It is not likely that the minority report will be adopted in face of the strong argument of the majority, and the improbability of a Democratic House asserting to the extraordinary and anti-American, scheme incorpotat-ed in the bill which bears the name of Cassidy. The report is unusually bitter, and being entirely one-sided and unfair will not raise its signers in the estimation of any but the most radical of "Mormon"-eaters and office-hunters, who have hoped for pickings out of a re-organization of the Legislative. power of Utah Territory.
