LOCAL BRIEFS.

A new rural free delivery has been or-dered for Charleston. Wasatch county, to begin Sept. 1.

The regular monthly meeting of the Caledonian ladies' auxiliary has been postponed until September.

The remains of J. C. Saunders, formerly a resident of Park City, have been snipped to Leadville for final interment.

The Sait Lake Electrical Supply com-pany is about to expend $1,500 in making additions to its south East Temple street establishment.

À large gang of men are cutting down the sidewalk on the east side of East Temple street, between South Tmple and North Temple streets.

Edward Haslam, Joseph Everett, A. Fleming, Francis Davis and E. Fleming are camping on the Weber river, where they are catching plenty of fish.

The deceased married Miss Annie Ashby, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Ashby of this city, who, with three small chil-dren, are left to mourn his demise. Hitherto there has been a prejudio dren, are left to mourn his demise. Charles Nestell of this city lost three fingers of his left hand yesterday, through an uccidential discharge of his fowling piece. He was cut with a party six miles beyond Park City, and had one of the hammers of his gun raised in expectation of seeing something to shoot at. Just how it was he doesn't know, but suddenly the weapon was discharged and the load went through Nestell's left hand. He was fur-ried to the office of Dr. Wilson of Park City, who amputated half of the injured

Gallagher landed a hard blow on Wilkinson's face, sending him to the floor for the full count. The jaher heard the trouble and locksd Gallagher in a lonely cell.

Liut. F. T. Hines of the arithery corps.

Liut. F. T. Hines of the artillery carps, on of the suberintendent of waterworks of this city, is speeding a month's fur-ough at home. He has been stationed at the Presidio for the Last two years, and may here detailed as instructor for the First battalion of artillery of the Call-fornia national guard. The licutenant is now en route to Fortrees Monroe in at-tendance on the school of instruction here. On leaving San Francisco he was presented by the California artiflerymen with a handsame silver decanter.

with a handsome silver decanter. Mr. William Pelicam, commonly known as Pellean Bill, the pet pelican at Calüer's park, shed his sweet spirit hast night, and is no more. He was "raised on the bettle" by the late Max Peters, and on the latter's death the bird was trans-ferred to Calder's work. He flourished there all right until yesterday, when he took to wandering beyond the confines of the nark and strolled off among the neighboring gardens. The owners of the same teek him for a wild pelican, an i-made he attempt at first to fly, and on being recovered afterwards by one of the park keeners, the sufferer was taken back to the pork, where he died last night.

Diminished Vitality.

Some people talk very flippantly about diminished vitality. They don't stop to think that vitality is the principle of life-that it is that little understood something on which every function of their bodies depends. Diminished vitality is early indicated by loss of appetite, strength and enlurance, and Hood's Sarsaparilla is the greatest vitalizer.
