the county are at daggers drawn over the city's claim for $202 for county jail water taxes for the year. Against this the county board brings a counter claim for the city's share in the use of its elevator in the city and county building, but the city gets back at the board by arguing that the county is allowed free water for its offices in the building and for sprinkling the lawns. Things were brought to a focus yesterday by a letter from City Treasurer Morris to the county board, in which he stated that the city was not forthcoming immediately the jail would have to go dry.

The board referred the matter to the committee on control of the building.

AMUSEMENTS.

There are many reasons why "Nathan Hale," Clyde Fitch's dramatization of the story of the patriot spy of the Revolution, in which Howard Kyrle will be seen at the Theater Tomorrow night, should appeal to all the American people. In the first place, Clyde Fitch, the author, is a Connecticut boy, having been born in Hartford. Nathan Hale himself was born in Coventry, Connecticut, and graduated at Yale in 1773. One of his staunchest friends, who was also a Continental captain with him, was William Hull, also a graduate of Yale in 1773. The pretty Alice Adams, Nathan Hale's sweetheart, was born in Canterbury, Conn., and her father, Col. Adams, was one of New England's glorious contributions to the Revolutionary cause. The scenes of the play are laid in New London, Conn. It may not be generally known that the Rev. E. B. Hale, the author of "A Man Without a Country," is a grand nephew of the Revolutionary martyr.

COUSINS MAY MARRY.

Opinion Handed Down by Attorney General Breden.

Attorney General Breden yesterday afternoon handed down an opinion on the marriage laws of Utah to E. E. Sprague, county attorney of Platte county, Utah. The following questions were submitted to the attorney general: "Does the county clerk have the right to issue marriage licenses to first, second and third cousins? What relationship stands within and includes the fourth degree of consanguinity?"

The attorney general stated it as his opinion that the statute in Utah forbids marriages between persons of the third degree of consanguinity. Under the civil law that includes the marriages of uncles and nieces, aunts and nephews, and of first cousins.

First cousins may marry and are in the fourth degree of consanguinity. County clerks have the right to issue licenses to first, second and third cousins.

LYMAN AND GRANT RECEPTION.

Banquet to Departing Missionaries, Who Will Shortly Leave for Europe and Japan—Business Associates and Fellow Workers Wish Them Godspeed.

The farewell reception and banquet given in honor of Apostles Francis M. Lyman and Heber J. Grant, at the Latter-day Saints' college last night was an unreserved outpouring of personal regard and hearty good wishes.

The reception was given by the officers and boards of the four institutions with which the two Apostles are jointly connected, viz.: Z. C. M. L. of the Co-op. Wagon & Machine company, Zion's Savings Bank and Trust company, and the Home Fire Insurance company of Utah. The arrangements for the banquet and the program were in the hands of a committee representing all four institutions, that they were complete and thoroughly finished goes without saying, when it is known that the committee was made up of Col. T. G. Webber, Henry Dinwoody, George T. Odell, C. S. Burton, John C. Fisher and H. G. Whitney. On one of a blackboards of the college was beautifully written the following poem:

Heber J. Grant, who was with me
When I first came to this land,
And who has been my friend and guide
Through all the trials and the strife,
I pray that God will bless thee
In all thy journeyings,
And that he will give thee
A safe and happy return.

President Smith made a few closing remarks, thanking the committees for their able manner in which they had managed the affair, announcing that the ladies present were invited to help themselves to the American beauty roses. The benediction was then pronounced by Apostle George T. Odell, and the reception ended with the singing of "Auld Lang Syne."

The speeches of the evening were interspersed with some excellent musical numbers, consisting of a solo, "Happy Day," by George D. Pyper; "The King of the Hill," by Mrs. L. A. Thomas; "A Lullaby," by Miss Arvilla Clark, and "My Gypsy Sweetheart," by Horace Ensign, the chorus being given by the ladies.

Mr. Arthur Shepherd acted as accompanist of the evening, and acquitted himself in his well known artistic fashion. The program was a most successful one, and the guests all enjoyed the evening very much. The speakers concluded by expressing the feeling that if Elder

DOES NOT DISAPPOINT.

The New Discovery for Catarrh Seems to Possess Remarkable Merit.

A new catarrh cure has recently appeared which so far as tested has been remarkably successful in curing all forms of catarrh, whether in the head, throat, bronchial tubes, or in stomach and liver.

The remedy is in tablet form, pleasant and convenient to take and no special diet is required, and it is so simple that it can be used by anyone.

Whether the catarrh is located in the nose, throat, bronchial tubes or stomach, the tablets seem to act with equal success, removing the stinging feeling in the throat and clearing the mucous membrane of throat and trachea from catarrhal secretions, which cause the tickling, coughing, hawking and gagging so annoying to every catarrh sufferer.

Nasal catarrh generally leads to ulceration in some cases to such an extent that it destroys the nose entirely and in many old cases of catarrh the bones of the head become diseased. Nasal catarrh gradually extends to the throat and bronchial tubes and very often to the stomach, causing that very obstinate trouble, catarrh of the stomach.

Catarrh is a systemic poison, inherent in the blood, and local washes, douches, salves, liniments and sprays can have no effect on the real cause of the disease. An internal remedy which acts upon the blood is the only rational treatment and Stuart's Catarrh Tablets is the safest of all internal remedies, as well as the most convenient and satisfactory from a medical standpoint.

Dr. Stuart, who has been testing the tablets for many years, states that he has successfully cured Stuart's Catarrh Tablets in old chronic cases, even where ulceration had extended so far as to destroy the bones of the nose. He says, "I am pleasantly surprised almost every day by the excellent results from Stuart's Catarrh Tablets. It is remarkable how effectively they remove the cause of the disease, and bring about a healthy condition of the mucous membrane of the nose, throat and stomach."

All druggists sell complete treatment of the tablets at 50 cents and a little book giving the symptoms and causes of the various forms of catarrh will be mailed free by addressing F. A. Stuart Co., Marshall, Mich.
