an extensive scale, free text-books and the abolition of the contract system in One of the rules with the Socialist party requires that all the names shall be submitted to a referendum of the membership, by which a choice may be made. All the candidates were required by the convention to sign resignation pa-pers, which are to take effect whenever the party so signing proves unfaithful or incompetent. The party leaders met with considerable difficulty in finding timber for their ticket owing to the party being chiefly made up of wage laborers who do not care for office. They also ex-perienced some trouble in finding any versed in law sufficient for the position of city justice of city justice An investigating committee, consist-ing of O. T. Johnson, Edward Pegan, William Kearns, C. J. Dallman and C. E. Myers, was elected to determine the practicability of the municipality pur-chasing the waterworks and electric plant. Her family being one of considerable wealth an influence, it was a great blow to them, and, in a worldly sense, a great sacrifice to her to join the poor outcast seet as the "Mormons" were then looked upon to be. She joined the main body of the Church at Council Bluffs. In 1850, she came to the valley, being accompanied by a younger brother, Dr. Starns Hotch-kiss, who still survives her and lives in San Francisco.

San Francisco.

Two years later, in 1852, she was mar-ried to Daniel Carter, one of the pio-neer fruit growers of Utah. They made their home in Bountiful where they took especial pride in the culture of choice varieties of fruit. In the early days there was no orchard more famous for apples and pears than theirs. Not being blessed with children of her own, since the death of her hus-band, which occurred in 1857, she has lived with her step-daughter, Ruth C. Cornia, at the old home in Bountiful. Although surrounded with all that love and kindness could do for her, she maintained her characteristic indepen-dent spirit to the last and within a few weeks of her death prided herself on be-ing able to go to meeting and do her own Two years later, in 1852, she was mar-

DEATH OF MRS. MARSHALL.

Mrs. Ann Marshall died at her home here on Wednesday last, in her 78th year. She was born at Doune, Perth-shire, Scotland, Feb. 14, 1826, was bap-tized into the Church in March, 1842, and sailed for America in the spring of 1844. She arrived in Salt Lake in 1849 and married Roberrt Marshall the same year moving to Bountiful in 1850. The deceased was the mother of 10 children, seven of whom, five boys and two girls, survive her. She was a loving wife, a devoted mother and a true Latter-day Saint and was highly respected by all who had the pleasure of her acquaint-ance. Among the sick and afflicted she spent the greater part of her life and by many such she will be greatly missed and her death deeply mourned. Special Correspondence. Huntsville, Weber Co. Sept. 9.—Too much booze caused the disappointment of a large number of citizens of the en-tire valley this evening. We are sup-posed to have a daily mail, which should be carried from Ogden to the valley by A. C. Schade, a government em-ploye. This evening the postoffice clerk fur connection with other citizens hunted up the mall carrier to locate the bag which they later found in the carrier's vehicle. He being unable to land it at its proper destination on the account of taking an overdose of the well known "O be joyful" brand of whisky. HIGH CLASS DRUGGISTS AND - OTHERS.

The better class of druggists, everywhere, are men of scientific attainments and high integrity who devote their lives to the welfare of their fellow men in supplying the best of remedies and purest medicinal agents of known value, in accordance with physicians' prescriptions and scientific formula. Druggists of the better class manufacture many excellent remedies, but always under original or officinal names and they never sell false brands, or imitation medicines. They are the men to deal with when in need of anything in their line, which usually includes all standard remedies and corresponding adjuncts of a first-class pharmacy and the finest and best of toilet articles and preparations and many useful accessories and remedial appliances. The earning of a fair living, with the satisfaction which arises from a knowledge of the benefits conferred upon their patrons and assistance to the medical profession, is usually their greatest reward for long years of study and many hours of daily toil. They all know that Syrup of Figs is an excellent laxative remedy and that it gives universal satisfaction, and therefore they are selling many millions of bottles annually to the well informed purchasers of the choicest remedies, and they always take pleasure in handing out the genuine article bearing the full name of the Company-California Fig Syrup Co.-printed on the front of every package. They know that in cases of colds and headaches attended by biliousness and constipation and of weakness or torpidity of the liver and bowels, arising from irregular habits, indigestion, or over-eating, that there is no other remedy so pleasant, prompt and beneficial in its effects as Syrup of Figs, and they are glad to sell it because it gives universal satisfaction.

Owing to the excellence of Syrup of Figs, the universal satisfaction which it gives and the immense demand for it, imitations have been made, tried and condemned, but there are individual druggists to be found, here and there, who do not maintain the dignity and principles of the profession and whose greed gets the better of their judgment, and who do not hesitate to recommend and try to sell the imitations in order to make a larger profit. Such preparations sometimes have the name-" Syrup of Figs"-or "Fig Syrup" and of some piratical concern, or fictitious fig syrup company, printed on the package, but they never have the full name of the Company-California Fig Syrup Co.-printed on the front of the package. The imitations should be rejected because they are injurious to the system. In order to sell the imitations they find it necessary to resort to misrepresentation or deception, and whenever a dealer passes off on a customer a preparation under the name of "Syrup of Figs" or "Fig Syrup," which does not bear the full name of the California Fig Syrup Co. printed on the front of the package, he is attempting to deceive and mislead the patron who has been so unfortunate as to enter his establishment, whether it be large or small, for if the dealer resorts to misrepresentation and and deception in one case he will do so with other medicinal agents, and in the filling of physicians' prescriptions, and should be avoided by every one who values health and happiness. Knowing that the great majority of druggists are reliable, we supply the immense demand for our excellent remedy entirely through the druggists are remember of whom it may be purchased every-where, in original packages only, at the regular price of fifty cents per bottle, but as exceptions exist it is necessary to inform the public of the facts, in order that all may decline or return any imitation which may be sold to them. If it does not bear the full name of the Company-California Fig Syrup Co .- printed on the front of every package, do not hesitate to return the article and to demand the return of your money, and in future go to one of the better class of druggists who will sell you what you wish and the best of everything in his line at reasonable prices.
