a paper last night before the Salt Lake Medical society on acute pelvic inflammation. He was the guest of Dr. Hos-ner at the Alta club prior to attending the evening session of the society. Dr. Findlay is en route to Los Angeles.

The New Thought league will meet this evening, in Federation hall, where Mr. H. C. Williams will continue his lectures on "Solar Physics." The special theme of the occasion will be the physical properties of ether, and its relation to the qualities of narmonic vibration.

The marvelous extent to which the building of moderate sized homes is obtaining in this city, is attracting the attention of tourists as they ride about town in the "Seeing Salt Lake City" cars. There is hardly a block in the some kind of a home improvement,

An afternoon with Shakespeare was mjoyed yesterday at St, Mary's academy by the students of the academy and the All Hallow music students. Fred A. Metcalf gave a number of readings from "Macbeth" and "Julius Caesar," and from "The Rivals," of Sheridan. The program was enlivened with music

Capt. Webb has made great im-provement with the 230 High school cadets under his military direction. The boys were all "raw recruits" when drilling and careful attention to the boys individually, as well as collec-tively, the battalion of four companies has been "whipped into shape" so that the boys march in fine alignment and with soldierly bearing.

The central committee of Ailied Farmers of Salt Lake county has called a meeting to be held in the Granite stake tabernacle at 7 p. m. Tuesday Nov. 28, at which it is requested all Nov. 28, at which it is requested all interested in the litigation against the smelters on account of damages from fumes be present. At the meeting the committee will report progress up to date and an open discussion of matters in relation to the suits now pending before the United States circuit court.

A meeting was held last night, in the office of the city engineer, to act on the completion of the Wasatch drive. Among those present were City Engineer George W. Riter, former city Engineers A. F. Doremus and L. P. Kelsey, and former member of the board of public works J. D. Murdock, It was decided to have the City creek culvert at the upper loop of the drive of rustic design, and made largely of cobblestones, also, that the driv-through the canyon should be 30 fee wide, with a substantial rustic fence on the creek side. The grading on Eleventh street was reported as partly completed, and it was decided to fill up the gaps without delay.

FOOTBALL SPECIAL.

Fifth Issue of University Chronicle Devoted to Athletics.

The fifth issue of the University of Utah Chronicle made its appearance last night and created general favorable last night and created general favorable comment among the students. The issue has some readable matter in it from Coach "Joe" Maddock, on the season's lessons. This plea is for a larger football squad, and the making of athletics that will serve the ends of recreation for students, rather than essentially a winning team.

The number itself is devoted to the football men, and one and all are car-football men, and one and all are cartooned, versified and "joshed." In addition to the article by Coach Maddock, Manager Jensen and Prof. Cummings contribute sketches of phases of athletics. The art work is more noticeable for its quantity than quality.
