Special Correspondence. OISE, Ida., Jan. 2.- The suprem coust handed down an opinion this week denying the writ of corteorari in the case of the Canudian Bank of Commerce, plaintlift vs. Fremout Wood, as judge of the Third judicial district of the state of Idaho. sitting at chambers at Wallace, Shoshone county, Ida., within the First judicial district of the state of Idaho.

The writ asked for a review of a judgment in the case of George B. McAuley and Van B. De Lashmutt, plaintiffs, vs. and Van B. De Lashmutt, planning, vs. the Coeur d'Alene bank, a corporation, defendant, involving the administra-tion of the receiver appointed for said bank, and which judgment approved the action of the receiver in disallowing a claim of $14,405 by the assignee and successor of the Eank of British Co-bumble lumbia.

ANOTHER ADVERTISING SCHEME.

The Boise Commercial club hits upon a new scheme every week or so to ad-vertize house and spread acroad the fame of her superb clumate and glow-ing possibilities. Not long ago the club sent out thousands of post cards bearing scenes of Boise. Mr. Atkinson, bearing scenes of Boise. Mr. Atkinson, the secretary, has now procured a rub-ber stamp so contrived that he can ar-range to give the true climatic con-ditions of Boise each day, to be stamped on the back of each letter sent out from the club. This he hopes will be in-strumental in attracting people.

BICYCLE THIEF CAUGHT.
An important arrest was made on Tuesday when Col. Emerson was taken into custody by the local police. He is supposed to be an accomplice to Bas-sett, who gained considerable notoriety last fall by his wholesale theft of cicycles, and who made his get-away from the county jail after serving but 10 days of a six month's sentence, and who was only caught and returned the for-part of the week. He was re-taken at Pocatello.
