DESERET EVENING NEWS SATURDAY FEBRUARY 15 1908

cafe on Tuesday in honor of Miss Pau-line Terry, the table being decorated in pink carnations, and covers laid for about a dozen. . . .

Mrs. D. C. Roberts entertained in-formally on Monday afternoon in hon-or of Miss Pauline Terry.

Mrs. Albert Cowan and Mrs. Edgar Hills left last week for Long Beach, Cal., to visit a month with their par-ents, Mr. and Mrs. Lynn, who are spending the winter there. tertained about six tables at bridge on Wednesday in honor of Miss Pauline Terry, the decorations being in pink, with pink valentines and other details.

of Las Vegas are here visiting Mrs. Mundy's parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. F. Philips, in the Bransford apartments, from two weeks spent in California, Mrs. Moore remained at Ocean Park for a few more days.

Dr. and Mrs. Fred Stauffer will en-tertain at a card party next Wednes-day night at their home.

Mrs. F. G. McGanney entertained informally at cards on Thursday.

and games.

Sunwarmon

Miss Bessie Price was hostess at a pleasant evening party on Monday night the time being spent with cards at Sunnyside.

Mrs. W. H. McIntyre and Mrs. Fred

Mrs. W. B. Mundy and son, William,

An interesting event of the week was the wedding of Miss Lulu Buckle and A. P. Melistrup on Wednesday night the ceremony being performed by Rev. P. A. Perkins, Misses Garnet Buckle and Carrie Melistrup acting as brides-maids, little Lois Cannon ring bearer and Jack Buckle best man. George C. Moore returned Monday

Harry W. Brown of Nampa, Ida., has been here visiting his mother, Mrs. M. E. Wilson, at 521 east Third South.

Miss Florence Longbridge of Denver will be here Thursday to spend two weeks with Miss Jeanette Luman.

Mrs. John N. Sharp is visiting friends Mr. and Mrs. Charles H. Lindley, who are making an extended trip in the Bathe daily !

All you need is-a bath tub, water, a cake of Ivory Soap and a coarse towel.

Ivory Soap is far and away the best bath soap there is. It floats. It lathers freely. And a cake of it is so large that it covers a lot of surface, quickly and thoroughly.

Ivory Soap . . It Floats.

H. Young at their home in Berkeley, where she will probably remain for some time. Miss Pauline Terry left Thursday night to join her parents in San Frau-

Mrs. James Hegney and her family will shortly be at home at 32 Fourth East street.

East street. A pretty wedding of the week was that of Miss Florence Poulton and Raymond C. Cowburn on Wednesday. At the home of Mr. and Mrs. James H. Poulton, the ceremony being performed at 6 o'clock by Rev. Brown of the First Baptist church, followed by an elabo-rate supper, and a large reception being held later in the evening, about 100 guests being present. The rooms were beautifully decorated in pink and white carnations. Juparese lanterns, and strings of wedding bells. The bride wore a costume of white satin and car-ried bride's roses, and her bridesmald, Miss Gertrude Cowburn, was also in white and carried carnations. Mr. Har-ry Cowburn was best man. The bride and groom received many handsome presents. They will be at home after Feb. 20 on south West Temple street. Feb. 20 on south West Temple street.

COLIN

ing was spent in listening to an ex-cellent concert, which was followed by a dance. The high school orchestra will furnish the music.

Last Saturday afternoon Mrs. Wm. Shealey entertained a few of her lady friends at a card party of the Weber club. A dainty repast was served.

The new musical club, organized a few weeks ago for the advancement of greater interest in music and the composers, is proving a great success. At the Congregational church Wednes-At the Congregational church Wednes-day evening, a couple of hundred peo-ple assembled to hear the interpreta-tion of Peer Gynt, by Mrs. Lillian Farnsworth, who has unusual talent. The musical part of the program was ably rendered by Prof. Squire Coop' and Mrs. Ferrero, who are both very artistic. . . .

J. J. Rice and wife have returned from a pleasant trip through Call-fornia, 4.14

The B. of R. Trainmen gave a very enjoyable dancing party last evening at the Congress dancing academy.

Mr. and Mrs. John Culley have gone to California to spend a couple of months, . . .

Miss Lillie Pickerel has gone to Oro-grande, New Mexico, to spend a few months with friends.

Mrs. A. E. Buckler entertained a rew friends at her home Wednesday even-ing at a card party. A pleasant even-ing was passed and delicious refresh-ments served. Mrs. G. L. Becker and her fathat-in-law, J. S. Becker, have gone to the coast on a pleasure trip.

The presidency and high council of Utah stake delightfully entertained the bishopric and stake officers and their bisnopric and stake officers and their partners at a reception and ball Wed-nesday evening in the Gymnasium hall. The forepart of the evening was de-voted to a short program of speeches and music, after which dancing and dainty refreshments were enjoyed by about 200 guests. ing, Light refreshments were served, The Nincteenth Century club met Friday afternoon with Mrs. David

Mr. David Morgan is visiting friends in California. The Utah Sorsis club met Saturday afternoon with Mrs. Cornelia Lund. Very interesting papers were given on "The Battle of Sedan," by Mrs. Edna Houtz. "The Present Royal Family," by Mrs. Ida Calloway, and the "Story of the Clock," by Miss Francilla Adams.

Mr. and Mrs. M. H. Graham delightfully entertained at a family dinner party at their home Sunday afternoon in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Leyland Gra-ham of Salt Lake. Covers were laid for 20 and a pleasant evening passed.

Feb. 20 on south West Temple street. Little Olive Poulton celebrated her fifth birthday on Monday in a child's with several soles and an elaborate lunch was served. Lake were in Brigham Sunday and Monday last.

SP COR

Mr. and Ms. William E. Stoker en-tertained the "Jolly Surprise Bunch" at their home Friday evening. Sixty-three was the game of the evening. A sumpluous lunch was served to about 20 guests. Miss Lizzle Knowlton of Farming-ton is the guest of her sister, Mrs. Ida Lee. Major Richard W. Young of Sait Lake, was in Brigham Saturday last.

. . . Mr. and Mrs. P. S. Dixon entertained at their home Monday evening. About 30 guests enjoyed an eveningof cards, music and games. A dainty lunch was served served """ Miss Maggie Williams entertained about 20 of her young friends at a character valentine party at her home Friday evening. Many preity and rep-rosentative characters were presented. A merry evening was passed and a dainty hunch served by the pleasing young bustoss.

young hostess. The members of the La Coterie club

Mrs. A. E. Buckler entertained a few

Westwood. Rev. George Townshend ad-dressed the club, and a number of in-vited guests .After the session dainty refreshments were served.

A double wedding reception was giv-

A double wedding reception was giv-en Wednesday evening at he home of Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Gibby in honor of the marriage of their son, William C. and Miss Sarah A. Ridges, and their daughter, Miss Eliza, to Mr. Daniel Ferris, which was solemnized in the Salt Lake temple. A large num-ber of relatives and friends were pres-ent to extend congratulations and best wishes. Many useful and beautiful

The members of the La Corterie club

The members of the La Corterie club gave a very enjoyable bundle shower Monday evening in honor of Mr. and Mrs. John J. Johnson, at the home of the newly wed couple. A very enjoyable evening was passed in song, and sames, and an elaborate lunch was served. Many beautiful and expensive presents were received by the popular young couple.

Miss Annie Rupper entertained at a bundle shower at their home Monday evening, the guest of honor being Miss Lucille Marshall, whose marriage to Mr. Hyrum Rupper was announced to take place in the Sult Lake temple Wednesday. A very enjoyable time was spent by all. Dainty lunch was served.

Mrs. B. H. Bowers entertained at dinner Sunday Misses Sadie Gray and Eva Ward.

Mr. Claug Condor of American Fork

beautin An elaborate wishes. Many useful and presents were received. Ar wedding supper was served.

couple

formed a skaling party Thursday even-ing and enjoyed an hour at the Eldred auditorium. The "Silentian" club has issued in-vitations for a dancing party to be given at the pavilion on next Wednes-day. This will be the first of a series of dances given by the club and it promises to be a very enjoyable party. Mrs. Albert Jones entertained about 40 of her friends at her home Tues-day evening, the occasion being the esteemed lady's fifty-fifth birth an-niversary. A very enjoyable evening of music, games and chit-chat was en-joyed by all. An elaborate supper was served.

son are sisters,

The Women of Woodcraft, together with their husbands and a few friends, enjoyed a card party and social Friday evening of last week. Musical numbers were rendered by Prof. Temple, Frank Garrity, Frank Morley, Frank Beesley. Miss Pattle Thomas. The members of the lodge served a splendid lunch, and everything passed off pleasantly.

Mr. Norman Lee and his little daughter. Rhoda, left for a vacation to Mesa, Ariz. to visit Mr. and Mrs. Nat McDonald. They expect to re-turn by way of California.

Miss Della Burt of Salt Lake is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Christen-son. Miss Della and Mrs. Christen-

Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Box came up from Salt Lake Saturday evening.

EUREKA.

17

everything passed off pleasantly. Godiva lodge No. 8, Knights of Pyth-ias, will celebrate the forty-fifth auni-versary of the order next Tuesday evening, by a social at the Elks' pav-ilion. A program and banquet will be features of the affair, and the commit-tee having the arrangements in charge wish to invite all visiting Knights and their ladies, as well as all members of the local lodge and their wives and sweethearts. Announcement invita-tions have been issued. William G. Child of Salt Lake spent William G. Child of Salt Lake spent last Sunday in the district.

Mrs. G. Towers of Mammoth was here three days this week, beginning Wednesday, visiting relatives and friends, friends, Miss Pearl McClellan returned to her home at Payson this week after a vis-it with her sister, Mrs. Hugh O'Con-nel.

C. L. Cushing, formerly of Eureka, came out from Salt Lairs jasts Sunday.

The Epworth league conducted a valentine social at the M. E. church Thursday evening. There was a good program followed by refreshments, and everyone present report an enjoyable of the Clock," by Miss Francilla Adams. The Forum Debating club met Mon-day evening with Mr. and Mrs. R. R. Irvine, Jr. The question, "Resloved, That country rather than city life tends to the building up of high char-acter," was debated by Rev. Townshend and Miss Elsie Pearson on the nega-tive, the affirmative being supported by all the members of the club. Joseph Whirthlin was out from Salt Lake during the week looking after his mining and business interests. Frank Wall spent Monday and Tuesday in Provo.

. . .

M. C. Mero returned to Eureka Sunday after several weeks absence, which time he has spent in Salt Lake.

Dan B. Cronin is at the Ogden Hot Springs. Mr. Jos. Claville is with him.

Agent Bird of the Rio Grande re-turned Monday foreincon from a visit with his family at Springville.

Mrs. Elmo Moore of Nephi was here on a visit among relatives thiss week.

Mrs. M. F. Sammon was the guest of Salt Lake friends this week.

Mrs. Winnie Price is at home again at Homansville after a visit with her mother, Mrs. S. A. Chase, at Nephi.

B. N. S. Stott was in Salt Lake Tuesday.

Lou Dittmer returned Wednesday from southern California, where he has been for several months.

Mrs. J. C. McChrystal and children and Mr. and Mrs. Phil Clark, left on Wednesday for Southern California, where they will remain for several weeks, Mr. McChrystal will join them in Los Angeles soon.

Mrs. John Allen has returned home from Payson where she has been since July, visiting her parents and other relatives.

Frank Azalia was here from Leam-ington and Oak Creek this week.

Robert Hatrick returned on Wednes-day from a week's visit with his fam-ily at Springville.

E. W. Sait, a dry goods and clothing salesman from Salt Lake, has accepted a position at the Tintic Miners Merc.

S. J. Schneiter and "Pres." Stillman left the early part of the week for the Hot Pot resort at Midway. Mr. Still-man will remain there for some time.

LEHI.

Monday evening a farewell social was given in honor of Lee Goates, who left Tuesday for the German mission field which was largely attended and much

. . .

Lawrence Blackett spent the greater of the week in Nephi

The dashing Duke of the Abruzzi, who has remained heart whole and fancy free after exploring, unknown countries, invading the Artic, climb-ing the highest mountains, and be-ing much wined and dined and sought after in the world's greatest capitals, has capitulated to the dazzling charms—and wealth—of Miss Kath-erine Elkins, daughter of Senator El-and Miss Sullivan.

Sprague, . . .

by Mr Smith,

pheum.

The dashing Duke of the Abruzzi, rumored he had picked out an rumored he had picked out an Am-erican girl for a wife, and that as long as he could be happy he didn't care anything about what his royal relatives might think. Then there were the Elkins millions and those of Henry Gassaway Davis to consider. Miss Elkins, when asked in Wash-ington if she was to wed the duke, said evasively: PROVO.

The seventy-first birth anniversary of Mr. S. S. Jones was fittingly cele-brated at his home Saturday evening last. A large number of relatives and friends were present to do honor to the ecasion. The Mutual associations of the Fifth ward gave a very enjoyable valentine party at their ward house Fridav even-ing, several music interwoven with dancing made a most enjoyable even-night Tonight President and Mrs. J. T. Kingsbury of the University give a reception in honor of the senior class of the school at their home on Twelfth Past street East street.

Valentine parties have been the chief social affairs next to the Lincoln birthday celebrations, and both occasioned some delightful affairs. The great banquet at the Commercial club of course led in the week's festivities, and next came the ball of the Life and next came the ball of the Life Underwriters at the Odeon, while the junior promenade of the U. of U. stu-dents, and the large hop at Fort Doug-las last night were of almost equal brillance. There have been besides these scores of smaller patriotic and valentine parties which will make the use stand out in the season's social week stand out in the season's social annais. An event always of special interest is the annual breakfast of the Ladies' Literary club, which took place yes-lerday at the Culen hotel. The dec-orations were tastefully done in the club colors and the program of toasts as usual, brilliant, the entire affair dupnicating the former successes.

Among the elaborate affairs of the week was the luncheon given by Mrs. George Holman at the Alta club on Thursday, her decorations ebing in pink and white carnations with Valen-tine place cards, and about 25 being present.

Mrs. W. F. Beer and Mrs. George Reed were hostesses at a pretty Valen-tine bridge party on Thursday, about 40 guests being present. The rooms were bright with hearts and flowers in red and white, and the hostesses as-sisted by Mrs. W. S. Huuson and Miss Reed.

. . .

Last night Dr. and Mrs. Beer and Mr. and Mrs. George Reed entertained at a large card party, the amusement be-ing 500, and the event taking place at the home of Dr. and Mrs. Beer.

at the home of Dr. and Mrs. Beer. A pretty Valentine party of the week was that at which Mrs. A. D. Cleave-land entertained on Thursday, the affair being in honor of Miss Terry. The decorations were in red and white carnations and restoons of hearts, and about 20 were present. The hostess was assisted by Mrs. R. J. Glenaen-ning, Mrs. W. H. Cunningham and Miss Marge Miller.

invitations have been issued for an

Invitations have been issued for an evening party to be given in honor of the birtucay anniversary of Mrs. im-madine B. Wells, by the Utah Women's Piess club, and the Reapers' society, both of which were founded by Mrs. Wells. The occasion has added inter-est in the fact that Mrs. Wells was born on Feb. 29 in leap year, so that it is only once in four years that she can celebrate the actual birthday date. A program is planned as follows: At rispin, roll call and sentiments from ars E. B. Wells' poems by "cembers"

(46 p.m., roll call and sentiments from ars) E. B. Wells' poems by "cembers of Press club and Reapers' club. Ad-uress by President Dr. Ellis Sbipp, 5 p. m. sharp, refreshments. Music by Mrs. O. S. Hill, Song, Miss May Alder, oem, Mrs. Ruth M. Fox. Music, aliss Eva Jensen, An address by Mirs. L. Alder, An address by Mrs. Mary Alice Lambert as representative of the transer's Society.

Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Boyd entertained at cards last night at their home, the rooms being prettily decorated, and a number of friends present.

Miss Clarice Glenny entertained at a leap year party on Tuesday evaling the decorations being in hearts and bells, and an amusing guessing contest being emong the features. About a dozen

Dr. and Mrs. T. B. Beatty entertain-

Reapers' Society.

present

Mr. and Mrs. L. M. Bailey entertain Mr. and Mrs. L. M. Isaley entertaint-ed at dinn.r on Tuesday night in hon-or of Mr. and Mrs. W. Igleheart, the affair taking place at the University club, and covers laid for 16. The dec-orations were daffodils and the place cards Holland scenes.

Mrs. J. F. Moot entertained a few filends on .Wednesday afternoon, the rooms being prettily decorated with marguerites and carnations and about a dozen being present.

Mrs. G. V. Parmelee entertained in-formally at luncheon on Thursday, the event being the third of a series, Cov-ers were laid for a half dozen.

The Junior class of the High Scho have issued invitations for their annual class dance to take place at the Eaton symnasum next Friday night.

On next Saturday night a leap year ball will be given by the girls of the University, the patrons to be the Uni-versity faculty.

Miss Marie Odell was hostess at a Valenthe dancing party last night at her home, the decorations and all de-tails being done in the valentine idea.

Yesterday Mrs. W. F. Beer and Mrs. S. Hudson entertained a avalentine and Miss Mary Stubbs

One of the leading events of next week will be the annual breakfast of the Daughters of the American Revolu-tion, to take place on Washington's birthday at the Knutsford, Mrs. L. C. Miller will be toastimistress and Mrs. Henry La. Motte and Mrs. L. C. Mil-ler are in charge of the program.

Mrs. William Iglebart and Mrs. Hal Brown were guests of honor at a din-ner last night given by the King's Daughters at the home of Mrs. George R. Smith.

The Alphi Pi fraternity gave a card party at the Frat house on Monday night about 46 being present.

Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Glendenning en-

erine Elkins, daughter of Senator El-kins of West Virginia, and grand-daughter of Henry Gassaway Davis, and, it is said today, will arrive in cognito shortly to arrange for the Why, I thought that story was setwhy, i thought that story was set-tied last autumn. I have heard nothing from it since. I had hoped the story would not be revived. I know nothing of the duke's plans or of the probability of his coming here wedding. He was recently in this country with the Italian fleet, and it was then soon."

Dern will entertain next Wednesday at a large bridge tea at the McIntýre home. east, are now at Palm Beach, where they will spend a week or two. Mr. and Mrs. Leslie L. Savage will return this week from an extended visit in New York with Mr. Savage's

The University club gave another delightful musicale this week, a num-ber of local musicians giving a delightparents. ful program,

W. H. Kistler of Denver will be here Mrs. O. W. Powers was hostess at an informal bridge party at her home on Wednesday, the rooms being bright with daffodils, and prizes in the con-test won by Mrs. Grant Hampton, Mrs. W. H. Cunningham, Mrs. Belden, Mrs. Thomas Marioneaux, Mrs. Sam Parks the last of the week to visit his sister-in-law, Mrs. Thomas Marioneaux.

Mrs. Elizabeth C. Genter, who has been visiting Mr. and Mrs. John E. Dooly for some time, leaves Monday for Kansas City to visit friends.

Mr. and Mrs. O'Kelly of Riverside are at the Knutsford for a short time. Mrs. O'Kelley was formerly Mrs. Eleanor Campbell. Mrs. Eber Hall was one of Thurs-Mrs. Eber Hall was one of Thirs-day's hostesses, her function being a Kensington, and a guessing game be-ing enjoyed at which Mrs. Hartman and Miss McLaury were prizewinners.

Miss Margaret Park has returned from a two months' stay in Denver. F. A. Druehl and M. H. Walker left Tuesday night for Riverside, Cal., to join Mrs. Druehl and Mrs. Walker, who are at the Glenwood hotel at that place Another pleasant Kensington of Wed-nesday was that at which Mrs. W. H. Bramel was hostess, carnations being used in the decorations and prizes won by Mrs. A. L. Hoppaugh and Mrs.

place. . . . Miss Mary Stubbs of Baltimore is here visiting her sister, Mrs. Samuel R. Neel, This afternoon Miss Margeret Har-ris gives a luncheon at the Commercial club in honor of Miss Edna Farnsworth

. . . Miss Hartley and Miss Florence Hartley are visiting frineds in Los Angeles. Mrs. Charles Rooklidge is one of to-day's hostesses entertaining at a tea this afternoon in honor of Mrs. W. B. . . .

Mr. and Mrs. Hubbard W. Reed are enjoying the winter at Coronado Beach

Mr. and Mrs. Leslie L. Savage are expected this week from New York.

Mrs. E. M. Allison, Jr., has for her guest Mrs. J. C. Joyce of Ogden, who comes down to attend "Madam But-terfly." . . .

Mrs. Minnie Thomas has returned form a visit of six weeks in Los Angeles. . . .

Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Holbrook and son, James, will be at home after Feb. 20 at 443 cast First South street, Judge and Mrs. H. P. Henderson will be a home after Feb. 15 at Mrs. Walden's, 32 south Fifth East.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank B. Shrader and daughter have gone to Denver, where they will make their home.

Miss Ella Dukes and Miss Tyler will be at home after the middle of pext week at the Fifth East hotel.

Mr. and Mrs. A. G. Andrews and lit-tic son have gone for a short stay in southern California.

and for coughs, colds, bron-chitis, etc. If it does no good we will return your money.

Mrs. Henry W. Lawrence has gone from Riverside, where she has been visiting, and is with Mr. and Mrs. J.

WIFE WHO WAS LOST SIX YEAR S.

LOST SIX YEAR S. home to dinner to find her gone and being unable to trace her through her family, supposed she was dead until some friends met her in a depart-ment store a few weeks ago. After watching at the store for a week, one day he saw a plump vo-man twice the size of his wife as he knew her. He followed her home to ask: "Aren't you my wife?" She became indignant. Her hus-band was a sea captain, she said, and she was very happy with him. The resemblance was remarkable but for a while Driver was in doubt. Then he hired a lawyer and a party of triends who knew the couple six years ago, called with him to the Hamburg avenue address. Denial was useless and Mrs. Driver admitted all.

icious lunch was served.

Prof. and Mrs. George Brimhall and Mrs. William Knight were among the number that left for California with the Elks.

.. . .

The Kia Ora club were entertained The Kin Ora club were entertained Wednesday evening by Prof. Eastman at his studio. The following debate was heard with considerable interest: "Resolved, that the Japanese exclusion is beneficial to the progress of the United States." The affirmative, Miss Julian Cummings, May Billings and Effic Bullock and Mr. Nephi Hicks, Negative, Misses Thetha Hardy, Lo-rena Chipman and Messrs. Bert Smoot and Wilford McAllister. The negative carried off the laurels. Lunch was served. served.

Postmaster and Mrs. James Clove and Mr. and Mrs. James Madsen at-tended the Lincoln anniversary banquet in Salt Lake City, Wednesday vening.

4. 4. 4.

Mr. J. W. McAdam was very pleas-nully surplied at his home Thursday avening by the members of his Sunday school class. The hours passed merrily a games and various anusciments. Ra-freshments were served.

4 4 4

Master Paul Ashworth was the recipient of a pleasant surprise party on Thursday evening. About 20 of his young friends invaded his home and delightful evening was passed, Lunch was served.

Mrs. E. E. Corfman was hostess at the Five Hundred card club meeting Friday evening. The decorations were unique and artistic, red being the color unique and artistic. scheme with red roses, red hearts and the lights shaded with red. Tally cards and consolation prizes were valentines. IERD. T. HOPKINS, Prop., 37 Great Janes Street, New York | Mr. W. D. Roberts delighted the guests and Miss Hilds Strong of Alpine were married in Provo Wednesday. The ceremony was performed at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Parley Smoot. Mr. J. M. Jenson, uncle of the bride, officiated. After the ceremony a family dinner was served in their honor.

The Franklin teachers and a few in-vited guests delightfully surprised Miss Marv McCullough at her home Thursday evening. Games, caros and music all tended to make a most enjoyable evening. Lunch was served.

Mrs. R. S. Joyce was hostess Tues-day afternoon at a delightful eard party at her home on Twenty-third street, which was enjoyed by a large number of her lady friends. The prizes were awarded to Mrs. Hibbs and Mrs. Herrick. After cards, an elaborate lunch was served and a de-lightful hour was served and a de-

The Butchers and Grocers' associ-ation gave a delightful dancing party Thursday evening at the Royal danc-ing academy, which was largely at-tended. Refreshments were served throughout the evening.

Miss Bell Corey has returned to Ogden, from Checo. Cal., where she has been visiting for several months.

Carl Malder of Sait Lake City spent this week in Ogden visiting with friends.

Mrs. Hibbs gave a pleasant after-noon Thursday at a bridge party She served dainty refreshments.

BRIGHAM CITY.

The home of Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Watkins was the scene of a happy birthday gathering last Friday in honor if the father's eighty-first birthday. Eight-five of the family connections were present to partake of a sumptuous birthday dinner, serv-ed in the affar toon. The evening was spent in music, songs, sociabili-ties and other entertainments. All present enjoyed the event.

Saturday morning, Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Knudsen and Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Fishburn are among the Elk excur-sionists to Los Angeles.

Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Peirce of Sait

Wednesday a married folks dance was given in the City Pavilion which was most successful. Monday afternoon, Mrs. E. W. Matison entertained a number of her lady friends at a Kensington and musicale at her home on Adams av-enjoyed.

Last evening the High school gave a special ball in the City Pavilion, also a basket ball game was played between the Lehi and Manti High school teams.

Mr J. H. Kirkham of Garland was visiting relatives here the first of the week on hie way to the English mission field.

Mrs. W. A. Ford is visiting in Po-mona, California.

Mr. and Mrs. G. A. Hacking have re-turned to their home at Magrath, Can-ada, after an extended visit here with relatives and friends.

Mr. Ike Gudmunsen of Iona, Idaho, has been visiting his brother, Abe Gudmunson.

Mr. John Russon spent the first of the week with Salt Lake friends.

Mrs. W. F. Welsh of Payson spent the first of the week with her mother, Mrs. James Harwood.

Mrs. Annie Goates is visiting Salt Lake friends.

Mr. and Mrs. T. R. Cutler, Jr., of Sugar City, Idaho, spent the first of the week with Lehi fgriends and rela-tives.

After mourning six years for his wife Amelia, whom he thought dead, Frank Driver, a Brooklyn man, is now suing for divorce, although he admitted in court that he failed to recognize her when they met three weeks ago because of the improve-ment in her appearance. She was living in a different part of the city is as the wife of Percy Waas at 242 Hamburg avenue, and wore a wedding ring bearing his initials and her is own. At first she denied her identity but too many persons knew her in the old days end she has now aban-doned this shift.

doned this shift.

doned this shift. In his complaint, Driver says that he and Amelia were married in 1402. She was then a little bit of a thing weighing about 100 pounds. Three months later after a quarrel ke came party, at which a number of her friends were entertained. Games were played and luncheon served, and each little being the feature of the evening. A dewere entertained. Games weach little and luncheon served, and each little guest received a doll,

Mrs. J. G. Dinwoodey and Mrs. I. J. Dinwoodey entertained six tables at 500 on Thursday night, the rooms be-ing decorated with profusion of red hearts, and the scores and tailles be-ing valentines. Prizes were won by Mr. R. C. Dorsey and Mrs. E. F. Hanna.

Mrs. W. H. Kriebel of the Bransford will give a large roller skating party on Monday at the Auditorium, about 50 invitations being issued. Afterward the hostess will enteriain her party at luncheon at Franklin's.

OGDEN.

A Valentine party was given Friday evening. The early part of the even-

A Skin of Beauty is a Joy Forever. DR. T. Felix Gouraud's Oriental Gream or Magical Beautifier. Remover Tra., Finples, Bernover Tra., Finples, Kani, and Dain Discases and every bictuida in beaty, and de fies descritor. It has studition to test of 80 years, and is po harmiles we taste it lobe surell is property made. Accept no counter-fair of similar name. Dr. L. A. hay of the hard to a hay of the hard to be hay of the hard to be hay of the hard to be had yo for the hard to be the sure there we use there

PURI as the skin.

ANT DE

- 20

an we aurnud's Cream' as the least has

2/

8

2011년 4 FXES besutif

Miss Gainin of Erie. Pa., is the guest of Miss Spaulding for a few weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Burke and Misa Emily Curits will be at home after this were eat 1059 Third avenue.

DRUEHL & FRANKEN, DRUGGISIS,

Mrs. W. T. Benson is hostess at a card party this afternoon, the amuse-ment being 500.

Miss Nan Dunlap entertained at a luncheon at Franklin's on Wednesday following her hox party at the Or-

Mrs. W. C. Alexander entertained at an informal luncheon at the Bransford tion or emulsion, because

Vinol is a much better bodybuilder and strength creator for old people, weak children,

Also SMITH DRUG CO., Salt Lake City, Utah.

no one wants an old-fashioned cod liver oil prepara-