LOCAL AND OTHER MATTERS.

THEATRE.—Another fair house and another lively performance at the Theatre last night.

This evening Mrs. F. M. Bates will appear as "Elizabeth, Queen of England," in the powerful drama of that name, supported by Mr. F. M. Bates as "Robert, Earl of Essex," also by Miss Adams, Carrie Carter, and Messrs. Thorne, Dudley, Marden and Lorraine, and others of the local company. Mrs. Bates has an excellent name as "Elizabeth," and the play is always worthy of seeing.

The benefit of Mrs. Bates for to-morrow evening and a Matinee for Saturday are announced.

BAD.—A day or two since a woman with two children arrived from San Francisco entirely destitute of means, having barely sufficient to pay her fare to Ogden. She states that she has come to this city in search of her husband who deserted her last summer and came on here, and who is said to be living with another woman. The unfortunate woman is at present being supported by one or two kind-hearted citizens. It is to be hoped, if her story be true, that the deserting husband may be reached by the law.

IN BUSINESS.—We notice that Mr. Geo. Barton has gone into business in the general merchandise and provision line, having opened a store immediately west of the Eagle Emporium buildings.

THE RELEASE OF THE PRISONERS.—The following correspondence between the U. S. Deputy Attorney and the Territorial Attorney, concerning the release of the prisoners decided to have been arrested and detained in custody illegally, has been courteously furnished us for publication by the two gentlemen named, and will be read with interest by the public—

OFFICE U. S. DISTRICT ATTORNEY,
SALT LAKE CITY, Utah, April 22, 1872.

Hon. Z. Snow, Attorney General of Utah.

Dear Sir:—I am in receipt of dispatches from Washington to the effect that the Supreme Court of the United States have reversed the decision of the Supreme Court of Utah in the case of Engelbrecht et al, vs. Clinton et al, and have decided that the manner of impanneling grand and petit juries in this Territory since September, 1870, is illegal, and that the United States District Attorney and United States Marshal can only act here as in the States, viz: in United States business, leaving violations of Territorial laws to be prosecuted by you as Territorial Attorney General, and the process of the courts in such cases to be enforced by the Territorial Marshal. The effect of this decision is to quash every indictment now pending in Utah, and it follows that all prisoners now held by the United States Marshal are held without authority of law. Upon receipt of a certified copy of the decision of the Supreme Court I shall move the immediate discharge of all prisoners now in the custody of the United States Marshal in this District.

Many of these prisoners are charged with the gravest offences known to our criminal jurisprudence, and abundant evidence in my possession points strongly to the probability of their guilt. Every consideration alike of justice and of humanity requires that the evil consequences likely to result to society from so general a jail delivery, unprecedented in the courts of this or of any common law country, should, if possible, be averted. I therefore take this means of advising you of my proposed action in the premises, that you, as the prosecuting officer of the Territory, may take such steps as shall be deemed necessary to secure the re-arrest of these prisoners and their detention for trial. I am prepared to furnish you with all necessary evidence, names of witnesses and other data which you may need, and will cheerfully lend you any other assistance in my power. I am, sir,

Very respectfully,
JAMES L. HIGH,
Assis't. U. S. Att'y. for Utah.

ATTORNEY GENERAL'S OFFICE,
SALT LAKE CITY, April 23d, 1872.

James L. High, Deputy U. S. Attorney for Utah.

Sir:—Your letter to me of the 22nd instant came to hand this morning, in answer to which I have the honor to inform you that, if you concur, I will meet you to-morrow at 10 a. m., or at 2. p. m., at my office or at your office, as you may elect, and receive such information as you may have relating to the prisoners referred to in your letter. Afterward I will take such steps as are authorized by law. Any assistance you may be able to give will be thankfully received and duly reciprocated.

Yours truly,
Z. SNOW,
Att'y General.

ABOUT TO REMOVE.—The office of the Deseret, and the Atlantic and Pacific Telegraph Companies will shortly remove to the Woodmansee building. A very fine Telegraph pole has been erected in front of the office, which is surmounted by a gilded bee-hive. Twenty-nine other poles of similar construction will soon replace those now on the streets. They will be erected in the middle of the streets, a charter having been granted by the City Council last night, enabling the company thus to locate them. It is the intention in a short time to connect the Camp Douglas military post with the City telegraphically by running a branch of the Deseret line to that point.

The Deseret Line connects with every point of the world that can now be reached by telegraph. By the indefatigable labors of the Superintendent, A.M. Musser, Esq., it has become an institution of which the people of Utah have great reason to be proud.

IGNORANT AND DELUDED.—The Oakland (Cal.) Transcript, is ignorant and deluded in regard to the situation in Utah, as will be seen by the following—

"MORMON MATTERS.—The polygamists are overwhelming peaceable Gentiles in Utah since the late decision of the Supreme Court. "The storm that for a space did quail, now trebly thundering swells the gale." * * * The excitement amongst the Gentiles is intense and bloodshed is momentarily expected. * * Mormon policemen have been savagely rough on Gentiles in Salt Lake City. * * The doughty defender of promiscuous prostitution is likely to receive a decided check."

The Transcript is wrong in every point, that's all. The "Gentiles" are not overwhelmed by the polygamists. There is no storm here, either quailing, trebly thundering, or swelling. There is no intense excitement. No bloodshed is expected. "Mormon" policemen have not been savagely rough on "Gentiles." Mr. Bates, the gentleman referred to, is not a defender of prostitution of any kind. With these slight corrections in mind the Transcript can try again.

THOMAS CHARLES MARTELL.—There is a letter at this Office for Thomas Charles Martell, from his brother James Martell. A note which accompanies the letter states that the first named person is a native of Carmarthenshire, South Wales, and that he emigrated to Utah about sixteen years ago, when he brought with him a company of Latter-day Saints. His relatives, especially his brother James, are very anxious to learn something about him. If he be alive and should this meet his eye he should at once place himself in communication with his relations, and if he be deceased any information concerning him will be thankfully received. Address, James Martell, Llangefni, Anglesea, North Wales, Great Britain.

It may be well to add that the letter states that T. C. Martell at one time lived at Spanish Fork, and that communications addressed to him there from his relatives have not been answered for nearly ten years

THE MORMON TRIUMPH.—Washington, April 17.—It is understood that United States District Attorney Bates, who was to be removed, because of his having opposed McKean's course and decision, taking the same ground of unconstitutionality that the court has just sustained, will now tender his resignation. He considers himself fully vindicated as a lawyer. It will be remembered that he had previously refused to resign when requested to by the President. Judge McKean was in the Superior Court while the Chief Justice read the decision from a full bench. He still affirms the constitutionality of his own views.—Boston Globe.
