The police, however, thought differently, and on being notified that he was scampering over the north part of the town clad only in nature's breezy attire, put after Rice and gathered him in. SUGAR SMALLPOX.

Health Officers Have the Upper Hand Of the Disease.

The smallpox situation at Sugar ward is well in hand at the present time and Health Commissioner Stewart believes that the disease will soon be exterminated. He states that the quarantine regulations are being rigidly enforced and every effort is being made to prevent any further spread of the disease.

Tuesday hight Fumigator Woodard spent most of the night fumigating the east Seventh South street and Penitentiary cars. Nine cars were thoroughly fumigated and no trouble is looked for from that source it was thought advisable by the state prison authorities to close that institution to all visitors for the present for fear of smallpox being carried to the inmates by people in the infected district.

Only one case of the disease in that locality was reported to the hoard of health yesterday, that of Lillian V. Jones, aged 17, residing at 1369 Ninth East street.

UTAH IRRICATION

Here to Push It Along.

SPEAKS WELL OF RICHARDS

Says the Salt Lake Attorney Made a Good Impression at Washington-Prof. Swendsen's Ability.

Prof. F. H. Newell, chief hydrographer of the interior department, is at the Kenyon. He arrived late yesterday afternoon from the east, and held a consultation with Atty. F. S. Richards and Prof. Swendsen, relative to the making of Utah lake a reservoir. The professor stated that the preliminary work would be pushed as rapidly as possible, so that by fall enough information can be gleaned to warrant a decision whether the government will engage in the undertaking or not. Prof. Newell consulted today with Gov. Wells and State Engineers Doremus and Ross of this state, and Idaho, respectively. He says the object of his visit at this time is to ascertain what is needed in order to make a beginning.

"The question now is what can be done," he said. "I am convinced from the presentation made by Mr. Richards that the legal obstacles can be overcome. That is largely a matter of good will, and that is not lacking. The legal obstacles removed, the next thing is to move against the engineering obstacles, but before this can be done there are nany minor things to be brushed aside much getting ready to be done.

-much getting ready to be done."

Prof. Newell spoke highly of Mr.
Richards. "So many people come to Washington," he said, "with no definite idea of what they want, and they confuse us instead of helping us. It was different with Mr. Richards. He has a clear idea of the federal law and the state law. In addition to that, he understands the people here thoroughly, their customs and desires; and then he has been in a position to make a sepcial study of the Utah lake proposition from a legal standpoint for years. He made a good impression at the department and did much valuable work for Utah. What he has to say on the legal phase of the subject is well worthy of consideration."

Prof. Newell also spoke highly of Prof. Swendsen and said that Utah is to be congratulated in having such a man to take hold of their first enterprise under the new law.

He also said: "I am inclined to be-lieve that the amount of lands to be reclaimed has been overestimated, but that is something which our survey will determine. The department realizes the importance to this part of the state realiz # of an increased water supply, and will do everything possible in this direction, but it is necessary to proceed with caubut it is necessary to proceed with cau-tion and make no mistakes."

Prof. Swendsen now has a force of men at work measuring the streams that flow into Ufah lake. His force will be inreeased later.

The whole extent of the system, including laterals, will be well toward 1,000 miles. As the work progresses other lands will be opened for settlement, of which notice will be given. Under the company's contract with the state, it is obliged to conduct the water within one-half mile of any legal subdivision of land, and no annual charge for maintenance can exceed 50 cents per acre during the ownership of the system by the company. After one-half the capacity of the canal is sold, snip of the system by the company.
