

ONE HUNDRED BABES ENTERED.

Show at the State Fair Was a
Screaming Success Yesterday Afternoon.

ESTHER SQUIRES GOT FIRST.

Five-Months-Old Girl Captured the Gold Medal—Two Boys Got
Second and Third.

The baby show at the state fair was a screaming success yesterday afternoon. The scene of the gathering of the claims was the north side of the gallery of the Manufacturers and Liberal Arts building where some time before 4 p. m. the advertised time for the judging, the proud mothers congregated with their offspring.

There was some hitch in getting judges to volunteer but eventually F. J. Jewett, president of the city council, Miss Minnie Wingate and Miss Bertha Dewdney consented to act. The crowd was a trying one. After nearly 100 infants had been duly inspected the judges went into executive session and eventually announced the awards as follows:

1.—Esther Squires, 5 months old, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Squires, 629 Squires' court, gold medal and $10.
2.—Gordon H. Husbands, 11 months old son of Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Husbands, 1027 West Eighth South street, silver medal and $5.
3.—Kathleen Matheson, 10 months old son of Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Matheson, 24 South Ninth East street, silver medal.

It goes without saying that the rest of the mothers expressed themselves to the effect that a gross injustice had been perpetrated, that the judges hardly looked at their infants, and what does an unmarried young lady know about the points of a baby anyhow? One mother was so wrought up over the decision that she left the grounds for home with the tears streaming down her cheeks. The decision, however, were applauded by those not directly interested.

The attendance at the fair yesterday was the largest since the opening day, it being estimated that 12,000 people passed through the turnstiles and the east gates.

By last night most of the awards were made. This morning the judges were checking up their books prior to turning them into the secretary's office where the premiums are now being paid to the lucky winners. The complete list of prizes in the canine exhibit is as follows.
