

OGDEN.

Ogden, Utah, May 22, 1894.

Electric Power Company.

Mr. Edwin J. Cramton has sold his interest in the Salt Lake City Electric Power Company. Mr. Cramton, notwithstanding his continued work up the Colorado River, may have sold his interest in the company, but he has not sold his interest in the Ogden company. He has sold his interest in the Ogden company, but there is no reason why it should not be a good concern, and if it is, it would be a valuable asset to the Standard.

Mr. C. C. Cramton, who has been engaged in the construction of the new hydroelectric plant at the mouth of the Weber, was looking over the plants we very pleased and well received, and expect to be in touch with him again in the interests of the company.

Fourth District Court.

In the case of S. A. Madsen vs. his older son, the court held that the son had no right to sue, which was granted.

J. C. Armstrong, Ogden City's most popular attorney, appeared and fifteen days allowed him to file his brief. He has now filed his brief, and is ready to argue his case to the court.

In the case of J. J. Sullivan vs. T. Whitaker, the jury returned a verdict of $1,000.

Police Pickings.

Mike Cooley, robed for some unknown purpose, promised Gladys Bailey that he would soon turn and never return and was let loose.

James Dugay, the being drunk was given ten days in jail.

Notes and Personal.

The filing for record of nine plow loan notes, "Deseret," in the name of the plaintiff, will be held that a great number of Ogden citizens have the missing notes. All are listed in section 17, township 4 north, range 1 west.

The number of men at work on the road in Ogden canyon has been increased to forty and the teams to twenty-eight.

Attorney L. H. Rogers and wife leave for New York today on a visit. They will remain for two months.

Geo. O. Morris, "The World" newspaper man, is in the interest of his company, which will appear at the Grand opera house Friday and Saturday, May 25 and 26. One of the proprietors of "The World," Harry Esham, is a poor lawyer.

Real estate transfers listed up to last $10,000 yesterday.

The Junction is now rid of most of her "prostitution," and is glad of it, being fully tired of the outfit.

NEPHI.

NEPHI, UTAH, May 22, 1894.

Judge Smith's Court.

James Little, of Nephi, the young man convicted of seducing a poor single girl, was sentenced to forty days' imprisonment in the penitentiary.

THE LITTLE SUIT.

The Irvine-Singer libel suit was reopened with J. H. Dryden as the defendant through libelous publications in the "Examiner," as follows: "Four charging Irvine, who was judge of peace in this city, with having caused the city to fail, with proceeding two of the suits; and one charging the firm of Irvine & Burns with disreputable business methods. Five thousand dollars damages were awarded.

Mrs. Watson, the widow plaintiff and John E. Booth and their attorneys, Arthur Brown will be present to assist the defense before the issue of the case.

The trial is a non-political one; the politics of the case are not involved. Henry Hall, Dr. W. H. Hall, Dr. H. A. Hartin, Dr. J. W. Harriet, Dr. James Christensen, Dr. A. A. Anderson, Dr. J. B. Penick, Dr. J. W. Williams, Dr. W. H. Parham, Dr. J. James Goss, Dr. Thomas Clegg, Dr. F. J. Christensen, Dr.

The testimony in the case was commenced by John C. Bryant, managing editor of the "Advertiser," being called as a witness and himself. He testifies that the "Advertiser" is a well-organized and that the "Daily Examiner" is a well-organized and that the "Daily Examiner" has a circulation of about 50,000 daily in Provo city.

A New Gesture.

There was a time when most of the western cities came out on their feet. They were delighted at the cost, and taste, and form, and weight, of nicely bottled liquors. Later the critics were delighted at the cost and ease of getting nicely packed liquors from the United States and Europe. Then came the time when it was known that the West could not afford the price, and nothing could be done to reduce it. The next time when most of the western cities came out on their feet, they were delighted at the cost, and taste, and form, and weight, of nicely packed liquors. This time the critics were delighted at the cost, and ease of getting nicely packed liquors from the East. The next time when most of the western cities came out on their feet, they were delighted at the cost, and taste, and form, and weight, of nicely packed liquors. This time the critics were delighted at the cost, and ease of getting nicely packed liquors from the East.

WHY WOMEN WEEP

They complained when men are foolish enough not to supply the household property.
A poor lawn Mower brings tears.
A small girls' bonnet brings tears.
A small boy's bed brings tears.
In fact anything brings tears.
To die before you are married.
Many of these calamities can be avoided by purchasing everything the household needs in the way of hardware or home furnishings at the Salt Lake Hardware Co.

432-44 W. Main Street.

TIRED, WEAK, NERVOUS,
COULD NOT SLEEP.

Dr. L. D. Johnson of Provo, Bluffdale, says: "I am all the time asked to see patients suffering from insomnia, and I have found that the best remedy is to give them a strong sedative, such as opium, or morphine, or camphor, or some other drug.

Dr. Miles' Nervine and now something is changed. I think now that I will begin to make some changes. I have found that the best remedy is to give them a strong sedative, such as opium, or morphine, or camphor, or some other drug.

It Cures.

Dr. Miles' Nervine is just as good as ever. I have found that the best remedy is to give them a strong sedative, such as opium, or morphine, or camphor, or some other drug.

It Cures.

Dyspepsia

Mrs. Judge Peck Tells How
She Was Cured

Patients from different parts of the country come to see Dr. L. D. Johnson, Mrs. Peck, and a doctor from the "Standard" newspaper.

"I am now recovering from the grippe," said Mrs. Peck, "but I am still taking Dr. Miles' Nervine. It is the best remedy I have found for the grippe."

It Cures.

It