"But," he said, "there is a clique in the navy which Sampson built up and fostered during the nine years' resi-dence in Washington, that so far has used its influence in his behalf and will continue to do so as long as it lasts. As a member of the Senate, it came to my notice that Sampson had suppressed records, which made it appear that that Schley was disobeying orders when, in fact, he was obeying orders issued by Sampson, but afterward in some mysterious manner suppressed. In any event, the people have already vindi-cated Schley."

Messages of Sympathy.

New York, Aug. 7.-King Edward has been the recipient of a number of sympathetic messages from all parts of the world, says the London representative of the Tribune. The sultan of Turkey was the first to telegraph an expression of deep condolence with his majesty and similar messages have come from other foreign powers and their representatives in London. When the king arrived in London from Cowes he must have been strong-ly reminded of the sad days following the death of his mother last January. Thousands of people had assembled in the vicinity of the railway station and as his majesty, accompanied by the queen and Princess Victoria, drove by on his way to Marlborough House every man in the crowd removed his hat in token of sympathy with the royal mourners. It is understood that the king will not

Portland Has a Fire.

Portland, Ore., Aug. 7.—Fire broke out at 2:50 o'clock this morning at the Oregon Livery and Feed Stables run by John Kerr at the Northwest corner of Sixth and Couch streets and the flames rapidly spread to adjacent buildings. About fifty horses are supposed to have been burned to death. The total loss is about $30,000. A northwest wind was blowing and the flames licked up the house of Mrs. Manning on Couch street and also spread to the house next door occupied by Mrs. Myles. On the opposite side of Smith street the flames gained a hold on Mrs. Gordon's rooming house and in a Chinese laundry. Bros.' glass store suffered next the front being burned out. Dr. Pfunder's house, to the southward of the Blazing stable was next attacked and from the way the fire was spreading it looked at one time as if the new Federal building would go.

Alleged Dishonest Consul.

New York, Aug. 7 .- John V. Burr of Pulaski, N. Y., formerly quartermaster on the steamship Meteor, has arrived here from Rio Janeiro, at which point he left the vessel on account of sick-Burr says he will file a complaint with the department against the Unit-ed States consulate at Rio. He says that when he left the Meteor, which was bound for San Francisco from Toledo, Ohio, the captain told him he had deposited $92 with Deputy Consul General Hallo. When he left the hospital Burr says he applied for the money but only received $47. With this he se-cured passage to this country and had only $2 left when he landed in Brooklyn.

Refused Gold.

New York, Aug. 7 .- The U. S. naval collier Brutus, whic hhas just arrived at Tompkinsville, S. I., from Guam, brings an interesting story of a refusal to accept American gold during the voyage. At the Port Said entrance to the Suez canal the Brutus' commander was asked for $3,840 tolls, which amount was tendered in American gold, but was refused. It was not until the gov-ernment had been communicated with that the boat was released.

Favors Military Organization.

New York, Aug. 7.-Gov. Voorhees of New Jersey is in favor of the estab-lishment of a military organization at the reformatory which has just been opened at Rahway, N. J., and will make a recomendation to that effect at the meeting of the commissioners this week. His study of various methods has convinced him of the desirablity of such a course. The governor will urge the appoint-ment of Col. Quincy O. M. Gillmore of the Second regiment as military instructor. Col. Gillmore is a retired captain of the regular army. He was at one time quarter master at West Point and is now detailed by the war walked a few steps, sang a bar of the song, "Because I Love You," and then slashed his throat with a razor. He will probably die.

Encouraging to British.

New York, Aug. 7 .- The one thing needed for the development of public interest in the pageants of the new reign is peace in South Africa, says the Tribune's London correspondent. Lord Kitchener's summary of the week's op-erations shows a decline in the number will soon be placed in the university of Boers accounted for, but this reduc-tion is fully explained by the thinning out of the commandos still in the field. Gen. French's report is highly favor-able to British hopes, since as many as thirteen British columns are mentioned as harrying the Boers simultaneously. Lord Kitchener and Gen. French are clearly encouraged by the result of the exhausting campaign which is now in progress

Lord Milner's return will be followed, unless all signs fail, by the reopening of the Johannesburg mining industry on a large scale and by important changes in the political policy.

Elliott was appointed first lieutenant of the Twen-ty-sixth infantry some time ago upon the recommendation of Vice President Roosevelt and Congressman Wm. Astor He served with credit in Chandler.
