There was also a dance given on Friday night. There was also a dance given on Friday night, Dec. 29, and on New Year's night, which were well patronized. One pleasing feature was that many of the usual round, dances were cut out and cotillions and reels, those that father and pothec those that father and mothe could and would dance, were given dur-ing the evening. In most of the dances peretofore, round dancing has been all the go and the older people have remained at home.

The snowfall here is about the aver-esc at this season of the year. There is decided opposition to the proposition to divert the waters of the Weber river into the Provo river. It is a well known fact that there is not enough water in the Weber to irrigate the land under cultivation. During the past season some of the canals at the ast season some of the canals, at the ast season some of the canals, at the arnest request of citizens of Davis and Weber counties, were shut down or 10 days to save the crops of those sho asked for the water; the result was that the whore two counters and

ST. GEORGE. DEATH OF MRS. D. R. FORSHA.

Esteemed Young Woman Lays Down Life's Cares at Thirty-three.

Special Correspondence. St. George, Washington Co., Jan. 2 .-Funeral services were held in the stake Tabernacle yesterday afternoon over the remains of Charlotte Ashby Forsha, wife of Counselor David R. Forsha of the East ward Bishopric. Sister Forsha was born in St. George, July 9, 1873, and is the daughter of Na-thaniel and Mary Garr Ashby. As a bung woman, she was very active as a Church worker, being a member of the choir, a Sabbath school teacher, and a counselor to the stake president of the Y. L. M. I. A. Later on she was a member of the missionary entertainment committee. She was married to Elder D. R. Forsha in St. George Tem-ple, Feb. 15, 1899, and is the mother of three children who, with her husband, all survive her. The sympathy of the entire community goes out to the be-reaved family, as she was loved and respected by all.

weather has been delightful until Thursday night last, when we had a fall of several inches of snow, which all melted next day. It snowed again Saturday night and Sunday. The sec-ond fall has melted, except in sheltered places. The snow is several feet deep in Pine valley and Pinto a few miles to the north, which has greatly re-duced the temperature of otherwise balmy Dixie. The district school was prevented from opening this morning on account of an epidemic of scarlatina prevailing. One death has occurred, and there are a number of other cases, some of which appeared but a few days since. All gatherings of the children-Primaries, Sunday schools, etc., are suspended. The holidays passed off quietly in St. George.

> CEDAR FORT. NEW MEETINGHOUSE.

Completed and Nearly Ready for Use -Home Dramatics and Socials.

Special Correspondence. Cedar Fort, Utah Co., Jan. 4 .- The people of Cedar Fort feel proud in the fact that they have completed the new meetinghouse which has been in course of erection the last two seasons. It has en erected almost entirely from subscription, and cost about $2,000, besides the labor, which has been freely given by all members of the ward. The new building, which is a credit to the people, will be opened in a short time.

The Home Dramatic company put on another play during the holidays, which was well received. The Relief society gave a dance last evening. A delicious lunch was served during the dance. About $40 was made, and appropriated to the meetinghouse
