LOCAL BRIEFS.

Altars Being Installed.—The altars are being put in at the new Catholic cathedral.

Supt. Nelson the Roadrunner.—Supt. Nelson, who has been in the city for some time, is now on his way to the roadrunner.

Sold a Day Behind.—The coal dealers are themselves again, after the recent spurt of orders on account of the coal strike, and are only one day behind in their deliveries.

Matron for Canyon Crest.—Mrs. E. Wright has resigned her position as matron at the Canyon Crest.

Engineer Comes Arrives.—Engineer Coates of the Wallace-Cox company of Chicago, has arrived in this city from the coast to superintend the building of the new bridge.

Utah Lake Rising.—There is 700 second feet of water flowing out of Utah lake at present, all that can get out, and yet the level of the lake is six inches above normal, with small hopes of its coming down for the present.

Governor Reviews Cadets.—Gov. Cutler and staff are reviewing this afternoon, the high school cadets on the school parade grounds. The boys have been preparing for this function for some time, and a large crowd is present to witness it. The cadet band of 30 pieces will give a concert this evening.

"The Gospel of Contentment".—Rabbi Freund will preach on "The Gospel of Contentment" this evening, in the Jewish temple. The rabbi has been presented by the Ogden high school with a silver mounted fountain pen in appreciation of an address delivered before the graduation class of the school last April.

Will Photograph the Sun.—A. Rordame has got his 6 1/2-inch Newtonian reflector in order for taking photographs of the sun. There is now an 8000 mile wide spot on the solar surface approaching the meridian, which is being closely watched by astronomers. The temperature of the sun is estimated at 14,000 degrees, Centigrade thermometer.

W. H. C. Drake Resigns.—Engineer W. H. C. Drake of the fire department has tendered his resignation to Chief Vall and it will take effect at once. Mr. Drake has accepted a position in the employ of P. J. Moran and will have charge of one of the big steam rollers. Drake has been in the fire fighting service for eight years and was regarded as a most efficient fireman and engineer.

Chih Ching Discharged.—United States Commissioner Charles Baldwin yesterday afternoon discharged from custody Ling Chih Ching, a Chinese, who was being held on a charge of being unlawfully in this country. Chih maintained that he was a merchant, and that his status was a bar against deportation, and when an investigation was made the federal officials came to the same conclusion and he was accordingly released.

Fifth Ward Voting Contest.—In the voting contest going on in the Fifth ward as to the most popular person in that ecclesiastical district, there is much animation and good-natured rivalry manifested. The prize that is being sought for is a two dollar sonnet, one to Vandemore and the other to Lagoon. At present Geo. E. STATE LANDS.

Commissioners Decide to Re-appraise
All Those Open for Selection.

At the regular monthly meeting of the state board of land commissioners, which ended yesterday it was decided to re-appraise all of the state lands which are open for selection and during the re-appraisal, which will take several months, to appraise the lands at a lower price than $2.50 per acre. There are about 7,000 acres of land to be appraised. A loan of $10,000 was made by the board to the Deseret Lumber company, and the Middle River and return to the board county for the purpose of completing the Beaver bridge reservoir. The loan is at 4 per cent interest.

The board refused to purchase city scrip from S. Birch, the sidewalk contractor, for the reason that it was in small amounts. It agreed to purchase bonds worth of city warrants from Birch and also from S. Birch, and the board reports favorably upon them.

HUBBIE KEPT ACCURATE DIARY

For Two Years Albert H. Rogers
Jotted Down Actions of His Wife.

WOULDN'T COOK XMAS DINNER

Long Bill of Particulars Filed in Divorce Suit Entered in the District Court.

For two years Albert H. Rogers has apparently kept an accurate diary of the actions of his wife, Lucy Rogers, whom he is suing for divorce in the district court on the grounds of cruelty. His diary constitutes the larger part of his complaint, and if there is a movement she made during the time which Rogers did not like it is not apparent from the allegations of the complaint. They were married Oct. 8, 1894, and he alleges that she has treated him cruelly during most of that time. She has called him vile names, has left her home several times, has refused to care for him while he was sick and has done numerous acts which have caused plaintiff great mental suffering.

EXTRACTS FROM DIARY.

Following are the most important dates in Rogers' diary constituting the acts of cruelty:

July 25, 1895—Mrs. Rogers refused to walk with him on the street.

July 26—Mrs. Rogers struck him in the face and called him vile names.

Aug. 8—Mrs. Rogers refused to allow her husband to sleep in the same bed.

Oct. 12—Mrs. Rogers remained away from home all night.

Nov. 2—Returning, Mrs. Rogers called her husband vile names and said she would leave him.

Nov. 3—Mrs. Rogers got mad and left home again.

Nov. 30—Mrs. Rogers returned for a few minutes and then left again.

Dec. 12—Mrs. Rogers returned home in anger.

Dec. 25—Mrs. Rogers refused to cook Christmas dinner.

Jan. 10, 1906—Again Mrs. Rogers refused to allow husband to sleep in her bed.

Jan. 17—Rogers was called vile names.

Jan. 20—Mrs. Rogers left home and said she would never return to "him or his."

Feb. 6—Rogers was sick in bed with nobody to attend him.

Feb. 7—Mrs. Rogers returned home for a few minutes.

Feb. 8—Threatened to leave Rogers home again.

Feb. 10—Mrs. Rogers returned home and promised to do better.

Feb. 18—Mrs. Rogers helped in the store. Rogers went off to deliver goods. When he came back found the store locked and Mrs. Rogers gone.

April 6—Mrs. Rogers came home again.

April 16—Mrs. Rogers left home and said "was all off."

May 23—Mrs. Rogers came back.

May 24—Mrs. Rogers packed up her belongings and locked them in a back room.

May 24—Mrs. Rogers called him crazy and left the house for good.

Aug. 5—Mrs. Rogers went to Bonanza and refused to let Rogers go with her.

Aug. 27—Rogers was sick and Mrs. Rogers would not wait on him. She returned home and declared she never would return.

Nov. 15—Rogers was sick again and Mrs. Rogers would not wait on him.

Nov. 20—Mrs. Rogers returned, but refused to let him sleep in her bed. Pulled all the covers off.

Dec. 14—Mrs. Rogers called her husband vile names.

Dec. 22—Now house finished. Mrs. Rogers moved in.

Jan. 12, 1907—Mrs. Rogers called him vile names.

March 12—Rogers was assaulted and called names.

April 2—Mrs. Rogers repeated this dose.

April 11—It occurred again.

April 21—Mrs. Rogers packed up her things and left the place. She has not returned since.

HELLO CENTRAL.

How the Wires Get Crossed on the Phone Lines Occasionally.

A woman was intending to call up St. Mary's academy the other day, but got mixed on the phone and called for the Zang saloon. The operator called her attention to the fact that she must have got the wrong number, and started to explain to her that she was in the wrong. The caller, who said she was a student at St. Mary's, said she knew what she wanted. So the operator rang up the saloon.

The inquirer, the bar tender, was puzzled at the idea of the sister superior being around a saloon, and explained the nature of the connection. This made the woman so mad that she immediately filed a complaint against the telephone operator, whom she claimed had tried to play a joke on her.

Almost as regularly as the sun rises around some woman on the east side every Friday morning calls up the editorial rooms of the "News," and orders various and diverse kinds of fish. When it is explained to her that while there may be suckers in the office, there are no fish, she innocently inquires, "Why is not this fish market?" A Teuton rang up the "News" yesterday, to ask, "Is this sucker market?" Zeng's son, a high school boy, called and inquired for fish. When informed that just at present there was no fish on the books in the editorial department, the woman so mad that she immediately filed a complaint against the telephone operator, whom she claimed had tried to play a joke on her.

SHEEP FREE FROM SCAB.

No Special Inspection When Flocks Enter Government Reservations.

Utah sheepmen are congratulating themselves on the fact that Utah sheep are so free from scab that no special inspection will be necessary when the sheep enter the government reservations this spring. This is the result of systematic dipping and persistent inspection. Colonel Hixson, the government chief inspector, has issued the following circular letter:

"From reports received at this office of inspections of sheep at the shearing pens in the central and southern part of the state, it is demonstrated that a very large majority of the sheep are free from scab or exposure thereto. The outbreaks during the winter have been sporadic, and the infected sheep have either been dipped or have been immediately after shearing or are now under quarantine by the state authorities, where they will remain until such time as they can be safely turned out.

"Therefore, in view of the recent inspection made at the shearing pens by federal and state inspectors, I do not deem it necessary to require a special inspection of sheep going on the national forests in the State of Utah, and supervisors are hereby notified to that effect."

ROUGH HOUSE IN CAFE.

White and Colored Help Mix at the Wilson Salt Elevator.

The guests of the Wilson cafe were last evening treated to a little moving picture show outside of the regular musical program. Just as dinner was at its height the chef of the kitchen and his white cohorts about 10 in number, had a mixup with an equal number of ebony-skinned waiters, and for a few minutes an exciting scene unfolded before the eyes of the patrons. The waiter of peace again waved aloft his flag, and the victory was won. The waiter of peace again waved aloft his flag, and the victory was won. The waiter of peace again waved aloft his flag, and the victory was won.

MILITARY BALL

First Annual Meeting of Spanish War Veterans a Great Success.

At the state armory last night the first annual military ball of the United Spanish War Veterans was held, and was entirely a success. Gov. and Mrs. Cutler led the grand march, with over 100 couples in line, composed of officers from Fort Douglas, state officials, and members of the club. The band of the 1st Infantry, General E. A. Wedgewood, after whom the local post is named, was a special guest of honor. Music was furnished by the Fort Douglas orchestra.

RELIEF FROM RHEUMATIC PAINS

Among the troubles that beset mankind rheumatism is one of the most annoying. "I suffered with it for over two years," says Mr. Roland Curry, a patrolman of the West. "I tried every remedy I could get my hands on, but I was disappointed. One night when I was in severe pain and lame from it my wife went to the store and here and came back with a bottle of Chamberlain's Pain Balm. I was rubbed with it and the pain went away. I have not had it since. I have not had it since. I have not had it since."
