Superintendent Janney of the great der, Extracts and Spices will use no The amount of business transacted on Con Mercur mill, came in from the great other kind as they know the brand days that the exchange was open this for the month of December. At times the imported goods would cost. Ask days that the exchange was open this week 92,218 shares of stock were sold for the sum of $95,317.24. Lower Mam-moth received by far the greatest at-tention during the week when it fluc-tuated as how as $1.19, after opening at $1.42 on Monday. It has since risen to $1.66, around which figure it stands today. Only 300 shares were sold today. Grand Central was quite active today to $1.50, around which lights if stands today. Only 300 shares were sold today. Grand Central was quite active today at advanced prices. The decision in the law suit caused the stock to ad-vance about $1.00 per share on the curb last evening, but the stock was not quite as strong today. The opening sale of 25 shares was made at $6.20, from which price it want up to $6.55 per share and afterwards fell back to $6.40 on the closing sale. Con Mercur opened the week at $3.35, but has since weakened to $3.01 the lowest price at which the stock sold today. It opened today with the sale of 200 shares at $3.41, and after falling to the lowest mark it reacted to $3.08 on the closing sale. Anax continues to grow weaker, being traded in the totak to that a certain per cent of the gold in cyanide tallings can be saved in that way it is very doubtful if the extrac-tion could be done in a profitable man-ter. To the local price of May wheat two cents was added today, and a report from Minneapolis says millers had ad. vanced the price of flour ten cents per barrel. The advance in wheat was on a buoyant speculative market and was lue to the stubborn firmness recently displayed by the Liverpool market and to a pronounced falling off in Northwestern wheat receipts. During the first hour on the board of trade, there was a greater speculative trade than during the whole session of any other day this week. May wheat opened un-changed from yesterday at 734, and on A number of noted men from abroad buying by commission houses, some of their orders being for foreign interests and by traders who had sold short, the price advanced to 75½.
