

Taft's Final Reply to Bryan

Says There is Nothing in His Last Statement That Seems to Require an Answer.

SUCH IS HIS ULTIMATUM

Addresses Negro Ministers—Has Deep, Inherited Sympathy for Colored Race.

Cincinnati, Sept. 15.—Candidate William Howard Taft today declined to go farther with Mr. Bryan in a newspaper controversy over the issues of the campaign.

"There is nothing in Mr. Bryan's statement of today which seems to require an answer. Should it appear so later, I will take up the subject in my public speeches."

This was Mr. Taft's ultimatum, as he expressed a willingness that Mr. Bryan should have the last word of comment on President Roosevelt's Taft letter.

ADDRESSES NEGRO MINISTERS.

This, the fifty-first anniversary of Mr. Taft's birth, proved to be the busiest day he had since his arrival here a week ago. He delivered an address tonight to an audience of ministers, composing the Ohio conference of the African Methodist Episcopal church, the first speech of his campaign to negroes.

The address was not political, but gave a clear outline of the sympathetic understanding and feeling entertained for the struggles of the race possessed by the candidate.

The candidate was escorted from the Taft residence to Allen temple in the evening by a party of the clergymen. He began his address by commenting on his familiarity with the temple and the congregation. He was there, he said, for the purpose of expressing his sympathy with the negro race in its struggle for better conditions.

"A sympathy," he said, "which I have had from the time I was a small boy, for I inherited it from my father, Alphonso Taft, than whom the colored race never had a better friend."

This interest, Mr. Taft said, had been stimulated through his experience in the Philippine islands. He remembered the struggle of the race from the time of slavery. It had made the most progress in agricultural pursuits and it was in this line he believed they should continue, although he spent considerable time in his comment on the value of education, which he said, had increased from 5 to 50 per cent in the past 40 years.

The education, he said, was most sought for by the negro race, he said, was primarily the rudiments of knowledge combined with industrial training.

This should be supplemented by higher education for a more limited number, to furnish well-rounded ministers, doctors, teachers and lawyers.

"It will be greatly to the credit of the negro to secure his civil and political rights when he becomes useful to the community and a source of profit to many members of it. Prejudice against the race falls away most rapidly when there are pecuniary reasons for its disappearance."

The candidate said he had not always been in favor of higher education for members of the negro race, but after a full consideration of the needs of the race, he was convinced that he was in error.

On the subject of race prejudice and mob violence, Mr. Taft said:

"I don't know that the race bitterness is any stronger today than it ever was. For a length of time it seems to be altogether abated and then there will be an outbreak, a mob will be formed, developing the worst spirit of cruelty, manifesting itself in the blind and most unreasonable assaults upon perfectly innocent people, simply because of their color. It is only fair to say that such brutal exhibitions are not confined to any one section."

"It is impossible to read accounts of this sort without having one's blood boil with indignation that there can reside in the human breast such a savage and beastly impulse and motive. But we must remember two things: First, that in spite of our education and refinement and progress toward Christian ideals, we still retain in our nature a great deal of the original animal; and secondly, that the spirit of mob seems to be a different spirit from that of the individuals making it up, and to disclose a more insensate and inhuman state of impulses than it would be possible to find in any one of its members."

"The best remedy, and the necessary one, is an improvement in the administration of our criminal laws, and the holding to strict account the officers of the law who do not use all means to prevent and suppress such outbreaks."

"I cannot too strongly condemn the

Heart Troubles

The heart may be weak just the same as the eyes, stomach or other organs. It often happens that a person is born with a weak heart. Then again disease, fevers, over-exertion, anxiety, nervousness, rheumatism, etc. weaken the heart. The result is shortness of breath, palpitation, pain in the heart, or in some of the nerves of the chest or abdomen. The heart should be strengthened with a tonic, and for this nothing equals Dr. Miles' Heart Cure.

"I feel like a new man," said L. G. Lippert, last fall, as I thought in a mild form, I was weak, tired feeling, and short of breath; could hardly go about, and a good deal of the time sort of an asthmatic breathing, and extremely nervous. I began taking Dr. Miles' Heart Cure and now I feel so much better in every way. I am so thankful that I began taking this medicine, and shall not hesitate to tell others how much good it has done for me."

attitude of those public men who, in their discussions of the negro question, use language calculated to arouse in the ignorant a deep contempt for the negro race, and to altogether unfriendly attitude toward it. They must be held responsible for much of the feeling that manifests itself in the conduct of the nation, in the sense that the nation and the actual cruelty exhibited toward him. On the other hand, I believe sincerely that all through the south a much better feeling is growing among many classes of citizens toward the negro."

Saying he realized the heart troubles of the negro, he added:

"But in spite of all," he said, "of good cheer—the future is brighter for him, and is more in his hands than ever. While the negro is the ward of the nation, in the sense that the nation brought him here against his will, and must now deal with the problems that his presence presents and solve them justly, fairly and charitably, he is not thereby relieved from the burden of responsibility that he must assume to win his way in the community of industry and thrift to place where he becomes too valuable a part of society for his deprecators to ignore his rights and well-earned position."

Mr. Taft's speech was warmly received and many of his periods roundly applauded.

Gov. Hughes Feels Honored

Deeply Appreciative of Confidence Reposed in Him Through His Renomination.

PRESIDENT HIGHLY PLEASED

Republican Leaders from Fourteen Central and Western States Express Great Satisfaction.

Rochester, N. Y., Sept. 15.—"I am deeply sensible of the honor conferred upon me. I wish to express my appreciation of the confidence reposed in me by the Republican party."

Thus did Gov. Hughes make his first public statement after his notification of renomination for governor of New York state this evening. Beyond that the governor would say nothing, either as to his running mates on the Republican ticket or his policies for the second year of his administration.

Gov. Hughes passed through Rochester early this evening, bound from Warsaw to Albany.

PRESIDENT PLEASED.

Oyster Bay, Sept. 15.—The news of the nomination of Gov. Hughes was received here while President Roosevelt was out riding, and it was not until some time afterward that he was made acquainted with the information. It is known that the president was greatly pleased by the action of the convention in renominating Gov. Hughes.

PARTY LEADERS SATISFIED.

Chicago, Sept. 15.—Republican leaders from 14 central and western states, who were assembled here today in conference with Chairman Hitchcock of the national committee, expressed their gratification at the renomination of Hughes for governor of New York. Without exception the leaders declared that the action of the New York convention will aid the Republicans in their campaign in all the debatable states of the west.

Requests that Gov. Hughes be sent into western states to make campaign speeches have been received in great numbers, and many of the chairmen of the state central committees have been insistent in their demands. The national committee refrained from asking Gov. Hughes to take part in the campaign, because it was not deemed wise to do anything that would look like interference in the contest between New York organization leaders and Hughes supporters over the gubernatorial situation where he is no longer any reason why an invitation to speak should be withheld from Gov. Hughes, and he will be asked to visit as many states as he can during his campaign. It is said that he may be scheduled to speak in Kansas, Nebraska, Iowa, and other western states, where his popularity is strong.

Chairman Hitchcock and Senator Dixon, director of the speakers' bureau, of the western headquarters, left Chicago tonight for Cincinnati, where they will confer with Judge Taft concerning the itinerary arranged for his western trip, which will extend into about 10 states, will begin about Sept. 25, and conclude on Oct. 7, when Mr. Taft will make a non-partisan speech before the Deep Waterways convention in this city. Mr. Taft may make a number of speeches in the region contiguous to Cincinnati before entering upon his long trip. These speeches, if made, will be in addition to the address to the National League of Republican clubs at Cincinnati, Sept. 22, and the speech in connection with George Ade's rally at his farm near Brook, Ind.

Representative Boutwell of Illinois, who has just returned from campaigning in Maine, visited Republican headquarters today. He said that the small party by which Maine was carried by the Republican party has no particular bearing upon the national election. He thought that the return of the entire Republican congressional delegation was an indication that the attitude of the party in Congress met with the approval of the people of the state, regardless of local differences. He predicted that in the national election the normal Republican majority would be given Taft and Sherman.

THE TICKET.

Saratoga, N. Y., Sept. 15.—The Republican state ticket for 1909 was announced today by Charles E. Hughes of New York (renominated).

For Lieutenant Governor—Horace White of Onondaga.

For Secretary of State—Samuel S. Koenig of New York.

For Attorney General—Edward R. O'Malley of Erie.

For Comptroller—Charles H. Gaus, of Albany.

For State Treasurer—Thomas B. Dunn of Monroe.

For Associate Judge of the Court of Appeals—Albert Haight of Erie (renominated).

Charles Evan Hughes of New York was nominated today by the Republican state convention by an overwhelming majority, and on the first ballot, to succeed himself as governor of the state of New York. He received 57 out of a possible 100, as against 131 for James W. Wadsworth, Jr., of Livingston county, speaker of the state assembly, and 31 for former Congressman John K. Stewart of Montgomery.

The nomination was made unanimous on motion of State Committeeman William Barnes, Jr., of Albany, who has been perhaps the bitterest and most outspoken opponent of the governor's renomination.

COMMISSIONER ESTIL ARRIVES.

San Francisco, Sept. 15.—Commissioner Estil, who will take charge of the Salvation Army's work in the west and north, with headquarters in Chicago, arrived yesterday from Japan and was greeted by Cols. Charles Miles and George French, the latter having come from Chicago to meet the new commissioner.

UNIVERSAL PEACE.

Carnegie Says That Emperor William Could Make it Secure.

Berlin, Sept. 15.—Andrew Carnegie has written a letter from Skibo castle, Scotland, to Representative Richard Bartholdt of Missouri, president of the American group of international unions, which convened in this city Sept. 14, in which he says:

"If the emperor of Germany ever realized his manifest destiny, peace would follow. He has it in his power to abolish war among civilized nations. All he has to do is to ask Great Britain, France and the United States to unite with him in declaring that since the world has contracted to a neighborhood, and in constant and instantaneous communication, one part with another, the interchange of products between them amounting to thousands of millions a year, the time has passed when any one civilized nation can be permitted to break the peace in which all are so deeply interested. International disputes must be settled by arbitration."

"Neither of the three countries named could afford to reject this in-itation, and the emperor would have performed a service to the world unequalled by any human being that ever lived."

Whether his majesty is to fail in this great mission and pass into history as one of the long line of rulers, not a man of achievement, but one of title, or to awake some morning to his duty and perform his mission, we cannot tell, but I shall hope that the angel of the Lord will appear unto him.

Several hundred strikers marched to the Canadian Pacific railway shops today, with the object of terrorizing the strikebreakers. They made an attempt to break into the shops, but reinforcements of police prevented a conflict.
