

"New York July, 9.

Daniel Manning, Chairman of the New York State Delegation, Chicago:

On reading of to-day's proceedings and Mr. Grady's remarks concerning Gov. Cleveland, I telegraph you that I was a representative Irishman before Grady was born, and as such believe I know the sentiments of my countrymen and co-religionists, and place my assertions against his, that nine-tenths of the Irishmen I meet are in favor of Cleveland's nomination, and the universal sentiment expressed in this city is that

GRADY HAS UTTERED A VILE CALUMNY against the Irish and Catholics of America.

Signed,

WM. R. ROBERTS.

The hour for meeting has long past and delegates are still coming. There are occasional cheers and music by the band. The visitor's seats being fully occupied, the scene is an animated one. The Cleveland men confidently predict his nomination if a ballot is reached to-day.

Among the distinguished gentlemen occupying seats on the platform were Speaker Carlisle and Hon. W. H. English, of Indiana, the last democratic candidate for the Vice-Presidency. Hon. Saml. J. Randall was not present. The convention was CALLED TO ORDER AT 11.10.

The proceedings were opened with prayer by Rev. G. E. Larimer of the Emanuel Baptist Church, Chicago. He rendered thanks for a country where liberty found a refuge, labor an opportunity, domestic virtue a shield and humanity a temple. He prayed that the nation may be awakened to realize that not in material prosperity, not in wealth lay greatness and salvation, but in those virtues and principles announced in the word of God and echoed down through the centuries that in this country, liberty may not degenerate into license and authority into tyranny, nor capital into oppression, nor labor into riotousness, nor conviction into bigotry and superstition. He asked for a blessing on the convention that the high sentiments and ennobling principles that fell from the lips of the speakers yesterday may become the governing principles of the great party, and that its affairs to-day may be so ordered that the nominee of the convention will be a man of lofty character, of resplendent reputation, whose attitude before the people shall be an inspiration to the growing manhood of the people, and that if such a nominee be elected that he may be a blessing to the nation and not a scourge.

Carter Harrison, of Illinois, rising to a personal explanation, repelled the intimation made by one of the speakers yesterday that he had packed the hall with a clique which applauded his speech in seconding the nomination of Grover Cleveland.

A communication was received and read from the chairman of

stating that the committee, notwithstanding constant and patient efforts, had not yet been able to complete a platform and would not be prepared to make a complete report before 7 p. m.

The unfinished business of yesterday, being the call of States for nominations was resumed. Mansur, of Missouri, came to the platform and made a nomination speech. He said that Missouri would have given 32 stalwart democratic votes for the old ticket headed by the sage of Grammercy and his venerated friend from Indiana (Mr. Hendricks). As they could not have the old ticket he had been casting about to see who was the man who in the urgency should lead the embattled hosts of the democracy to a grand and glorious victory. Nothing short of a blunder could make the democracy lose the election with democratic governors and 23 democratic legislative representatives, 263 electoral votes out of 401; nothing but a fatal blunder could make the democracy lose.

WITH THURMAN AS THEIR STANDARD BEARER

they could carry Ohio, New York and California. In proof of this statement he repeated a conversation he had had with Gen. Spinola and other Tammany men and read telegrams from Ohio and California. In conclusion he declared before God that the democracy was hungry even unto death, not for the venal spoils of office, but for the glory of doing good to their fellow-beings. (Laughter and applause.)

Livingston, of Mo., rose to second the nomination of Grover Cleveland, but the chairman stated it would require unanimous consent. "No matter," said Livingston, "we have got our work in anyhow." (Laughter.)

The man who was spoken of as the "noblest Roman of them all," Allan G. Thurman of Ohio. [Cheers.] He therefore seconded that nomination. He had looked in Mr. Thurman's face yesterday and recognized in him

"THE COLLOSSAL DEMOCRAT of the country, the Bismark of America."

Thos. E. Powell, of Ohio, came to the platform to put in nomination the name of

GOVERNOR ROADLEY OF OHIO.

He declared that if the democracy was true to itself its success in the coming struggle was already assured. Within the last few years he said the State of Ohio had overcome a republican majority of over 100,000 and at this hour the government of Ohio was in the keeping of the great democratic party. The man who had been the acknowledged leader in bringing about that change was the candidate whom he now presented, Governor Roadley, of Ohio. (Some applause.) He had received the largest endorsement ever given to a democrat in Ohio, getting 19,000 more votes than Hancock had received in 1880. He was known to the nation as a great lawyer, a wise statesman, a fearless and aggressive leader, a man of acknowledged ability, of undoubted integrity, and a man of courage as well as of wisdom.

The State of Pennsylvania having been reached in the call, Senator Wm. A. Wallace of that State came to the platform to nominate

MR. RANDALL.

He said: by the direction of the Pennsylvania delegation I come to present the name of a candidate for the great office of President of the United States. The name which I bring you, is found on every page of your country's and your party's history in the last two decades. (Applause.) It is that of an untried tyro in political affairs. It is that of a man in the prime and vigor of his matured manhood, with every faculty trained in practical government. An official life of 20 years lies behind him, clear, luminous and pure. No dishonorable action, no corrupt practice has ever stained his record. While most of his contemporaries in official life have grown rich through dubious and unknown means, he is still a poor man, [Cheers] whose highest aim has been fitly to serve his people and this republic. Democrats, the hour has struck for the nomination of a democrat grounded in the faith and tried in the stern crucible of party service.

The pathway of expediency lies behind us, strewn with the wrecks of our old failures. Let us be honest now, let us stand by the record of our own republic's men, let us boldly appeal to the people on that record and spurn the delusive promises of our bitter foes. RICHMOND, Mo., 10.—Joseph Smith, son of the founder of the Mormon Church, Alexander Smith, T. W. Smith and W. H. Kelly, committee appointed by the Mormon conference, at Salt Lake, are now in that place comparing the books of Mormon as at present published, with the original manuscript in possession of David Whitmer, of Richmond. Mr. Whitmer claims to be one of three persons who saw the angel give the graven plates to Joseph Smith and this manuscript is a copy of the plates made by the Prophet himself and is the only one in existence. Why comparison is made is not stated.

No such committee was ever appointed by the Church here or elsewhere. The dispatch refers to the Josephite Church, which has not the remotest connection with the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints. (Ed. D. N.)
