WYOMING'S ADMISSION.

A Report in Opposition to the Bill in the Senate.

WASHINGTON, March 21.—Representative McCall, with the balance of the minority of the House committee on Territories, have today in a report in opposition to the bill for the admission of Wyoming as a state. The main objection of the minority is that there was no warrant or law for a constitutional convention, and consequently a very inadequate representation of the people in the convention, among whom were included a number of women. The minority proposes another constitutional convention, and the admission of the new state by Presidential proclamation.
