

LOCKJAW CLAIMS ANOTHER VICTIM.

Rusty Nail Responsible for the Death of James D. Morris
Last Night.

HE STEPPED ON AN OLD PLANK.

Injury to His Foot Two Weeks Ago,
Followed by Tetanus on Friday Last.

James D. Morris passed away at his home, rear of 225 west Fourth North, last evening under distressing circumstances. Up to Friday last Mr. Morris was working at his trade, that of a carpenter. Suddenly he was seized with a peculiar feeling which Dr. W. G. Cannon at first diagnosed as heart trouble. Later it developed that the unfortunate man had lockjaw. Dr. Cannon worked with his patient and called in other professional assistance, but the young man passed away as stated.

It appears that Mr. Morris, who had been one of the trusted employees of Asper, Noss & Co., for the past six years, was working on a house that was being altered for a Mr. Officer on Band Fourth streets, when he inadvertently stepped on a nail. It was an old-fashioned square iron nail, rusty with age.

Distress After Eating

Nausea between meals, belching, vomiting, flatulence, fits of nervous headache, pain in the stomach, are all symptoms of dyspepsia, and the longer it is neglected the harder it is to cure it.

Hood's Sarsaparilla and Pills

Radically and permanently cure it—strengthen and tone the stomach and other digestive organs for the natural performance of their functions.

Accept no substitute for Hood's. "I had dyspepsia twenty-five years and took different medicines but got no help until I began taking Hood's Sarsaparilla. Have taken four bottles of this medicine and can now eat almost anything, sleep well, have no cramps in my stomach, no burning and no distress." Mrs. WILLIAM G. BARRETT, 14 Olney St., Providence, R. I. Hood's Sarsaparilla promises to cure and keep the promise.

The nail penetrated his shoe and carried shoe leather, lining and a piece of his sock into his foot. This accident occurred about two weeks ago. His fellow workmen advised him to get his foot attended to, but Morris who was building a home for himself and was frugal, determined to get along without the aid of a doctor. Despite the fact that his foot pained him he did not miss a day's work. On Friday while at work he complained of a peculiar sensation all over his body which became so pronounced that he was obliged to cease work and go to a doctor. From that time on Dr. Cannon worked with him, but was unable to do anything for him, and he died at 8:30 last evening. The deceased leaves a wife and young child, also a father, five brothers and two sisters, all residing in this city, one and all of whom are dazed by the visitation of death and the loss of the bright, cheerful young fellow.

James D. Morris was a veritable Hercules, well built, strong, hearty and of a cheerful disposition.

ORGAN RECITALS OFF.

The ceiling of the Tabernacle is being kalsomined, and in consequence organ recitals are discontinued for the next two weeks. Notice of this was given the "News" too late to recall a recent notice on another page of this paper.

In the mean time the organ is being tuned up by Mr. James H. Kimball, who is here from Chicago for that purpose.

MISS PEARL WEILER.

(Special to the "News.") Washington, D. C., April 25.—Senator Kearns today introduced to the president Miss Pearl Weiler and Mrs. Schilling of Salt Lake. The president was very gracious on a daffier having Miss Weiler shown through the White House, presented her with a large bunch of American Beauties. The senator also introduced W. M. O'Brien of Salt Lake, just back from Panama. O'Brien gave the president many points relative to conditions there, and said that he represented several concerns who expected to bid on contracts. He added that his principal was ready to begin work as soon as they can move a plant to the isthmus. The president said he was anxious to begin to make the dirt fly and that it is just such people as O'Brien represents that the commission wants.

CRIMINAL CASES SET FOR TRIAL.

Judge Morse Will Hear a Big Bunch of Them in the Near Future.

HUNTER-RICE CASES DEFERRED.

Hearings Begin May 4 and Will Continue Till the Latter Part Of June.

Judge Morse today made a setting of criminal cases for trial in his court during the present term of court. The cases against Abe Hunter and John Rice, charged with the murder of Fred Butler in this city over seven years ago, were not set for trial today as the attorneys for defendants asked permission to withdraw the pleas of not guilty heretofore entered so as to allow them to file certain motions touching the jurisdiction of the court. The cases were passed until Friday morning at which time the motions will be heard by the court.

The case of the state vs. J. H. Wade, charged with the murder of a "chinaman" at Alta last December was set for trial on May 4. The case of the state against Arthur J. Van Kuren, charged with embezzlement, was passed upon motion of his attorneys. This is the second trial of the case. The case of the state vs. James A. Luke, who was indicted by the last grand jury for perjury, was also passed upon motion of the defense. The court dismissed the case against William Moreton, charged with assault and battery upon motion of District Attorney Smith.

Mrs. Annie C. Morris was arraigned before the court upon the charge of adultery, alleged to have been committed with Lawrence L. Jensen, and entered a plea of not guilty. As the woman had no attorney to represent her, her case was not set for hearing. Judge Morse entered an order allowing Lucile Burton, known as "Big Lucile," to be released upon her own recognizance. She is charged with grand larceny. Her case was not set for trial.

Following are the cases which were set for trial:

May 2—State vs. Carl Warr, attempting to commit burglary; State vs. C. A. Larson, grand larceny.
May 4—State vs. J. H. Wade, murder in the first degree.
May 10—State vs. Samuel Grice, attempt to commit burglary.
May 17—State vs. A. P. Hibbs, practicing medicine without a license.
May 18—State vs. A. E. Gerber, felony.
June 20—State vs. Orson Hudson, obtaining choses in action under false pretenses.
June 21—State vs. J. W. Gordon, embezzlement.
June 22—State vs. S. J. Kelly, forgery.
June 27—State vs. J. W. Solomon, administering poison to an animal.
June 28—State vs. John Sears, feeding unwholesome food to dairy cows.

WILSON CASE ARGUED.

Proceedings in Habeas Corpus Taken
Under Advisement by Judge Morse.

The second petition for a writ of habeas corpus in behalf of Harry Wilson, alias C. H. Moore, the prisoner who is wanted in Missouri, was filed in the charges of forgery and being implicated in the robbery of a number of railroad construction men at that place several months ago, was argued before Judge Morse in the criminal division of the district court this morning and at the conclusion of the same the matter was taken under advisement until tomorrow afternoon at 1:30 o'clock at which time a decision will be rendered.

Wilson was released by Judge Morse over a week ago under a writ of habeas corpus but was immediately re-arrested by the authorities here under instructions from Nevada. Sheriff Johnson of Lincoln county, Nevada, arrived in the city Saturday with requisition papers and intended leaving that night with the prisoner but the filing of a second petition for habeas corpus prevented him from doing so.

It was contended by Atty. Wanless, who appeared for Wilson, that the requisition papers were irregular and that they were issued for the purpose of getting the defendant out of the state to prevent him from filing an action for damages against the San Pedro road for injuries received by him in the attempt to arrest him while on one of its trains, which injuries he claims were wanton and malicious.

Amusements

The Grand theater has held few larger audiences and certainly none more pleased this season than last night, when Held's band presented the Mozart Symphony club of New York as a special attraction. The prices of admission were doubled, but the attendance showed no falling off; in fact, the attendance was larger than usual instead of smaller. The evening was one of decided novelty, as the four soloists of the Symphony club, presented a number of instruments entirely new to our city, among them the viola d'amore, the viola da gamba, the Alpine echo horn, and a herald's trumpet. The undoubted artist of the four is Mr. Blodgett, whose performance on the gambo and the cello, was stormily encored. Miss Stori, who is both a violinist and a soprano, and who sang "My Old Kentucky Home" at the same time she rendered a violin obligato to it, also scored heavily with the audience. Mr. Hoch, cornetist and trumpeter, did some clever work; and was also recalled again and again. Mr. Stoelzer, who performed on the viola d'amore and the zither, was equally clever. The four also did some charming ensemble work.

The band has seldom been heard to better advantage. The familiar airs from "The Streets" were heartily applauded, and the general vote was that Mr. Held's men never played the "William Tell" overture better. Special praise must be given the flute soloist, the lead clarinet, and the trombones. The audience was sent home to the strains of "The American Patrol."

Mr. Held announced for next week another special feature in the appearance of the Orpheus company of New York, headed by the famous Italian violinist, Bernard Weithier, and including Katherine De Vere, pianist, Dorothy Walsworth, character delineator, and Jenn St. Remy, vocalist.

The Elfreth Stock company open their fourth week at the Grand tonight with a big scenic production of the play of London life entitled "Man's Enemy."

Ripley, president of the Atchafalaya, Topeka & Santa Fe Railroad company, have entered into an agreement the purpose of which is to insure a division of the traffic heretofore originating from the coast territory in northern California. Under the agreement the Santa Fe, it is stated, secures an equal interest with the Southern Pacific in the California Northwestern railway and the North Shore railroad, which it is said, have lately passed under Southern Pacific control. Hereafter, it is said, the Santa Fe will have a voice in all matters pertaining to the extension or construction of new railroads in northern California.

THREE NEW PREACHERS.

They Were Ordained at the Utah Presbytery at Nephi Last Night.

The annual meeting of the Utah Presbytery closed last evening, at Nephi. There was a general attendance of clergymen and lay delegates from over the state, and the feature of yesterday's sessions was the ordination of three new clergymen, viz. R. E. Knox of Hyrum, C. M. Kilpatrick of St. George and Rev. Wildman Murphy of Provo. Mr. Murphy resigned but a short time ago from the Methodist ministry and the Methodist church, a step due to the Lellish administration. The ordination sermon was preached by Rev. Dr. Rankin of Brigham City, and the charge was given by Rev. N. E. Clemenson of Logan. The change of Mr. Murphy from the Methodist to the Presbyterian church is occasioning considerable remark over the state. The Presbyterians are confident they have acquired a most excellent Christian worker in Mr. Murphy. The Methodists are silent on the question.

Rev. Dr. S. F. Wishard of this city was chosen moderator and Dr. Rankin state clerk. The latter was also chosen representative to the general assembly of the church, with Rev. J. E. Carver of Ogden as alternate. The lay representative was George M. Clemenson of Mt. Pleasant, with James Morning of this city as the alternate.
