XXIX CONGRESS.

SENATE.

WASHINGTON, 16.—The resolution heretofore offered by Beck, was laid before the Senate yesterday, and the Senate proceeded to consider it. The resolution was passed by a vote of 74 to 23.

A resolution was offered by Butler, directing the committee on Territories to inquire and report by what authority the so-called Legislature had been organized in the Territory of Dakota and whether such organization was calculated to bring about a conflict of authority prejudicial to good order in that Territory. Butler asked immediate consideration of the resolution.

The chair laid the resolution on one day. A resolution offered by Hale was passed by a vote of 74 to 23. The resolution was passed by a vote of 74 to 23.
