Local and Other Matters.

FROM WEDNESDAY'S DAILY, SEPT. 6.

Run Over.—Yesterday afternoon a small boy, son of Mr. Geo. Dyer, was run over by a passing wagon, near Flagstaff Centre. One of the wheels went over his body, and it was supposed he was badly hurt, till a gentleman picked him up to carry him to a drug store. The little fellow shouted vociferously that he didn't want to be taken to the graveyard, and, on being put on his feet scampered off.

Painting.—In the art of painting Utah is probably ahead of all her sister Territories, and in advance of even not a few of the States. There are several artists of Utah whose productions have excellent merit, but yet the art is comparatively sickly, and progress in it sluggish for want of a little encouragement and patronage. There are a few men of means who patronize home artists, but the number of such is indeed meagre. The consequence is that artists feel but small heart for their work. If men of prominence would even, if they did no more, go and look at the pictures produced by our painters it would tend to stimulate them to vigor and to make more rapid progress.

All the arts tending to the cultivation of delicacy and refinement of taste should be fostered, as a means of educational improvement of the people. A well and ably conducted drawing school, and the more general introduction of that art into the common schools as a branch of education, would decidedly lead in that direction. If drawing were made a necessary qualification for normal graduates it would doubtless prove beneficial, to the interests of the cultivation of the art among the youth.

Another Jail Delivery.—Between eight and nine o'clock last evening, five prisoners of the most desperate type made their escape from the penitentiary. The method by which they were enabled to make their exit was digging a hole under the wall of the interior building in which the convicts were confined, and scaling the outer wall, by means of blankets torn in strips.

Herewith we give a description of the men who escaped—

Jack Wiggins, undersentence for murder, aged 42 years; light complexion, blue eyes, hair nearly red, partly bald; light side and chin whiskers; has a swaggering walk; weighs about 185 lbs; 5 ft. 9 in. high. Idaho Bill, stage robber, aged 28 years; dark complexion, black hair, dark moustache, black eyes; 5 ft. 7 in.; weighs about 175 lbs.

Eli Lee, highwayman, aged 25 years; florid, light blue or gray eyes, smooth face, prominent jaw bones; 5 ft. 7 in. high; weighs 140 lbs.; right wrist stiffened and scarred.

Richard Wilson, horse thief, aged 25 years, light complexion, blue eyes, dark hair and moustache; 5 ft. 6 in.; weighs about 145 lbs.

Charles W., under commitment for killing C. I. Smith, aged about 30, dark complexion, black hair and moustache and goatee, dark eyes; 5 ft. 8 in. high; weighs about 145 or 150 lbs.

On the discovery of the delivery being made, search was immediately instituted, but without success, and the warden communicated intelligence of the occurrence to Marshal Nelson. Officers of surrounding counties were telegraphed to, requesting that they be on the lookout for the desperadoes.

FROM THURSDAYS DAILY, SEPT. 6.

Arrived Home.—Lieut. Willard Young, of the United States Engineer Corps, son of the late President B. Young, arrived home last evening.

District Court.—Thursday Aug. 6th.
Talmadge Brett vs. William Brown; judgment by default.
Fred. Phillips vs. Silver Star M. Co.; judgment by default.

Write Plainly.—Agents and subscribers for the NEWS should take particular care, when sending subscription lists to this office, to write the names as plainly and legibly as possible. By doing this, mistakes in the mailing department of this office will be avoided.

The same care should be taken by correspondents in writing all proper names.

Music.—We have received, from Calder & Careless, two new songs, "Did You Ever Call Me Darling?" words and music by C. Harry Vane; and "She's Dreaming of the Angels," words and music by H. M. Eastbrooke. The last named song is one of much more than ordinary pathos and beauty. G. W. Richardson, & Co., of Boston, are the publishers; sold by Calder & Careless, their agents in this city, at 35 cents a copy.

Arrested.—Mr. Joseph Brim, whose residence is on Raft River, in the north-western part of the Territory, was arrested recently, on an indictment found against him by the grand jury, for the killing, a number of years since, of the notorious horse and cattle thief "Ike" Potter. Mr. Brim was taken to the penitentiary, and as bonds, amounting to $10,000, were being prepared to-day, for his release, he is probably freed from custody ere this.

On the Track.—Up to this afternoon Wilson was the only one of the men who escaped from the penitentiary who was known to be taken, but it is thought the officers are on the track of the others and their early capture is confidently looked for.

If the desperadoes have been enabled to obtain arms, there are some among them who are not likely to suffer themselves to be taken without giving the officers a fight.

He Got Ready.—Young Lee, one of the convicts who escaped from the penitentiary on Tuesday night, frequently stated after his trial that he did not care anything about being put in prison, because he intended leaving it as soon as he got ready. It appears he must have been ready on Tuesday. He is a very desperate and bold character, being apparently impervious to the influence of bodily fear. He is the shorter of the two brothers, and the same who was shot in the head by young Henneffer, and with whom the latter had a desperate struggle, at the time the Lees attempted the robbery of Mr. Austin, on South Temple Street. The brother of Lee who made his escape is still at the penitentiary, having made no attempt to get away. The one that is left is apparently of a somewhat milder type than the other.

Returned Missionary.—Yesterday afternoon we were pleased to meet Elder S. H. B. Smith, who recently returned from a mission to California. He left here for the west on the 12th of last June, and labored in San Francisco, Oakland, Sacramento and vicinities. He attended a number of meetings and preached to the people at every available opportunity. At Sacramento he and other elders engaged a public hall for five consecutive Sundays, and advertised meetings, which, however, were but moderately attended. Elder Smith met a number of people who were connected with the Church in its early rise, among whom were Mrs. Jackson, a sister to Oliver Cowdery, and others. He returns in excellent health and spirits.

Elder Job Smith is laboring at

An Outsider's View.—We are enabled to make the following extract from a letter from a gentleman who resided for several years in this city, and who is now in Carson, Nevada. The writer of the communication was never a member of the church. In speaking of the demise of President B. Young, he says—

"A great man has gone, but his deeds will live after him. He has left a record that will probably not be appreciated by outsiders, until the time arrives when the scales of prejudice fall from their eyes, and the great acts that he has been instrumental in accomplishing shall shine forth in bright effulgence, that all who knew his motives now recognize."

Captured.—Richard Wilson, one of the prisoners who escaped from the Penitentiary on Tuesday night, was captured to-day. Deputy U. S. Marshal Bowman had been searching for the fugitives, and returned, this forenoon, to the Penitentiary, when a man rode up to that building and stated that a strange man was in a clump of willows about two miles distant. Warden Vandercook and Mr. Cannon went at once to the spot indicated and searched around for some time, when the latter suddenly came upon Wilson, in a corn field. On being discovered he jumped to his feet and said, "I'll give up." Deputy Cannon and Warden Vandercook at once took him in charge, and conveyed him to the Penitentiary, and he is now in his old quarters.

Great Demand.—Notwithstanding that a very large number of extra copies of the Daily, Semi-Weekly and Weekly editions of the NEWS containing the full account of the obsequies of President Brigham Young were printed, so great has been the demand that by last evening every copy had been sold.

The eagerness to obtain the particulars of the marked event is still unabated, and to satisfy it we have determined to issue, within a few days, a pamphlet, containing a complete account, from the demise of our late lamented President until the interment of his remains, with some additional particulars.

The pamphlet will be a convenient form for the Saints in which to keep the record of the most impressive event which has occurred since the death of the Prophet Joseph. The honored deceased, however, lives in a more important and enduring record than the pages of mere book history—in the hearts and affections of a great people, who will ever tenaciously cherish his memory.

The Excursionists.—Members of the excursion party that went to Provo yesterday met with a number of mild mishaps. By an oversight the firemen left a very essential element behind them, at the depot in this city—the picnic baskets and contents. At American Fork three of the party didn't get aboard the train in time, and were left behind. They procured a carriage, however, and made the connection with the party some time in the afternoon.

At Provo, the 10th Ward brass and Capt. Beesley's martial bands serenaded Mayor Smoot, Judge Dusenberry, and other leading citizens. They also filled the air with melody from the parapet of the Court House and the roof of the large woolen factory building. The greater portion of the party also passed through the factory, viewing the machinery and other appointments of the establishment.

The firemen formed in torchlight procession at the Grove of Father Graves, and marched through the streets of Provo. There was also a dance in one of the public halls, at night. The train did not leave Provo, on the return trip, till fifteen minutes to two o'clock a. m. to-day, arriving here at twenty minutes past four this morning.

The salmon curing factories on the Columbia river turn out $19,000 cans in one good salmon season. Canned salmon, with those figures, ought not to be a very expensive luxury.

ST. CHARLES,
Bear Lake County,
Idaho, Sep. 2nd, 1877.

Editors Deseret News:

At a meeting held in St. Charles to-day, commencing at 12 o'clock, Elders A. C. Brower of Richmond, Cache County, A. Galloway of Tooele and Bishop John A. Hunt and N. Williamson of this place, addressed an attentive and crowded audience, dwelling on the history of President Brigham Young, his humility, implicit obedience to the Prophet Joseph Smith, and how he, as an instrument in the hands of God, led the way to the fastnesses of the Rocky Mountains, and located the Latter-day Saints, so far removed from their former persecutors.

Language is inadequate to express the sentiments manifested in behalf of the sacred memory of him whom the Almighty inspired for the accomplishment of such a great and marvelous work.

L. B. HUNT.

At Mount Pleasant, Sanpete County, of summer complaint, WILLIAM RICHARD FARNWORTH, son of George and Susanah Farnworth, aged 6 months.

In Ogden City, Utah, of general debility, August 28th, 1877, ANN WHEELER.

She arrived in Utah November 10th, 1850, and settled in Ogden City, where she continued to reside until the time of her death.

The funeral, which was numerously attended, took place August 28th. Sister Wheeler was an honest, upright, industrious woman, a faithful wife, affectionate mother, and a true Latter-day Saint. She died in the sure and certain hope of a resurrection to eternal life; was well beloved by all who knew her, and leaves a large family and many friends to mourn her loss. —Ogden Junction, Sep. 5.

In the 17th Ward, at 11 o'clock a. m., Sept. 9th 1877, of congestion of the lungs, after a painful illness of four weeks, CHESTER NEAL, son of Andrew W. and Mary A. COOLEY, aged 1 year, 1 month and 3 weeks.

Funeral services at residence, Sept. 10th at 3 o'clock p. m. Relatives and friends are respectfully invited to attend.

At Logan, Sep. 7, of diphtheria, JOHN THOMAS, son of James A. and Catherine Leishman, aged 3 years and 11 months.

At Ogden City, Sept. 9, 1877, at 2.15 a. m., of pneumonia, HANNAH FIELDING, widow of Joseph Fielding, aged 60 years.

Sister Fielding was born at Provo, Lancashire, England, Sept. 5, 1808. She embraced the gospel soon after the first missionaries arrived in England, among whom was Elder Joseph Fielding, to whom she was subsequently united in marriage. She was baptized by Elder Heber C. Kimball; emigrated to Nauvoo in 1843, shared in the persecutions of the Saints and the expulsion from Nauvoo; came to Salt Lake City in 1849, where she resided for some time, and at Mill Creek Ward for several years, and afterwards removed to Ogden, where she lived with her son-in-law, Elder W. W. Burton, until her decease.

She was a faithful Latter-day Saint, an exemplary wife and an affectionate mother, and departed with perfect confidence in God and His Latter-day work.

Deceased was buried in the Salt Lake Cemetery, Sept. 10, by the side of her husband and three children. Three daughters are left who cherish her memory with fond regard. —Com.

BUT JUST TO SAY.

It is but just to say that the firm of Steele & Price were the first to place in the market articles for culinary purposes that are strictly pure and wholesome. Their Dr. Price's Cream Baking Powder has obtained its popularity and extended sale by the purity of the materials.
