DEMOCRATS ARE FRAMING TICKET

Mayer Morris Unanimous Choice Of Convention to Again Lead His Party.

IS NOT A DISSIDENTING VOTE.

Party Will Go Before the People on His Record as Chief Executive.

NOT ASHAMED OF THE CITY.

Temporary Chairman Sloan Pours Hot Shot into Ranks of Deserters and His "Mental Inebriates."

PROBABLE NOMINEES.

The probable nominees for the convention may be: Mayor—Richard P. Morris. Attorney—William H. Bramel. Recorder—John S. Critchlow. Auditor—M. F. Cunningham or A. J. Seave.

The delegates representing the Democracy of Salt Lake City met in convention at the Grand theater at 2:30 o'clock this morning for the purpose of nominating a city ticket for this campaign. The body of the house was well filled with delegates and a larger gathering was present this afternoon when the actual work of the convention was being transacted.

OLD GLORY AND CHEERS.

The unfolding of "Old Glory" and the playing of the "Star Spangled Banner" were the first order of business at the convention very enthusiastically. It was 10 o'clock and immediately after the flag had been placed on the chairman's stand when former City Chairman Mathoniah Thomas called the convention to order.

QUALITY VS. QUANTITY.

Chairman Sloan made a speech which was received with much applause and his opening references to the quality of Democrats who have deserted and gone to the American party brought forth a great deal of laughter. He passed the matter of the deserters off by saying that after all it is quality and not quantity that counts.

WHAT MORRIS MEANS.

The banners which were strung throughout the house indicate that the slogan of Democracy for this campaign will be "Morris and Greater Salt Lake." An immense banner was strung across the auditorium just above the stage, which bore the following figures on the public improvements which have been made under the Morris administration: "SIDEWALKS, 10 1/2 MILES; STREETS PAVED, 3 1/2 MILES; WATER MAINS, 8 MILES; SEWER EXTENSIONS, 10 1/2 MILES; STREETS PAVED, 3 1/2 MILES; MORRIS MEANS MORE."

BURST OF APPLAUSE.

Before the convention was called to order the band furnished music and the delegates were assembling and taking their seats with their property. At the first rap of the gavel the delegates were in the hall and the delegates were in the hall and the delegates were in the hall.

COMMITTEES NAMED.

After the call had been read the committees named for the names of the delegates from each precinct were given by the chairman of the convention delegations as follows: Credentials—A. H. Sawyer, Ben D. Williams, J. B. Reid, Wilford Moore, T. A. Williams.

THE CALL TO ORDER.

In calling the convention to order former City and County Chairman Mathoniah Thomas spoke briefly, and was greeted with the most hearty applause. He said that he was glad to welcome the members of the conven-

HON. RICHARD P. MORRIS, Twice the Unanimous Choice of the Democracy for Mayor, Whose Campaign Slogan Will be "Morris and Greater Salt Lake."

FRANCO-GERMAN ACCORD ON MOROCCO IS SIGNED

Paris, Sept. 28.—Premier Rouvier and Prince von Radolin, the German ambassador, at noon today signed the Franco-German accord concerning the Moroccan conference, thus definitely terminating the difficult negotiations. Proceeding the signature, Dr. Rosen, representing Germany, and M. Revault, in behalf of France, met at the foreign office and went over the final details of the protocol.

HOT SHOT FROM SLOAN.

The speech of Temporary Chairman Sloan had little of fireworks to it. He had more hot shot for the deserters from the party, and spoke of "Aguinaldo" Weber and Joe Cohen in particular, saying the former always was an insurrectionist anyhow. Then assuming a more serious tone he said: "Presuming the desire of this assembly is to do its work quickly and well, it will be proper to devote but little time to a discussion of issues which custom has imposed upon the temporary chairman of a convention."

MENTAL INEBRIATES.

"Our heads are ever twisted to one side or the other with the clamorous calls of rival reformers and leaders to marken to the party to the flag," to their "love of our glorious country," to their "patriotism" and "Americanism." How it may affect others I know not, but it nauseates me to the point almost of vomiting, and if sensible voters can be deluded by these wind-jabbers and mental inebriates, then all your verbiage needs to do to proclaim him a demagogue, and if you are not content with his brazenest strumpet to whimper of her virtue hours enough to have both accepted at their crying value. You gentlemen patriot is such because he is too being the patriotic thing to howl himself hoarse about it; and it may safely be set down as a rule that the patriot and the loyal and the honest man, who have the sense to busy themselves these several things to waste time telling people about them; and the patriotism and loyalty and Americanism of those who are in this city and state generally the earache with their loud proterations, will, if dissected, be found to have these virtues in their lungs only and no more.

A PERTINENT QUESTION.

"You are not to nominate a ticket to present to the voters of this city for their suffrages. The inquiry of one of old as to whether man was made for the Sabbath or the Sabbath for man may be paraphrased not without wisdom, and it may be asked, was man made for parties or parties made for man? The moment a party does not respond to the ideal it is no longer a party, no matter how sacred its part or how ancient its traditions.

ABOUT THE TICKET.

"That this view is held commonly enough in our community, an analysis of election returns in this city and state in past years will prove, with crystalline clearness. What does such a condition argue? Either that the people are not in earnest regard for parties, or the parties no longer give expression to their ideals. Your duty is not so much to try to elect a ticket as to deserve the election of your ticket. "We may not win success," said the declaration, "but we can do better—we can deserve it." If you can utter a platform that honestly calls for a cessation in the continual increase in taxation which has prevailed in recent times, and given an opportunity, carry out the pledge—you have a right to expect public sympathy on that score. If, as an addition of election returns in this city and state, you nominate men of such mental and moral and financial calibre as will command public faith, you will do your work well. If then, Mr. Sloan, you betray yourselves, you can not help it if he succeeds. And you will have

St. Petersburg, Sept. 28.—M. Witte arrived here at 8:25 a. m., today and was accorded a very hearty reception by a large crowd of officials and others. In a brief speech replying to a welcoming address, Mr. Witte showed clearly that he was deeply touched by the welcome with which he was received. When he left St. Petersburg in July a special delegation of officials accompanied him to the railroad station to bid him farewell. There was no public demonstration whatever. Today there were seven or eight times as many officials, despite the very early hour of the train's arrival and an enthusiastic crowd of five or six hundred people was present.

Among the officials present were Baron Nolde, general secretary of the committee on commerce, Gen. Duranov, adjutant to the minister of the interior, M. Wyszynski, former finance minister and now director of the international commercial bank, M. Kobenko, privy counselor and chairman of the press reform committee and many other prominent officials who were present. Mr. Witte's former colleagues and subordinates, the crowd had collected near where M. Witte would descend from the train and when he appeared they broke out into long and loud cheers to which Mr. Witte made acknowledgments. The spokesman then advanced and read an address of welcome, all in the meanwhile standing bareheaded.
