LOCAL AND OTHER MATTERS.

Home Mission.—The Home missionaries of this Stake will meet in the Council House on Wednesday evening at 7.30 o'clock.

W. W. TAYLOR,

Clerk.

Vandalism.—On Saturday last

some mischievous boys were guilty of vandalism in Liberty Park. A wooden pump which had been erected to supply the workmen with

water was filled by them with rocks,

and then they amused themselves

by using it for a target to shoot at.

They also took an axe they found

in the grounds and chopped a number of trees, completing their catastrophe of pranks by carrying the axe

away.

Party of Tourists.—Yesterday a large number of tourists were in town. Some were from Australia and the others from the East India

Islands. They spent yesterday in the city,

attended service at the Assembly hall, and visited several points of interest. They took their departure

this morning for the East, well pleased with, and much interested in all they had seen and heard during their brief sojourn here.

Returned from Ogden.—Last evening Presidents John Taylor and

Joseph F. Smith, Apostles E. Snow

and Brother George F. Gibbs, returned from Ogden. During the holding of the Conference the weather was very disagreeable, raining

and snowing most of the time. It was good Conference, however,

and on Sunday afternoon the Tabernacle was filled. The morning meeting yesterday was addressed by Apostle E. Snow, and that of the afternoon by Presidents Joseph F.

Smith and John Taylor.

DEATH OF PROF. J. L. BAR-

FOOT.

THE CURATOR OF THE MUSEUM

BREATHES HIS LAST ON SUNDAY

MORNING.

The death of Professor Joseph L. Barfoot, occurred at 4.45 a. m. yesterday, in his room on the upper floor of the Museum building. He had been suffering for some time from bronchitis, but none anticipated that the end was so near. On Saturday he was at his post in the Museum, of which he was curator, as usual, and slept well from nine till night four a. m. Yesterday, at that hour he awoke and was seized with a severe fit of coughing. He requested his wife to summon Dr. H. J. Richards, who soon arrived, but he had become unconscious, and passed away quietly as if falling into a gentle sleep. Brother George Reynolds, a friend of the deceased from his boyhood, was called in and, by request, took charge of the details for the funeral, which will be conducted at 10 a. m. tomorrow, at the 21st Ward meeting house.

Deceased was born on the 29th of March, 1816, in the historic fortress of Warwick Castle, Warwick, England. At the age of 18 years he joined the Royal Marines of the English Navy, and after serving a few years, obtained his discharge. He proceeded to London, where his father occupied the position of Superintendent of the London City Mission, and in that capacity was closely associated with the noted philanthropist the Earl of Shaftesbury, then Lord Ashley.

About this time Brother Barfoot obtained a situation as Butler to S. Guernsey, the banker, at Ham, Essex. He left that situation in 1842, in which year he married and opened a store for the manufacture and sale of gutta-percha goods.

He heard the Gospel in 1850 and joined the Church in Feb. of that year. Three months subsequently he was appointed to preside over the Chelsea Branch of the Church, and afterwards presided over the Holborn, Hammer Smith and Lambeth branches successively. In all of these positions he displayed great zeal, faith and fidelity to the cause he had espoused.

In the early part of 1883 he was called upon to devote himself exclusively to the work of the ministry, and his wife and daughter, the latter then a little girl, now Mrs. Pascoe, emigrated to Utah. Brother Barfoot remained in the ministry, preaching the gospel and doing great good in winning souls to the cause till 1885, when he came to this city, arriving in November of that year.

He opened a small store on Main Street, by which he endeavored to make a living by making and mending shoes, and made several efforts at that early date to introduce the manufacture of soap, candles and other articles.

Hon. John W. Young interested himself in his behalf and was about to give him employment in some distant part of the Territory, but President Brigham Young desiring to retain him in the City, employed him as watchman at his office.

During the whole course of his life Brother Barfoot had devoted himself to the attainment of scientific knowledge, which he, by patient research and assiduity, succeeded in accumulating to a remarkable degree. In fact there is scarcely a branch of exact science with which he was not more or less familiar.

Several years ago Hon. John W. Young founded the nucleus of a museum, and being aware of the Professor's attainments, employed him a portion of his time daily to classify the different specimens belonging to and which were constantly being brought into the institution. Finally he became the curator, which position he retained after the Museum changed hands, and held it to the time of his death.

His position in the Museum was one for which his nature and education admirably adapted him, and the vacancy created by his death will not be easily filled.

Deceased was a lineal descendant of Robert the Bruce, King of Scotland, and heir to the Earldom of Crawford. He was also directly descended, on the side of his mother, Sophia Louisa Ridley, from Bishop Ridley, of historic fame, who was martyred at Smithfield.

Volume might be written concerning this good and learned man, the story of whose life presents an almost perpetual struggle with poverty. His devotion to the pursuit of truth was heroic, his kindness of heart proverbial and his integrity to his honest conviction unwavering and unswerving.

CATTLE THIEVES FOILED.

MR. MAY QUES NEAR LOSING FIVE

HEAD OF HORNED STOCK.

Yesterday morning, when Mr. Fred May, butcher, awoke from his slumber and entered the corral where he temporarily keeps his cattle in the 20th Ward, he was surprised to find that the whole of his stock—four head of beef animals and one milk cow, had disappeared. Two of the ropes by which the brutes had been secured were cut and the balance had been untied by the thieves who had driven off the cattle. Messrs. May, W. Salmon and D. Hunter at once started in pursuit, going in the direction of the Warm Springs they were gratified to find all the animals, accompanied by someone else's white cow, heading for home.

A neighbor of Mr. May's heard the gate of his corral open at three o'clock in the morning, and it is probable the stealing was done at that hour. The animals being very fat, were unable to travel beyond a very slow pace, and it appears that the thieves, finding they could not get a secure distance away from town under cover of night, concluded to abandon their spoil.

Another Burglary.—Last night, between the hours of seven and eleven o'clock, the house of Mr. Anderson was entered by burglars, who carried off a quantity of jewelry and other portable property, amounting to several hundred dollars. Mr. Anderson's house is in a tenement row in the 7th Ward. No clue has been found to the robbers.

Returned.—President W. Wood-

ruff and Apostle John H. Smith

returned this morning from Nephi,

where they attended the Quarterly

Conference of Juab Stake.

Funeral Services.—The funeral services of the late W. L. Foster were held at the family residence yesterday, Bishop Pollard presiding. The opening prayer was offered by Elder James Woods. The speakers were Elders C. V. Spencer, Samuel Neelsen, R. F. Neelsen, and Bishop Wm. Thorn, all old-time friends of the deceased. The benediction was pronounced by Elder Joseph Morgan. The pallbearers, personal friends of the veteran, were: S. P. Teasdel, John Daynes, Jas. Woods, William Paul, R. F. Neelsen and W. F. Neelsen. The funeral was largely attended.

Sunday Afternoon Services.—At the Assembly Hall yesterday the usual services of the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints were held. The choir sang: "Sweet is the work, my God, my King."

The opening prayer was offered by Elder Farley P. Pratt. After singing again by the choir, the sacrament was administered, the Priesthood of the 20th Ward officiating.

Addresses were delivered by Elders John Nicholson and C. W. Pascoe. The choir sang an anthem and the benediction was pronounced by Elder G. G. Bywater.

The Canal Extension.—The flume extension of the Salt Lake & Jordan Canal is being laid on South Temple Street, beginning at the head of Third East Street and coming westward. About two blocks in length of the excavation, which varies in depth in that distance from nine to five feet, has been dug, and the flume constructors are keeping pretty close behind the diggers.

The flume will be laid through the Eagle Gate and cut across the lots northward, to the point of emptying into the culvert, immediately east of the City Creek distributing point. From that source the 4th, 5th, 6th, 7th, 14th, 15th, 16th, 17th and 19th Wards will receive supplies of irrigating water.

A DECIDED HIT.

How often we see and hear of persons who have splendid chances for investments and let the opportunity

pass; while on the other hand, others

seem to foresee and know exactly

where to put their surplus funds

where they tell. The latter seems to be the case with our friend CHIT-
