

SOCIAL CHAT

The University Dramatic club has planned a dancing party at Saltair for this evening, and a special train will take the party out to the pavilion. Christensen's orchestra has been engaged for the occasion.

Miss Mary C. May was guest of honor on Thursday at a pretty luncheon given by the girls of the normal class of the kindergarten department which is in charge of Miss May. The table was decorated in violets, and the violet idea prevailed throughout. The guests besides Miss May were Vera Lane, Miss Louise Lamson, Miss Sallie Scholes, Miss Clara Williams, and Miss Agatha Berkhoel.

Mr. and Mrs. Ira Lewis will entertain at dinner tonight.

On Thursday Mrs. B. M. Proiseth entertained at a pleasant Kensington, the affair being an informal one. The rooms were effectively decorated, and refreshments were served.

Mr. and Mrs. Leroy G. Dinwoody will shortly be at home to their friends at 37 east First street.

The Social club of Z. C. M. I. will give a dance at Saltair next Thursday evening.

Miss June Binta will give a Kensington for Miss Helen Cullen next Tuesday afternoon.

Gov. John C. Cutler entertained the members of his staff and the officers of the national guard of Utah at his residence Thursday evening.

Miss Nellie Cullen entertained her sewing club yesterday afternoon, her guests spending a most enjoyable time.

Mrs. William Flowers of Mill Creek entertained about 40 of her friends last Friday at a progressive high five party, the occasion being Mr. Flowers' forty-sixth birthday. The evening was passed very pleasantly and at a late hour, dainty refreshments were served. Dr. and Mrs. Cahn secured the card prizes. Decorations were in green and red.

Mrs. Harry M. Cushing entertained the members of the O. E. S. at a delightful social at her home on Wednesday.

Mrs. J. O. Rebers entertained informally at her apartment in the Emery-Holmes on Monday night.

Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Whitney entertained at a card party at their home on Monday night, about 30 guests being present. The rooms were bright with flowers, and prizes were won by Mr. and Mrs. J. Mcgrath and Mrs. C. H. Brink.

Today the women who had charge of arrangements for the reception for Senator Kearns enjoyed a luncheon at the Emery-Holmes cafe.

On Tuesday Mrs. E. V. Silver entertained at her home a number of her friends enjoying a pleasant afternoon.

Mrs. John C. Cutler, Jr., will give a Kensington next Wednesday afternoon in honor of her sister.

Mrs. A. Carter announces the engagement of her niece, Miss Lillian Featherstone, to E. W. Smith. The wedding will take place some time in the near future.

Matthew Cullen announces the engagement of his daughter, Nellie M., to Frederick U. Leonard. The marriage will take place immediately after Easter.

The members of class A of the second intermediate department of the Twenty-eighth ward Sunday school tendered their teacher, William H. Brooks, a very pleasant surprise party on Wednesday evening, March 22, the evening being pleasantly spent in music and games. Refreshments were served.

Dr. and Mrs. Pfouer entertained informally at a German at their home on Thursday night, about 12 couples participating in the cotillion. The rooms were effectively decorated, the favors unique, and the affair altogether enjoyable.

The Thistle club entertained at one of their delightful dancing parties last night, and a large number were present to enjoy it.

Mrs. W. H. Child entertained the members of her sewing club on Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. S. D. Evans entertained delightfully at cards last night in honor of Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Brink, who leave shortly to make their home in Denver. The rooms were prettily decorated in spring flowers and vines, and a large number of friends were present to enjoy the event.

Mrs. J. D. Spencer entertained the sewing club on Wednesday.

A number of box and paragon parties enjoyed the performance of "Christophen Jr." by the University Dramatic club at the Theater this week.

Mrs. and Miss Hobbs entertain next week in honor of Mrs. Melvin and Mrs. Brink.

Mrs. W. W. Riter and Miss Riter entertained at a reception on Monday in honor of Mrs. Briant Wells, and other ladies of the post, the affair being a delightful one. The rooms were effectively decorated in pink and white, and during the afternoon musical numbers were rendered by Willard Wells, accompanied by Tracy Cannon, Mrs. Marian Dinwoody, and Mrs. Will Riter. Assisting in serving were Mrs. Frank Colic and stomach troubles are avoided by using Mellin's Food for the baby. Mellin's Food being soluble, easily digested and very nourishing, Mellin's Food babies are free from colic and stomach troubles. Try a bottle of Mellin's Food and prove it to your own satisfaction. We will send you a sample of Mellin's Food free of charge.

Mellin's Food is the ONLY Infants' Food, which received the Grand Prize, the highest award of the Louisiana Purchase Exposition, St. Louis, 1904. Higher than a gold medal.

MELLIN'S FOOD CO., BOSTON, MASS.

PRINCE GUSTAVE ADOLPHE.

Prince Gustave Adolphe, whose betrothal to Princess Margaret of Connaught has just been announced, is the son of the crown prince of Sweden (now regent of Sweden). He is a vigorous young man, full of life and spirits, and is exceedingly popular in his own country.

for a two months' visit with relatives in New York.

Mrs. J. C. Royle has gone for a visit of a month or so with her sisters, Mrs. J. A. Thatcher and Mrs. J. M. Turner of Denver.

Mr. and Mrs. Elmer B. Jones will leave tomorrow morning for a short business trip to New York.

Mr. and Mrs. L. C. Miller are back from a visit of several weeks in California.

Mr. and Mrs. Simon Bamberger will leave shortly for a stay of a month at Ocean Park.

Mr. and Mrs. George P. Holman have returned from southern California, where they have spent the past two months.

Mrs. C. E. Wantland of Denver will be in the city the first of the coming week to spend a week with Mr. and Mrs. Ira H. Lewis.

Mrs. A. C. Ewing will leave next Thursday for a visit of some two months with friends and relatives in the east.

Mrs. Lindsay R. Rogers is spending some time in California.

Mrs. and the Misses Kirkpatrick leave for Butte next week.

Miss Ann M. Cannon has returned from California.

Mrs. Dunbar will leave for Chicago shortly to visit her daughter, Beth, who is at school there.

Mrs. Rebecca Little and her daughters will leave shortly to spend the summer on the continent.

Miss Bees Hard left this week for a brief visit in southern California.

Mrs. John A. Reeves and children will take a sojourn at Long Beach, Cal., for the summer.

Dr. Henry La Motte is in San Francisco on a short business trip.

Mrs. J. J. Hosmer expects to pass some time in Los Angeles during the coming season.

Mr. and Mrs. L. C. Miller are back from the coast.

Mrs. Vivian McCune expects to leave shortly for the Pacific coast.

Mrs. Wells is in the city from Helena and a guest at the Sadler residence.

Mrs. F. D. Bickford will be among the Salt Lakeers who will make a trip abroad this summer.

THE LARGER OUTSIDE CITIES

OGDEN.

Mrs. S. H. Cave was hostess at a pretty luncheon, given Tuesday afternoon at her parlors on Twenty-fourth street, in honor of her sister, Mrs. M. E. Ashton, of Omaha, who is visiting in Ogden for a short time. The house passed pleasantly away at social chat and cards, after which Mrs. Cave served a dainty repast in the dining room. The house was prettily decorated for the occasion with cut flowers and smilax, streams of ribbons were draped from the electric chandelier to the table corners, making an artistic effect. The color scheme was red. The special guests for the afternoon were the past chiefs of the Degree of Honor A. O. U. W., of which the hostess is a member.

Mrs. Stafford, the well known milliner, returned home this week from an extended visit in California.

Mrs. Mattie E. Vogel had as her guest this week her sister, Mrs. Wm. Carter, of Mountain View, Wyoming.

Heber Seeweroff, who has been in Southern California on an extended pleasure trip with his family, returned home Monday, having had a very enjoyable time.

Miss Ruby Jones, who for the past four months has been visiting in Oakland, California, with her sister, returned home this week.

James H. Wallis, wife and sons, of Sugar City, Idaho, were Ogden visitors this week guests of Mrs. Martha Read and Mrs. Charlotte Todd.

Miss Eliza Nelson and George A. Clifton, two popular young people of Ogden, were married this week.

The music loving public of Ogden is to have the days of long ago revived this summer, by the rendition of open air band concerts at intervals of perhaps every week in the public parks. The new concert band which was organized recently under the leadership of Prof. E. W. Nichols, will give their first concert tomorrow afternoon, commencing at 4:15 o'clock on the city hall square. An excellent program of popular music has been prepared for the occasion.

On Wednesday afternoon, Elder John V. Bluth united in bonds of wedlock Miss Mary Ann Barton, a popular young lady of Clearfield, Davis county, and Mr. Willard Barnes of Thomas, Idaho.

The Ladies' auxiliary to the O. R. C. gave a most delightful ball Thursday evening at Toller's dancing academy, which was participated in by a large crowd, who tripped the light fantastic until long past the midnight hour. Refreshments were served during the evening.

A parlor gathering of the Ladies' Aid society of the Methodist church was held Wednesday afternoon at the house of Mrs. Carr on Twenty-fifth street. An interesting program was rendered, and all present spent a pleasant afternoon.

Arrangements have been made by the Knights of Pythias for a reception and ladies' social, to be given at the Castle hall. The evening's program will be dancing, cards, music and feasting. Short's orchestra will discourse sweet music throughout the evening.

PROVO.

Mrs. Mary M. Boyden entertained at a dinner party on Monday evening in honor of the fifty-seventh birthday anniversary of her husband, Mr. James Boyden. The table decorations were carnations, and the flowers of spring. The games of "Pit" and "Sherlock Holmes" furnished entertainment during the evening, after the dinner hour. The guests were, Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Glazier, Mr. and Mrs. S. L. Chipman, Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Young, Mr. and Mrs. O. P. Sperry, Mr. and Mrs. W. E. H. Paxman, Prof. Partridge, and Mrs. May Partridge, Mr. and Mrs. B. J. Bennett, Mrs. Rose Young, Miss Elizabeth Jones, Mrs. Evans, Mrs. Clayton, Mrs. Bell Nelson, Miss Nellie Harris and Mr. John Jones.

Mr. and Mrs. Dunham left Provo on Sunday, and will make their home in Kentucky.

The members of the different organizations of the Sixth ward, entertained in the ward house on Monday afternoon, at a banquet and social in honor of the old people of the ward. The table decorations were beautifully arranged, and together with the many well prepared dishes, presented a pretty picture. Old-time songs, speeches and visiting made the afternoon hours happy ones.

The Misses Edith and Stella Young entertained at a social party on Friday evening, at the home of their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Young, on Academy avenue. Games, music and a delicious luncheon were the pleasures planned. The guests were Misses Stella and Jessie Nelson, Beatrice Ashworth, Sara Herbert, Margaret Clayton, Dora Vance, Stella and Sena Nielsen, Jennie and Martha Fern, Mattie Lloyd, Hazel Slatings, Hazel Strong, Hattie Van Wagon, Doll Henrie, Susie Ja-

Wilson Glazier, Ben Bean, John Rees, John Watson and Archie Walton.

The Mystery club met on Thursday afternoon at the club rooms. Mrs. Lizzie Edler gave a paper. A song was given by Miss Dulcie Webb, and a piano selection by Miss Nellie Clyde.

Miss Winnie Wilkins entertained a number of friends on Wednesday evening at a social party. Partners for the evening were found by matching quotations. Many amusing games furnished no end of amusement for the merry crowd. Those present were

LATEST ROYAL LOVE MATCH.

All Europe is interested in the love affair of Princess Margaret of Connaught and Prince Gustave of Sweden, whose betrothal has been announced. The time is not so far distant when princes and princesses were compelled to wed for reasons of state and not for love, which now causes the world to be more deeply interested in real royal love matches.

cobeen, Maline Glazier, Anne Newell, Ethel Rawlins, Margaret Bean, Thelma Hardy, Rene Chipman, Gertrude Brown, Carrie Evans, Pansie Thensen, Kate Rogers, Ruth Hall, Messrs. Lawrence Adams, John and Arthur Vance, Jack Kumrie, King Driggs, Rob Oldroyd, Rob Evans, Israel Lett, Alma Boyden, Rob Robison, Hamilton Gardner, Ernest Carroll, Drin Palmer, Geo. Hanger, David Gourley, Orson and Joe Lloyd.

The ladies of the Macabees entertained a number of friends at a social at the lodge rooms in the Knight block on Wednesday evening. Luncheon, games, music and dancing made merry hours for the happy crowd.

The students attending the B. Y. university from Wasatch stake sustained the presidency of the state and a number of friends of the state and of Heber on Friday evening, at the main hall. Games and dancing with singing, and a social handshaking, among the many pleasures of the evening.

The Sorosis club met on Wednesday afternoon with Mrs. Slater. Mrs. Ward gave a well prepared paper on "The Campaign in the South," followed by Heulah Bachman.

Mr. and Mrs. Jeffries entertained on Monday afternoon about thirty little people in honor of the birthday of their little son Paul. Many interesting and amusing games were planned for the pleasure of the merry little crowd.

The calico ball, given in the Fifth ward amusement hall on Friday evening, was both financially and socially a complete success. Some of the costumes worn were very artistic, while others created much amusement on account of their old-fashioned appearance.

Mrs. Gray entertained on Thursday evening at a dinner party, given in honor of Mrs. Plasted of Denver.

The music department of the B. Y. university, under the direction of Prof. Lund, have decided on the latter part of April, for the first presentation of their opera. They will be assisted by Mr. Alfred Best of Salt Lake City.

Mrs. Orvando Beebe and Mrs. Minnie J. Snow of Salt Lake City were Provo visitors on Sunday.

A number of young people met at the home of Mrs. Effie Howe on Thursday evening and organized a new literary club, which will meet each Thursday evening and consider the late literature.

Mrs. Sam Schwalb has spent the past week in Salt Lake City, the guest of Mrs. E. A. Wedgewood.

Miss Colla Swenson of Salt Lake City is visiting friends in Provo, the guest of Mrs. O. C. Newell.

The students attending the B. Y. university from Sanpete stake entertained at a social party in gymnasium hall, on Thursday evening. The hall decorations were in pink and green. A canopy of crepe tissue paper, suspended above the banqueting tables, in one end of the large room, made them look bright and cheerful. A musical program, and many interesting games were the evening's pleasures. Those having the affair in charge were Mr. P. Peterson, Mr. Fred Lamb, Mr. Rasmussen, Mr. Dave Edmonds, Mr. Roy Millar, Mr. Geo. Bartholomew, Miss Ella Musig, Miss Lula Nelson, Miss Lura Bradley, Miss Bell Tuttle, Miss Laine Edler, Miss Annie Edmonds, and Miss May Bartholomew.

Mr. and Mrs. James Graham are visiting friends in Salt Lake.

Miss Nerva Ross entertained a few friends at an informal musicale on Tuesday evening. Those present were Miss Thelma Hardy, Miss Cordie Peterson, Mr. Wilford McAllister, Mr. Pete Peterson and Mr. Clarence Hawkins.

Mrs. Lee Snedaker of Salt Lake City is the guest of her sister, Mrs. Slater.

The Second ward Dramatic club gave an excellent presentation of "The Outcast's Daughter," in the ward meeting-house on Friday evening.

LOGAN.

Logan, March 24.—Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Linnard entertained a number of

Extraordinary Millinery Values

WE OPEN the Season with a Cut Price Sale. 1800 Shapes at 50c, 75c and $1.00 Each. All New, Fresh and Clean blocked and sewed in This Season's Styles. 300 Street Hats for Ladies and Misses at $1.00, $1.25, $1.50 and $2.00 each. More than $40,000 Worth of Fine Millinery. Over 1000 Styles in Hats and No Two Exactly Alike.

Hats from 50c To $50.00 Each

It will be a Genuine Demonstration of an Up-to-date Millinery Establishm't Making a "Sale."

Hats from 50c To $50.00 Each

Business troubles and conservative buying in New York in February overstocked that market. Manufacturers and importers were forced to unload accumulated stocks that had been ordered but could not be taken.

We availed ourselves of this extraordinary opportunity to buy cheap.

We paid only one third the real value—early patrons shall share half the benefits.

As many as can be accommodated will be displayed in our main show room.

IN ADDITION TO THE HAT SALE.

FLOWERS—With but one profit; half what you have been paying.

RIBBONS—Our own importations, direct from the foreign looms through us to the consumer. Note the difference in prices.

LACES—For millinery purposes only in this seasons newest designs.

VEILINGS—The new novelties at importers prices.

More than 3000 Hats are in Reserve Stock.

CHIFFONS—Reduced over 40 per cent. We buy them in quantities.

BRAIDS—Our New York commissionaries supplies us direct from France, Italy, Austria and Japan with all the new weaves, and shadings. This system of buying enables us to sell them at less than an inexperienced dealer would pay for them.

NOTHING MORE GOES IN OUR STOCK ON WHICH YOU WILL HAVE TO PAY TWO PROFITS.

We reproduce in our own trimming room—the approved Parisian and New York designs.

The same hands that helped make some of New York's making hats for us. They will fit you in your own most becoming style.

IF YOU ARE SATISFIED to drop that foreign name on your hat you can get the same things from us at half the price—there will be no jobbers profits or fictitious values added to the price.

We claim and will maintain THE LARGEST EXCLUSIVE MILLINERY ESTABLISHMENT in the Rocky Mountain States.

116 South Main Street,
O. D. BANKS & CO.
(INCORPORATED)