

ADJACENT CITIES OGDEN.

OGDEN, UTAH, - NOVEMBER 3, 1906.

Palace Court Items. William Lee, a barber, and Walter Byler, night clerk at the Grand hotel, were arrested yesterday on complaint of William Brown, a hairdresser. It appears the young fellows indulged in a little fun at the expense of Brown by using oil on his hair, and Brown did not take it kindly and the result is that Lee was fined $10, while Brown on the other side was fined $10. Judgment was rendered by Byler was in the afternoon, being discharged.

Damage Suit Ended. The damage suit of Edward Moore Jr. against Joseph Moore for the loss of a valuable watch at the time of the unfortunate shooting at Ogden was yesterday dismissed. The suit was brought by Moore against Moore for the loss of a watch valued at $100. Judgment was rendered in the sum of $100 and costs.

Fourth District Court. Justice Judge Miller the suit of John P. Peterson against Edmond Dea, which was commenced in the Fourth District Court, was yesterday dismissed. A jury was called in the case of Ogden city vs. Hong Yee Ahng, but was discharged without trial. No costs allowed.

For the Trial. Becker and Anderson will again become warring at the Ogden Hotel when the court will be for the hearing of the claimant's suit.

PROVO. THURSDAY, NOV. 2, 1906.

A Fugitive Sighted. On Wednesday evening a well-dressed young man purchased a suit of clothes at Healy's store for $10, and returned in evening a few hours on the Provo. Commenced by the bank, drawn by C. Van Grady and made payable to J. Evans. Mr. Healy was familiar with Van Grady's signature, and he was a fugitive. The fugitive was requested to endorse the check, and he signed the name of Charles G. G. Healy. He was then taken to the police station for the purpose of getting evidence, but just as the door he met Mr. Van Grady. "Come in and help me with a party," he said, and they were playing the forged check. The two entered the store and accused the young man of forging the check. He denied the charge and sought to escape, but was caught and held until a policeman could be obtained. In justice, Van Grady was arrested and the forged check was placed on the table, and Monday night at 10 p. m. was set as the time for a hearing.

Court News. Judge Smith overruled the motion for a new trial in the J. Healy vs. Healy suit, which was filed with the court on the 21st of October. The suit was returned to one year's imprisonment in the penitentiary. The judgment was returned to the court, and the judge ordered the defendant to pay the costs of the suit. The judge also ordered the defendant to pay the costs of the suit. The judge also ordered the defendant to pay the costs of the suit.

Notes. James P. Dixon has returned from a business trip to southern Utah to the interior of the State Western Mills. He reports very fair success. In fact, he is building a new mill at the point of the Territory. Mr. Dixon states the wheat crop is a partial failure on account of early frosts.

Chas. Perry, of the First district court, the record is returned to the lecturer, Charles Miller, who is presently lecturing against the Mormons, for a collection of the amount of $100. The lecturer is a native of the State, and a student would be a considerable amount. Mr. Perry has notified the applicant that it will be furnished on receipt of $25.

Mrs. B. B. Bowers, of Spanish Fork, and family members, of Lake Shore, are invited to meet.
