Washington Notes.

WASHINGTON, May 26.—The President to-day appointed E. Henry Lacombe, of New York City, to be additional circuit judge of the second circuit.

The President has appointed L. W. Reid, of Virginia, assistant register of the treasury.

The President, accompanied by Mrs. Cleveland and Colonel and Mrs. Lamont, will leave Washington at 4 o'clock to-day for a ten days visit to Saranac Lake.

The weather was superb and the day was industriously devoted to competitive drilling. The authorities, profiting by experience and criticisms, are making the work

VERY INTERESTING.

Seven or eight thousand spectators were on the grand stand of the White House lot enclosure as manifested their pleasure by very liberal applause.

Nicholas M. Bell, superintendent of foreign mails, has been notified by Senor Romero, Mexican minister, that the Mexican government has subsidized the steamer Carlos Pacheco to carry mail between San Diego, California, and Ensenada de Todos Santos in Lower California. By the terms of the postal convention of 1861 this service will be gratuitous to the United States.

In pursuance of the act of Congress, approved March 3d, relative to the

to be held in Minneapolis, the Secretary of the Treasury has issued a circular to the customs officers, directing that no duty fees or charges for customs services shall be exacted on any articles imported for exhibition, except in case of withdrawal for consumption in the United States. The ports of New York, Philadelphia, Baltimore, New Orleans or San Francisco on the seaboard, and Suspension Bridge, Buffalo, Detroit, Port Huron and Chicago on the northern frontier, will constitute ports of entry at which such importations may be received. Goods may be entered at these ports for immediate transportation without appraisement to the port of St. Paul. In cases of the exportation of goods, the existing regulations requiring experts to be made in the original packages

WILL BE WAIVED.

The Treasury Department has received information of the prevalence of pleuro-pneumonia to a somewhat alarming extent in Scotland among the cattle. To-day acting Secretary Thompson issued a circular to the customs officers, prohibiting until further notice the importation of neat foot cattle from that country.

The recent correspondence with the Canadian government has resulted in an understanding that the Canadian regulations in regard to the towing of vessels in Canadian waters and at Canadian ports by American tugs shall be amended so as to extend to American tugs when in Canadian waters the same rights and privileges as are grauted to Canadian tugs in American waters.

THE BAPTISTS.

MINNEAPOLIS, May 26.—At the afternoon session of the Baptist convention, the committee of nomination reported the following officers, and they were elected by a formal ballot: President, Mr. Samuel A. Crozier, of Pennsylvania; vice-presidents, Thos. Armitage, D. D., of New York; H. H. Tucker, D. D., LL. D., of Georgia; Edward Goodman, of Illinois; Joshua L. Evering, of Maryland; secretary, Benjamin Griffith, D. D.; recording secretary, Howard Gendell; treasurer, Charles H. Banes.

The committee on enrollment reported in the afternoon that 772 delegates were present at the publication society meeting, thirty-eight states and territories being represented. Rev. Mr. Bittrup opened the meeting in the afternoon with the statement of the finances of the society. The congregation that responded to the call of the Woman's Baptist Foreign Missionary Society at 2 o'clock in the afternoon was so numerous as to and comfortably fill the gallery of the Hennepin Avenue M. E. Church. Mrs. Howe, of Boston, presided. After devotional exercises Mrs. O. W. Gates, and Mrs. A. M. Bacon, respectively corresponding secretaries of the society of the east and west, delivered brief addresses. Mrs. Gates also, on behalf of Mrs. B. S. Learn, editor of the Helping Hand, who was unable to be present, presented the salient features of that publication.

The enrollment committee reported. Rev. D. D. Prosper, of Kansas, presented a resolution declaring an unalterable opposition to all forms of liquor traffic for beverage purposes, and pledging the best efforts to secure its entire suppression

At the evening session able and eloquent addresses on the subject of the day were delivered, after which the anniversary of the publication society was celebrated.

THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY.

PHILADELPHIA, May 26.—Clergymen from Maine to Texas, and from the Atlantic to the Pacific, were in attendance this morning at the opening of the twenty-ninth general assembly of the United Presbyterian Church of North America. There were present about 3,000 delegates, comprising equal numbers of ministers and laymen. The opening prayer was followed by the election of a new moderator. The contest was of especial interest since it involved the instrumental music issue, over which the church for some time has been divided. Two nominations were made, Rev. Matthew McCormick Robinson, D. D., of San Francisco, an eainest advocate of the organ, and Rev. J. G. Carson, of Xenia, O., an anti-instrumental candidate.

THE ANNUAL FINANCIAL

reports of the board of foreign missions, church extension, education, freedman's mission and publication were presented.

The result of the ballot was a decisive victory for the advocates of a church organ, and it indicates how this issue will be disposed of later in the session.

Rev. Robinson received 129 votes, Rev. J. G. Carson 50.

The only import business during the afternoon was the presentation of the report of the permanent committee on reform, which was read and placed on the docket. In it the committee declares the right basis of all true reforms is Christianity. A reformation built upon any other foundation would be unsound and unsettled.

THE EPISCOPALIANS.

PHILADELPHIA, May 26.—The 11th biennial session of the general council of the Reformed Episcopal Church continued to-day. The new canon on marriage and divorce was taken up for consideration. After a prolonged discussion the subject was re-committed to a committee on constitution and law.

The Paris Horror.

PARIS, May 26.—The work of searching for bodies was resumed to-night. A number more was exhumed. The official statement says fifty bodies have already been recovered.

Reveillon, speaking in the chamber of deputies this afternoon, estimated that at least 200 persons had lost their lives in the fire.

The chamber of deputies voted a credit of 20,000 francs for the relief of sufferers by the Opera Comique fire.

To-day 156 missing persons have been inquired for by relatives. They are supposed to in the flames. The bottom of the theatre has been flooded with water to the depth of five feet. Sixty bodies have been found floating in the water by firemen.

Among the audience at the opera comique last night were General Boulanger, General Saussier, General Thibauldin, M. Goblet and M. Berthelot. All escaped unhurt. An artist named Phillipo performed a prodigious feat of valor in saving life. He mounted a ladder three times and saved three dancers after they had been abandoned by the firemen in Rue Favart. A sudden gust of wind clearing away the dense smoke, a woman and two men were seen standing in an angle of the cornice. The woman tried to jump, but the men prevented her. When all were finally rescued the woman was

RAVING MAD.

A singer had a miraculous escape from his dressing room in an angle at the top of the building. He says the wind kept the flames off that part of the building but a river of moulten lead poured from the roof the course of which he diverted with a board to prevent the weight carrying down the floor.

The officials are endeavoring to underrate the loss of life. A large number of bodies have been found.

THE RAILROADS.

The Investigation and Other Things.

NEW YORK, May 26.—The board of directors of the St. Louis and San Francisco Railroad met to-day and re-elected the present officers.

BUFFALO, May 26.—In the suit of Henry B. Hollins against Wm. K. Vanderbilt et al., as trustees of the New York, Chicago and St. Louis Railway, judgment for $282,000 on the foreclosure was ordered by the supreme court.

THE INVESTIGATION.

BOSTON, May 26.—Before the Pacific investigating committee to-day, F. Gordon Dexter, who has been director of the Union Pacific twenty years testified. His evidence was a corroberation of the Ames version of the condition of the Union and Kansas Pacific roads prior to the consolidation. He was satisfied that acquiring the Kansas Pacific was a very important and good thing for the Union Pacific to do. His judgment was, it was to the advantage of both roads, but he was not sure that it was to Gould's.

Judge Dillon incidentally testified as to certain suits brought against the company including that in connection with the Ames-Fisher contract.

AFTER RECESS

the examination of Dexter was resumed. When asked as to his judgment on the result of the policy pursued since 1875 by the Union Pacific in connection with the construction of branch lines and the investments made by it in branches, Dexter replied: "Although we made here and there a mistake, there is no question about the general policy being good. I would advocate the pursuance of the same policy in the future." To his knowledge no director or officer of the road was interested in any coal operation of the company for private profit.

Witness said Gould's idea about the duties of a director were sometimes peculiar. The only thing the Union Pacific suffered under it was attending its relations with the government. He agreed with President Adams that it would be better for the road to pay a gross sum instead of making payment on net earnings.

Ezra H. Baker another director, thought the action of Gould as a Union Pacific man at the time of consolidation very proper. He knew of no intention to abandon the road to the government. Adjourned.

NEW YORK, May 26.—The Oregon Transcontinental Railway Company to-day commenced suit in the United States circuit court against the Northern Pacific Railway to

from issuing any bonds or providing any means for the payment of interest on bonds issued for the construction of the Spokane & Palisade Railroad. Plaintiffs claim that they own 130,000 shares of the defendant's road and that the new road is being constructed with a view to defraud.

Millers' Convention.

ST. LOUIS, May 26.—The Millers' National Association concluded its session in this city to-day. Louis Fuzz, chairman of the committee on trade, presented the resolutions, which were adopted.

The first resolution expressed it as the opinion of the convention that the merchant marine should be restored by the repeal of the navigation law, subsidizing ship building, treaties with foreign nations, etc,

The second resolution protested against the adoption of a heavy tax on flour by Brazil while wheat is admitted free and called the attention of the State Department to the matter, recommending also the appointment of a committee of three to consider the question.

The third resolution protested against the discrimination against the flour interests and wheat by certain railroads. This was amended to include discrimination against sack flour in favor of barrel flour. It also recommended the appointment of a committee of three to consider the question.

Abolishing gambling in wheat options was discussed at length and a committee of three appointed to consider the matter.

Buffalo was chosen as the next place of meeting of the association. The following officers were elected for the ensuing year: John Crosby, president; C. H. Seybel, vice-president; P. H. McGill, second vice-president. The executive committee, elected by the different states, is composed of old members. Adjourned sine die.

The Fire Fiend.

NEW YORK, May 27.—8:30 a. m.—Flames broke out of the south end of the Belt Line stables. The building was entirely destroyed with 1,600 horses and nearly all the cars. Two blocks are also in flames. The fire was first seen by one of the night hands, who gave the alarm. The flames spread rapidly and soon completely enveloped the building in their folds. The building was a five story structure and covered a square block, reaching back to Eighteenth Avenue. They were in flames so quickly that there was no chance to save the books of the company. In the stables were over 1,600 horses and several hundred cars. Only ten hand cars were saved. At 2 o'clock the walls of the building fell in sending millions of sparks and blazing pieces of wood high in the air. The call of 36 had been made as soon as the fire chief arrived, and engines from all parts of the city, with the water tower and hook and ladder companies were readily coming. The heat from the flames was so great that several firemen and two policemen were prostrated. At 1:45 a. m. the flames, aided by the strong wind which was prevailing, had leaped across the wide avenue and communicated to the whole block on the east side. The block was composed of six-story tenements and a coal yard. The poured out of the building like a swarm of bees, praying, fighting and cursing by turns. The scene of terror was indescribable. The buildings burned rapidly, though the fronts facing the avenue were of brown stone. By 2:30 they were completely gutted. The flames spread to the entire square block over to Ninth Avenue.

2:30 a. m.—The next block below had caught fire and was blazing. The streets in the vicinity for blocks away were filled with frightened tenants fleeing from the ravages of the flames. The loss to the Belt Line people is probably not less than $400,000. It is now estimated that the entire loss will be over

ONE MILLION DOLLARS.

It is not known how the fire originated. A number of men slept in the car stable. Ambulances have been sent to the scene to be ready if needed.

3:30 a.m.—A telephone message received from the fire says it is believed there has been a heavy loss of life. A number of firemen and policemen were overcome by the heat and were sent to the Roosevelt Hospital. Seventy-five dwellings, mostly frame, inhabited by poor people, a soap factory and a brewery are among the buildings burned. The loss will aggregate over $1,000,000.

The fire is believed to be under control.

AT CINCINNATI.

CINCINNATI, May 26.—At 1:40, city time, a general fire alarm called for help to the burning street railway stables near the site of the old Brighton House stable, nearly 450 feet long and containing about 150 street cars and over 300 horses. There is a possibility of a loss of $100,000 to $200,000 if the stable is completely destroyed.

Statue to Steedman.

TOLEDO, May 26.—Fully 20,000 persons are in the city to-day to attend the dedication of the statue of General James R. Steedman, including a great number of his old comrades in arms. The oration was delivered by Lieut. Governor Smith, of Illinois. The unveiling was by the granddaughter of General Steedman. General Foraker acted as president of the day. Gov. Luce, of Michigan, and staff were among the visitors.

LORD LANSDOWNE.

He Meets a Gushing Reception at Ottawa.

OTTAWA, Ont., May 26.—In the commons to-day the loyalists had prepared a motion to commit parliament to the endorsement of the governor-general's welcome home from the west.

Small, of Toronto, moved that the house take a recess in order to give the members an opportunity to take part in the reception to the governor-general.

Mr. Blake, leader of the opposition, took objection.

The ministerialists received this with jeers, but it was sufficient to kill the motion.

The house of commons adjourned at 5 o'clock to meet Lord Lansdowne, Sir Charles Tupper asking the opposition not to object.

In the interview, Tupper said: "My visit to Washington was purely unofficial."

Watson, member for Manitoba, brought up in the house a motion in favor of permitting legislation to charter railways to the boundary.

Tupper, in a vigorous speech, opposed the motion. He said the agitation in Manitoba against the disallowance policy, was solely in the interest of the Northern Pacific Railway Company. The time had come for the administration to choose between the prejudices of a section of the community and the interest of the whole of Canada.

The governor general and Lady Landsdowne arrived at home from Toronto at 5:30 this afternoon. They had received an enthusiastic welcome along the route and the demonstration at Ottawa was the grandest ever seen. The route was along Queen, Wellington, Bank, Sparks and Elgin streets to Cartier Square. The procession was headed by the bicycle club and an escort of 300 mounted citizens. Six brass bands were distributed through the procession. A very large number of vehicles and private citizens followed. There was an enormous concourse in the square, the estimates varying from 15,000 to 20,000 persons. An address of welcome was made, and Lord Landsdowne

SAID IN REPLY:

How are we to account for this display of confidence and good will? I am given to understand that the explanation is this—that since we saw you last an invasion of Canada has taken place, and that the invasion has not been successful. I learn that the invasion was in some respects remarkable. The invading force was not strong. It made up, however, in intrepidity for its weakness in numbers. It appears, moreover, to have taken, at the outset of its operations, a step which I believe, is unusual with skilled strategists. It seized possession of the telegraph wires through which information most startling was liberally poured into the country. I understand further, that the object of the invaders was to and, above all things, put to flight a certain high official of state, of whom, unless I misunderstand what has taken place, the people of Ottawa are not particularly anxious to get rid of just at present. Well, sir, there appears to have been one weak point in the arrangements. We all know that one of the most important departments in the military service is that which is known as the intelligence department, in which information bearing upon any operations which may be in contemplation, is collected. In this case the invaders were completely misled by their intelligence department.

The governor-general closed with the expression of his thanks. At

of the address the children sang "God Save the Queen" and other choruses, and the vast crowd cheered themselves hoarse. While the vice-regal party was leaving the children started up "John Brown's Body," and after singing a verse or two diverted it into "We'll hang O'Brien on a Sour Apple Tree." The governor-general's horses were unharnessed by a crowd of young men belonging chiefly to the foot guards and the 43d rifles, and taken on a trot to Rideau Hall.

During the month of April nearly 12,000 persons, or 400 per day, left Ireland to make their homes in the United States.

The St. James' Gazette reports a queer strike on the island of Scio. Many parishes of the Greek church were backward with their tithes, and the bishops struck on them, refusing to marry, baptize or officiate at the burial of delinquents. The account says this work has been taken up by the laity.

Dan Rice, the once celebrated clown, who made and lost several large fortunes in the circus ring, now lives in Cincinnati, old and poor, and dependent on the charity of friends for a living. Rice's first appearance in public was as a pugilist, and in 1828 the Pennsylvania legislature adjourned to witness a boxing contest between Geo. Kensett and Dan Rice.

A new kind of [nail, for tacking moldings and other light lumber, which leaves no nail-holes, is made with a point at each end, and with an outwardly-projecting head or shoulder midway between the points. The nail is first driven into the wood by means of a punch, which straddles the protruding point and bears on the head. When enough has been driven in, the molding is placed over the nails and driven down.
