

SOCIETY

Mrs. C. H. Lashbrook was hostess at a luncheon at the Branstford on Wednesday, her decorations being in red, with Battenberg lace spread over red satin, a basket of red roses, and rose petals strewn all about the table while the place cards were also hand painted in red roses. Mrs. George Savage assisted and covers were laid for Mrs. Chas. Miller, Mrs. George Savage, Mrs. M. S. Keogh, Mrs. Duke of Chicago, Mrs. J. A. Reeves, Mrs. Fred Wey, Mrs. Castleman, Mrs. David Peachner, Miss Sheehan, Miss Tinsman, Mrs. W. P. Cooper, and Miss Lashbrook. Mrs. Lashbrook afterward took her guests to the Orpheum matinee.

Miss Evelyn Daly was guest of honor at a luncheon given by Mrs. Will Ellerbe and Miss Estelle Clinton on Wednesday the decorations being in the bridal colors pink and white with a pink and white basket filled with pink roses tied with tulle, sprays of roses and tulle bows scattered over the table and heart-shaped place-cards with the bride's monogram done in pink. Present were Mrs. John C. Daly, Mrs. T. Ray Brown, Mrs. Robert W. Glendon, Mrs. Fred W. Leonard, Miss Eudora Daly, Miss Mercy Edwards, Miss Bess McMillan, Miss Mildred McMillan, Miss Egon Townsend, Miss Lella Stinger, Miss Bessie McMillan, Miss M. W. Berkeley, Miss Judith Evans, Miss Aurora Ellerbe.

On Thursday Miss Evelyn Daly was entertained at a luncheon at the Alta club by Miss Marge Ellerbe and Miss Aurora Ellerbe the table being laid in the gold room and decorated in sweet peas, the centerpiece consisting of a bed of them surrounded with incense-burners, lighted, all concealed by ferns, and the place cards being attached to small pink candy cones. Present were Mrs. Wallace Branstford, Mrs. A. W. McCune, Jr., Mrs. Brig. Cannon, Mrs. Chas. Williams, Mrs. T. Ray Brown, Miss Eudora Daly, Miss Mercy Edwards, Miss Lella Stinger, Miss Louisa Sullivan, Miss Florence Kimball, Mrs. Gertrude Hanson, Miss Elenore Clinton, Miss Elenore Sadler, Miss Nellie Calvin, Miss Margaret Dunn, Miss Nellie Leary, Miss Pearl Van Cott, Miss Nora Van Cott, Miss Alpha Egan, Mrs. J. T. Kettly, Miss Almie Maclean.

Mrs. Fred Sand was hostess at an Orpheum party on Wednesday followed by a luncheon in honor of Miss Gertrude Kelley, the decorations being sweet peas and ferns, while a "honeymoon box" was in the center, filled with gifts to the bride-elect to be opened in the honeymoon.

Mrs. J. T. Treasure gave a delightful card party on Wednesday in honor of Mrs. Joseph Young, the rooms being bright with roses and the hostess being assisted by Misses Helen and Rose Adams and Elsie McMillan. Prizes in the contest were won by Mrs. Young, Mrs. W. W. Rivers and Mrs. H. G. Williams.

Miss Bessie Williamson whose marriage takes place in the near future will be guest of honor at a luncheon today given by Mrs. H. S. Knickerbocker and preceded by a party at the Orpheum.

Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Snow gave a dinner at the Commercial club on Tuesday for a number of visiting friends.

Mrs. Frank Swindler entertained at bridge on Tuesday, the prizes being awarded each table, and the following being the prize winners: Mrs. David Keith, Mrs. Bidwell, Mrs. Cleaver, Mrs. Keating, Mrs. Gallacher, Mrs. Richie and Mrs. Lockwood.

Miss Colbourne of Rowland hall entertained on Monday at dinner in honor of four post-graduates of the school, Misses Amy and Isabel Osbourne, Miss Calvin and Miss Le Compe of Park City.

Mrs. J. H. McChrystal gave a luncheon at the Commercial club on Monday for the graduating class of All Hallows college.

Mrs. F. W. Sinclair was one of Tuesday's hostesses her function being an afternoon tea in honor of Mrs. Lillian Hammett. The rooms were beautifully decorated in Segal lilies and roses, and in the dining room pink shaded candles were used. Assisting the hostess were Mrs. W. H. Hild, Mrs. Robert Gordon, Miss Laura Schorner, Mrs. Al Cowan and Mrs. Alfred Pierson.

Mr. and Mrs. Brigham T. Cannon entertained at a dinner at the Country club on Tuesday for Miss Daly and members of her bridal party, the decorations in roses, and covers laid for about 30 guests.

Miss Gertrude Campbell entertained at luncheon for Miss Lucy Gaby on Tuesday the decorations being in yellow pinks and the candles being shaded in yellow. Covers were laid for eight.

Miss Zeta Morris gave an Orpheum party for Miss Gaby this afternoon followed by a luncheon at Franklin's, the decorations being in the bridal colors.

Miss Daly and Mr. Roberts were guests of honor at an Orpheum party on Thursday night followed by a supper at Franklin's the decorations being in red roses, and the guests being the members of the bridal party.

Among the delightful events of yesterday were the tea given by Mrs. J. J. Broughall in honor of Miss Daly, Mrs. Le Grand Young entertained Thursday for her daughter, Mrs. Kerr.

at luncheon for Miss Lucy Gaby on Tuesday the decorations being in yellow pinks and the candles being shaded in yellow. Covers were laid for eight.

Miss Zeta Morris gave an Orpheum party for Miss Gaby this afternoon followed by a luncheon at Franklin's, the decorations being in the bridal colors.

Miss Daly and Mr. Roberts were guests of honor at an Orpheum party on Thursday night followed by a supper at Franklin's the decorations being in red roses, and the guests being the members of the bridal party.

Among the delightful events of yesterday were the tea given by Mrs. J. J. Broughall in honor of Miss Daly, Mrs. Le Grand Young entertained Thursday for her daughter, Mrs. Kerr.

A list of brilliant weddings has taken place this week, commencing on Monday, while the largest number fell on the ever popular Wednesday. Next week an equally large number will take place and the last of the June days will have each their quota of interesting events.

A brilliant church wedding of the week was that of Miss Beatrice O'Connor and William McCrea, which took place on Wednesday at St. Paul's, with Rev. C. E. Perkins officiating. Mr. Rollin Dole acted as best man, Messrs. Karl Scheld and M. J. Brines as ushers, while the bride's attendants were Mrs. R. J. Glendon and Miss Rose Howard. Mr. and Mrs. McCrea left on a late train for a trip to the coast, after which they will return here to reside.

Of the home weddings of the week none were prettier than that of Miss Beatrice Hyde and Rollin W. Dole, which took place on Tuesday night at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Alonzo E. Hyde. The ceremony was performed by John Henry Smith, the bride's attendants were Miss Jeanette McKay and Miss Laura Dole, while Will McCrea was best man. Mr. and Mrs. Dole will make their home in California.

Another of Wednesday's elaborate weddings was that of Miss Beatrice Davis and Dr. F. H. Raly, which took place at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Davis. Rev. Young officiated, Mrs. A. S. Peters was matron of honor and Miss Helen Oltzner bridesmaid, while Mr. Howard Raly of Denver was best man. Dr. and Mrs. Raly will reside here.

Miss Bessie Chandler and John W. Rooklidge were quietly married at St. Paul's on Monday in the presence of the families and friends and left immediately for a month's stay at Colorado Springs.

Another quiet wedding was that of Miss Alicia Giles and R. J. Caffall, which was a home affair and limited to the relatives and intimate friends.

Rev. E. I. Goshen performed the ceremony uniting Miss Nellie Loback and W. S. Evans at a private reception following for the friends.

Miss Jessie P. Lovey and J. L. West were among the week's bridal couples.

Daisy M. Nelson and J. Leo Hafen were married in the temple on Wednesday and a pretty wedding dinner served later at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Anthony Nelson.

A quartet of intimate friends celebrated their nuptials on the same day this week when Miss Lillie May Coulson and T. A. Hooper of the Deseret News and Miss Olive Cushing and Claude Eskine were married on Wednesday. Delightful receptions followed each marriage in the evening at the respective brides' homes.

Miss Valeria Brinton and Levi E. Young were married in the temple on Wednesday and in the evening a large reception was held at the home of the bride's parents, Bishop and Mrs. Brinton.

Miss Maud Thompson and Alan Witbeck were quietly married this week and today will leave for a trip to California.

Another Farmington romance was consummated on Tuesday when Miss Sarah Hephworth and John Carthy were secretly married at that place, the affair being announced on the day following when the pair left for a trip to California.

Two other quiet marriages of the week were those of Miss Minnie Christensen of Brigham City and A. L. Dewey of this place, Miss Emma Shea of this city and Mr. Gordon Hall of Clear Creek, Utah.

The engagement of Miss Jennie C. Duchen and Harold Roy Fred of Salt Lake has been announced. The wedding will take place June 26.

Mr. and Mrs. B. Cameron announce the engagement of the daughter, Cora to Raymond E. Bos.

Mr. and Mrs. George A. Crabtree announce the engagement of their daughter Ethel to Mr. Ray Carson of Field, the marriage to take place the last of July.

Mrs. E. L. Godbe entertained at dinner on Wednesday night in honor of her daughter Mildred, who leaves shortly for Los Angeles. The table was decorated in green and white and covers laid for 32 guests.

Mrs. Charles Crane and Mrs. Geo. B. Walker will entertain on Wednesday the old card club in honor of Mrs. Carl Peitz of Milwaukee.

Miss Dunn and Miss Calvin will give a luncheon at the Alta club on Monday, in honor of Miss Evelyn Daly.

Miss Walter G. Tuttle will entertain at a luncheon next Tuesday, followed by 500. It will be the first of a series.

Miss Clara Ellerbe and Miss Mary Mayne will entertain at a luncheon next Wednesday in honor of Miss Valentine Murphy.

Mrs. W. W. Armstrong has been hostess at two delightful affairs this week on yesterday and this afternoon, and will entertain at a third party on Monday.

Miss Nellie Calvin and Miss Elma Dunn will give a luncheon on Monday at the Alta club for Miss Evelyn Daly.

Mrs. J. P. Moreath will be hostess at a bridge tea on Tuesday.

Mrs. C. S. Vagner entertains very informally at bridge on Wednesday next.

Mrs. Le Grand Young entertained Thursday for her daughter, Mrs. Kerr.

A list of brilliant weddings has taken place this week, commencing on Monday, while the largest number fell on the ever popular Wednesday. Next week an equally large number will take place and the last of the June days will have each their quota of interesting events.

A brilliant church wedding of the week was that of Miss Beatrice O'Connor and William McCrea, which took place on Wednesday at St. Paul's, with Rev. C. E. Perkins officiating. Mr. Rollin Dole acted as best man, Messrs. Karl Scheld and M. J. Brines as ushers, while the bride's attendants were Mrs. R. J. Glendon and Miss Rose Howard. Mr. and Mrs. McCrea left on a late train for a trip to the coast, after which they will return here to reside.

Of the home weddings of the week none were prettier than that of Miss Beatrice Hyde and Rollin W. Dole, which took place on Tuesday night at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Alonzo E. Hyde. The ceremony was performed by John Henry Smith, the bride's attendants were Miss Jeanette McKay and Miss Laura Dole, while Will McCrea was best man. Mr. and Mrs. Dole will make their home in California.

Another of Wednesday's elaborate weddings was that of Miss Beatrice Davis and Dr. F. H. Raly, which took place at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Davis. Rev. Young officiated, Mrs. A. S. Peters was matron of honor and Miss Helen Oltzner bridesmaid, while Mr. Howard Raly of Denver was best man. Dr. and Mrs. Raly will reside here.

Miss Bessie Chandler and John W. Rooklidge were quietly married at St. Paul's on Monday in the presence of the families and friends and left immediately for a month's stay at Colorado Springs.

Another quiet wedding was that of Miss Alicia Giles and R. J. Caffall, which was a home affair and limited to the relatives and intimate friends.

Rev. E. I. Goshen performed the ceremony uniting Miss Nellie Loback and W. S. Evans at a private reception following for the friends.

Miss Jessie P. Lovey and J. L. West were among the week's bridal couples.

Daisy M. Nelson and J. Leo Hafen were married in the temple on Wednesday and a pretty wedding dinner served later at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Anthony Nelson.

A quartet of intimate friends celebrated their nuptials on the same day this week when Miss Lillie May Coulson and T. A. Hooper of the Deseret News and Miss Olive Cushing and Claude Eskine were married on Wednesday. Delightful receptions followed each marriage in the evening at the respective brides' homes.

Miss Valeria Brinton and Levi E. Young were married in the temple on Wednesday and in the evening a large reception was held at the home of the bride's parents, Bishop and Mrs. Brinton.

Miss Maud Thompson and Alan Witbeck were quietly married this week and today will leave for a trip to California.

Another Farmington romance was consummated on Tuesday when Miss Sarah Hephworth and John Carthy were secretly married at that place, the affair being announced on the day following when the pair left for a trip to California.

Two other quiet marriages of the week were those of Miss Minnie Christensen of Brigham City and A. L. Dewey of this place, Miss Emma Shea of this city and Mr. Gordon Hall of Clear Creek, Utah.

The engagement of Miss Jennie C. Duchen and Harold Roy Fred of Salt Lake has been announced. The wedding will take place June 26.

Mr. and Mrs. B. Cameron announce the engagement of the daughter, Cora to Raymond E. Bos.

Mr. and Mrs. George A. Crabtree announce the engagement of their daughter Ethel to Mr. Ray Carson of Field, the marriage to take place the last of July.

Mrs. E. L. Godbe entertained at dinner on Wednesday night in honor of her daughter Mildred, who leaves shortly for Los Angeles. The table was decorated in green and white and covers laid for 32 guests.

Mrs. Charles Crane and Mrs. Geo. B. Walker will entertain on Wednesday the old card club in honor of Mrs. Carl Peitz of Milwaukee.

Miss Dunn and Miss Calvin will give a luncheon at the Alta club on Monday, in honor of Miss Evelyn Daly.

Miss Walter G. Tuttle will entertain at a luncheon next Tuesday, followed by 500. It will be the first of a series.

Miss Clara Ellerbe and Miss Mary Mayne will entertain at a luncheon next Wednesday in honor of Miss Valentine Murphy.

Mrs. W. W. Armstrong has been hostess at two delightful affairs this week on yesterday and this afternoon, and will entertain at a third party on Monday.

Miss Elizabeth Spalding returned this week to her home in Denver, accompanied by her sister, Miss Sarah Spalding.

Mrs. W. E. Sharpe, Mrs. E. A. Byers and Mrs. A. Thompson left this week for Los Angeles.

Mrs. Don Carlos Roberts and little daughter, Mabel, have returned from a six weeks' visit in Seattle.

Samuel Newhouse, accompanied by his niece, Miss Ruth Kingsbury left Tuesday night for a short visit at Newhouse.

Mrs. J. L. Yumet and family have gone to California, where they will spend the summer.

Miss Maydella Hobbs has gone to Oregon to spend a couple of weeks with her parents.

Miss Flora Raddatz left this week for St. Louis to spend the summer with relatives.

Mrs. J. M. Callow and her children will leave this week for Long Beach, Cal., to spend the summer.

Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Carlson have gone to New York, where they will spend the latter part of the month for a European trip.

Mrs. L. H. Farnsworth and her little daughter left this week for the east. They will be joined in Boston by Miss Edna Farnsworth and will sail June 20 for a year abroad.

Mrs. Moffet and Miss Mary Moffet left this week for Pennsylvania to visit relatives.

Mrs. and Miss Eberhardt left this week to spend the summer in the east.

Miss A. E. Buchanan will be home after today at 57 Sixth East.

Mrs. A. B. Witcher, who has been visiting her mother, Mrs. Isabel Pitt, left Tuesday to join Mr. Witcher at Ely.

Mrs. L. D. Beld left Tuesday for San Francisco after a visit of some months with Mr. and Mrs. F. E. McGurkin.

Mr. and Mrs. Adolph T. Rieber have gone for a visit with relatives in Minnesota.

Mrs. J. M. Anderson and daughter Alice left this week for Los Angeles, where they have taken a cottage for the summer.

Mrs. Ida Davis has returned to the city after an absence of a year in Europe, studying the violin.

Mrs. F. S. Oswald and daughter Hazel leave this week for the east to spend the summer visiting around the lakes, going later to the Jamestown exposition.

Miss Gene Kimball of Minneapolis, formerly of Salt Lake, is here to spend a part of the summer, and is with Mrs. Louis Seckels at 1075 First avenue.

Mrs. R. L. Scannell has gone to Howell, Mich., to spend the summer.

Mrs. J. E. Bradley left on Wednesday for Portland to spend a month with friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Russell will be here shortly to spend the summer.

Mrs. F. D. Blackford left this week for Chicago to take a summer course at the university.

Mrs. Guy Thatcher, who has been visiting her sister, Mrs. H. G. Whitney, left on Wednesday for her home in Louisiana.

Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Gray of Cambridge, Ind., parents of Dr. R. Gray, are guests for a few days of Mr. and Mrs. Gray at their home on Fourth East street. Mr. and Mrs. Gray are returning after a stay of some months on the coast.

Mrs. B. S. Varian and her two children and Miss Helen Trent, her sister, are guests of Mr. and Mrs. C. S. Varian at their home, 555 South Main street. They will leave today for Auburn, Cal., to spend the summer with the Trent family. Miss Lillie McCleod will accompany them.

Mr. and Mrs. William Andelin left on Thursday for Provo after a stay of a few days in Salt Lake.

Mrs. J. Y. Smith and her daughter, Miss Mary Smith, are guests of Mr. C. E. Rely for the wedding of Miss Gertrude Rely next Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Eldredge are here from Munich, Germany, and will spend a part of the summer with Mrs. C. A. Eldredge on east First South street.

Mrs. J. M. Callow and children will leave today for Long Beach, Cal., where they will remain during the vacation.

Mrs. J. A. Austin will leave today for Terminal Island to join her daughter, Mrs. J. L. Priest, for a few weeks.

Miss A. E. Risher will be at home after today for the summer at 57 Sixth East street.

Mrs. Alice Tomlinson has gone to Los Angeles for the summer, to be the guest of Mrs. Walter Sears, at the Veranda, Flower street.

Mrs. Dora Franklin and daughter, Estelle, left Wednesday for a three months' visit among relatives and friends in Chicago and the east.

Mrs. Duke of Chicago is visiting her sister, Mrs. George Savage, for several weeks.

Miss Caroline Paine left this week for Michigan, where she will visit friends during the summer.

Mrs. W. R. Tyndale and small son and her mother, Mrs. B. Tyndale, will leave on Monday for Minneapolis to spend several weeks.

Mrs. Henry Debus and son Milton leave tomorrow for California to spend the summer with relatives.

Miss Hollister Hancock left Wednesday for the east to spend several weeks with relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. Hurst left Wednesday night to spend several weeks in Los Angeles.

At the home of Mr. and Mrs. William Pearce, 2647 Washington avenue, Wednesday evening, a brilliant wedding reception was given in honor of their daughter, Miss Elizabeth Pearce, and Mr. Arthur Hatterson, who were married that day in the Salt Lake temple. There was a large number of relatives present and a few intimate friends. An elaborate wedding supper was served. The entire home was decorated with a profusion of beautiful flowers. The diningroom was prettily decorated with pink and white carnations entwined with smilax, while the reception hall and parlors were done in red roses and ferns. The bride wore an elegant gown of white chiffon. She was a charming young lady and very popular in social circles. The groom is a member of the firm of Halverson Brothers, plumbers. They will make their home in Los Angeles.

At the home of Mr. and Mrs. William Pearce, 2647 Washington avenue, Wednesday evening, a brilliant wedding reception was given in honor of their daughter, Miss Elizabeth Pearce, and Mr. Arthur Hatterson, who were married that day in the Salt Lake temple. There was a large number of relatives present and a few intimate friends. An elaborate wedding supper was served. The entire home was decorated with a profusion of beautiful flowers. The diningroom was prettily decorated with pink and white carnations entwined with smilax, while the reception hall and parlors were done in red roses and ferns. The bride wore an elegant gown of white chiffon. She was a charming young lady and very popular in social circles. The groom is a member of the firm of Halverson Brothers, plumbers. They will make their home in Los Angeles.

At the home of Mr. and Mrs. William Pearce, 2647 Washington avenue, Wednesday evening, a brilliant wedding reception was given in honor of their daughter, Miss Elizabeth Pearce, and Mr. Arthur Hatterson, who were married that day in the Salt Lake temple. There was a large number of relatives present and a few intimate friends. An elaborate wedding supper was served. The entire home was decorated with a profusion of beautiful flowers. The diningroom was prettily decorated with pink and white carnations entwined with smilax, while the reception hall and parlors were done in red roses and ferns. The bride wore an elegant gown of white chiffon. She was a charming young lady and very popular in social circles. The groom is a member of the farm of Halverson Brothers, plumbers. They will make their home in Los Angeles.

At the home of Mr. and Mrs. William Pearce, 2647 Washington avenue, Wednesday evening, a brilliant wedding reception was given in honor of their daughter, Miss Elizabeth Pearce, and Mr. Arthur Hatterson, who were married that day in the Salt Lake temple. There was a large number of relatives present and a few intimate friends. An elaborate wedding supper was served. The entire home was decorated with a profusion of beautiful flowers. The diningroom was prettily decorated with pink and white carnations entwined with smilax, while the reception hall and parlors were done in red roses and ferns. The bride wore an elegant gown of white chiffon. She was a charming young lady and very popular in social circles. The groom is a member of the farm of Halverson Brothers, plumbers. They will make their home in Los Angeles.

At the home of Mr. and Mrs. William Pearce, 2647 Washington avenue, Wednesday evening, a brilliant wedding reception was given in honor of their daughter, Miss Elizabeth Pearce, and Mr. Arthur Hatterson, who were married that day in the Salt Lake temple. There was a large number of relatives present and a few intimate friends. An elaborate wedding supper was served. The entire home was decorated with a profusion of beautiful flowers. The diningroom was prettily decorated with pink and white carnations entwined with smilax, while the reception hall and parlors were done in red roses and ferns. The bride wore an elegant gown of white chiffon. She was a charming young lady and very popular in social circles. The groom is a member of the farm of Halverson Brothers, plumbers. They will make their home in Los Angeles.

At the home of Mr. and Mrs. William Pearce, 2647 Washington avenue, Wednesday evening, a brilliant wedding reception was given in honor of their daughter, Miss Elizabeth Pearce, and Mr. Arthur Hatterson, who were married that day in the Salt Lake temple. There was a large number of relatives present and a few intimate friends. An elaborate wedding supper was served. The entire home was decorated with a profusion of beautiful flowers. The diningroom was prettily decorated with pink and white carnations entwined with smilax, while the reception hall and parlors were done in red roses and ferns. The bride wore an elegant gown of white chiffon. She was a charming young lady and very popular in social circles. The groom is a member of the farm of Halverson Brothers, plumbers. They will make their home in Los Angeles.

At the home of Mr. and Mrs. William Pearce, 2647 Washington avenue, Wednesday evening, a brilliant wedding reception was given in honor of their daughter, Miss Elizabeth Pearce, and Mr. Arthur Hatterson, who were married that day in the Salt Lake temple. There was a large number of relatives present and a few intimate friends. An elaborate wedding supper was served. The entire home was decorated with a profusion of beautiful flowers. The diningroom was prettily decorated with pink and white carnations entwined with smilax, while the reception hall and parlors were done in red roses and ferns. The bride wore an elegant gown of white chiffon. She was a charming young lady and very popular in social circles. The groom is a member of the farm of Halverson Brothers, plumbers. They will make their home in Los Angeles.

At the home of Mr. and Mrs. William Pearce, 2647 Washington avenue, Wednesday evening, a brilliant wedding reception was given in honor of their daughter, Miss Elizabeth Pearce, and Mr. Arthur Hatterson, who were married that day in the Salt Lake temple. There was a large number of relatives present and a few intimate friends. An elaborate wedding supper was served. The entire home was decorated with a profusion of beautiful flowers. The diningroom was prettily decorated with pink and white carnations entwined with smilax, while the reception hall and parlors were done in red roses and ferns. The bride wore an elegant gown of white chiffon. She was a charming young lady and very popular in social circles. The groom is a member of the farm of Halverson Brothers, plumbers. They will make their home in Los Angeles.

At the home of Mr. and Mrs. William Pearce, 2647 Washington avenue, Wednesday evening, a brilliant wedding reception was given in honor of their daughter, Miss Elizabeth Pearce, and Mr. Arthur Hatterson, who were married that day in the Salt Lake temple. There was a large number of relatives present and a few intimate friends. An elaborate wedding supper was served. The entire home was decorated with a profusion of beautiful flowers. The diningroom was prettily decorated with pink and white carnations entwined with smilax, while the reception hall and parlors were done in red roses and ferns. The bride wore an elegant gown of white chiffon. She was a charming young lady and very popular in social circles. The groom is a member of the farm of Halverson Brothers, plumbers. They will make their home in Los Angeles.

At the home of Mr. and Mrs. William Pearce, 2647 Washington avenue, Wednesday evening, a brilliant wedding reception was given in honor of their daughter, Miss Elizabeth Pearce, and Mr. Arthur Hatterson, who were married that day in the Salt Lake temple. There was a large number of relatives present and a few intimate friends. An elaborate wedding supper was served. The entire home was decorated with a profusion of beautiful flowers. The diningroom was prettily decorated with pink and white carnations entwined with smilax, while the reception hall and parlors were done in red roses and ferns. The bride wore an elegant gown of white chiffon. She was a charming young lady and very popular in social circles. The groom is a member of the farm of Halverson Brothers, plumbers. They will make their home in Los Angeles.

At the home of Mr. and Mrs. William Pearce, 2647 Washington avenue, Wednesday evening, a brilliant wedding reception was given in honor of their daughter, Miss Elizabeth Pearce, and Mr. Arthur Hatterson, who were married that day in the Salt Lake temple. There was a large number of relatives present and a few intimate friends. An elaborate wedding supper was served. The entire home was decorated with a profusion of beautiful flowers. The diningroom was prettily decorated with pink and white carnations entwined with smilax, while the reception hall and parlors were done in red roses and ferns. The bride wore an elegant gown of white chiffon. She was a charming young lady and very popular in social circles. The groom is a member of the farm of Halverson Brothers, plumbers. They will make their home in Los Angeles.

At the home of Mr. and Mrs. William Pearce, 2647 Washington avenue, Wednesday evening, a brilliant wedding reception was given in honor of their daughter, Miss Elizabeth Pearce, and Mr. Arthur Hatterson, who were married that day in the Salt Lake temple. There was a large number of relatives present and a few intimate friends. An elaborate wedding supper was served. The entire home was decorated with a profusion of beautiful flowers. The diningroom was prettily decorated with pink and white carnations entwined with smilax, while the reception hall and parlors were done in red roses and ferns. The bride wore an elegant gown of white chiffon. She was a charming young lady and very popular in social circles. The groom is a member of the farm of Halverson Brothers, plumbers. They will make their home in Los Angeles.

At the home of Mr. and Mrs. William Pearce, 2647 Washington avenue, Wednesday evening, a brilliant wedding reception was given in honor of their daughter, Miss Elizabeth Pearce, and Mr. Arthur Hatterson, who were married that day in the Salt Lake temple. There was a large number of relatives present and a few intimate friends. An elaborate wedding supper was served. The entire home was decorated with a profusion of beautiful flowers. The diningroom was prettily decorated with pink and white carnations entwined with smilax, while the reception hall and parlors were done in red roses and ferns. The bride wore an elegant gown of white chiffon. She was a charming young lady and very popular in social circles. The groom is a member of the farm of Halverson Brothers, plumbers. They will make their home in Los Angeles.

At the home of Mr. and Mrs. William Pearce, 2647 Washington avenue, Wednesday evening, a brilliant wedding reception was given in honor of their daughter, Miss Elizabeth Pearce, and Mr. Arthur Hatterson, who were married that day in the Salt Lake temple. There was a large number of relatives present and a few intimate friends. An elaborate wedding supper was served. The entire home was decorated with a profusion of beautiful flowers. The diningroom was prettily decorated with pink and white carnations entwined with smilax, while the reception hall and parlors were done in red roses and ferns. The bride wore an elegant gown of white chiffon. She was a charming young lady and very popular in social circles. The groom is a member of the farm of Halverson Brothers, plumbers. They will make their home in Los Angeles.

At the home of Mr. and Mrs. William Pearce, 2647 Washington avenue, Wednesday evening, a brilliant wedding reception was given in honor of their daughter, Miss Elizabeth Pearce, and Mr. Arthur Hatterson, who were married that day in the Salt Lake temple. There was a large number of relatives present and a few intimate friends. An elaborate wedding supper was served. The entire home was decorated with a profusion of beautiful flowers. The diningroom was prettily decorated with pink and white carnations entwined with smilax, while the reception hall and parlors were done in red roses and ferns. The bride wore an elegant gown of white chiffon. She was a charming young lady and very popular in social circles. The groom is a member of the farm of Halverson Brothers, plumbers. They will make their home in Los Angeles.

At the home of Mr. and Mrs. William Pearce, 2647 Washington avenue, Wednesday evening, a brilliant wedding reception was given in honor of their daughter, Miss Elizabeth Pearce, and Mr. Arthur Hatterson, who were married that day in the Salt Lake temple. There was a large number of relatives present and a few intimate friends. An elaborate wedding supper was served. The entire home was decorated with a profusion of beautiful flowers. The diningroom was prettily decorated with pink and white carnations entwined with smilax, while the reception hall and parlors were done in red roses and ferns. The bride wore an elegant gown of white chiffon. She was a charming young lady and very popular in social circles. The groom is a member of the farm of Halverson Brothers, plumbers. They will make their home in Los Angeles.

At the home of Mr. and Mrs. William Pearce, 2647 Washington avenue, Wednesday evening, a brilliant wedding reception was given in honor of their daughter, Miss Elizabeth Pearce, and Mr. Arthur Hatterson, who were married that day in the Salt Lake temple. There was a large number of relatives present and a few intimate friends. An elaborate wedding supper was served. The entire home was decorated with a profusion of beautiful flowers. The diningroom was prettily decorated with pink and white carnations entwined with smilax, while the reception hall and parlors were done in red roses and ferns. The bride wore an elegant gown of white chiffon. She was a charming young lady and very popular in social circles. The groom is a