President Young and Party.— President Brigham Young and party arrived in this City, from the South, at thirty-five minutes past one, this afternoon.
Elder B. Young, Jr., on account of sickness, was compelled to stop over at Cedar City, Elder George Cannon remaining with him.
Those two brethren will probably not reach home for about one week from now.
England.—The following are from the Millennial Star of April 9:—
"A conference will be held by the Latter-day Saints in England's Wells Theatre, St. John-street Road, near the Angel, London, on Sunday, April 22. Times of meetings, 10.30 a.m., 2.30 and 6.30 p.m."
"Elders from Utah are invited to attend, as far as they may wish to, and can do so consistently." Elder Benjamin H. Tolman, on account of continued ill health, has been released from his mission to return home; he sailed on the S. S.
Wisconsin, April 4th, Elder Joseph Barker, from Bradford, was on the same vessel, also en route to Utah.
"Information wanted of Mrs.
Mary Crowther, who went from Derby to Utah about the year 1852. Address Mrs. Widdowson, care of Mrs. Narroct, 48, Lime Street, Liverpool."
Periodicals.—From Mr. James Dwyer we have received Leslie's "Popular Monthly," for May, the largest magazine published, for the price, on this continent.
We have also Vick's "Floral Guide," only 25 cents. It contains an immense amount of useful information upon floriculture and kindred subjects.
We have of Dick's Garden Handbooks, the "Vegetable Garden," price 30 cents. This is a most useful work, heretofore, for everybody should be informed as to the most approved methods of manipulating the garden and raising vegetables.
The necessary knowledge can be gleaned from this excellent little periodical.
St. Nicholas for May contains "As Good as a Mother," "Red Riding Hood," "The Sleeping Curler," "Making a Fairy Story," "Curious End of the General's Ride," "His Own Master," "Ivanhoe," "Trotty's Lecture Bureau," "Fluffy and Lunny," "The Hol-lenbury Cup," "Songs of Spring," "Four Hundred White Cows with Red Ears," "Story of a Proverb," "The First Time," "The Discontent Dwarfer," "My Friend, Col. Backus," "The Sad Story of Hippity Hop," "Florida Fishes," "Pattin'g House," "The Stars in May," "Life of a Little Green Frog," "Jack in the Pulpit." Returned Missionaries.—Yesterday evening we received a call from Elders James Armstrong and Edwin Standing, the former of Pleasant Grove and the latter of Lehi, who returned the day previous from a mission to the eastern states. They left this City November 22nd, and while absent labored in Wisconsin, Illinois and Iowa, where they held numerous public meetings, having all the opportunities for preaching, both privately and publicly, that they could reasonably desire. Elder Armstrong suffered severely for some time with an affection of the lungs, and Elder Standing's health was also rather poor a portion of the time. On account of Elder Armstrong's illness they started for home, stopping a month in Nebraska on the way, where he rapidly recruited, and where, but for the near expiration of the time allowed by their railroad tickets, they would have remained and labored a considerable time longer, having an excellent opening there.
Several families, formerly connected with the Church, that they met with, purpose coming to Utah and settling permanently.
Both those brethren say they greatly enjoyed their mission.
District Court.—April 26th, afternoon.
Erickson and Cook vs. Wesels and Bowyer; on application of plaintiffs' attorneys, J. C. Hemingway, Esq., attorney for defendants, was ordered to appear before the Court at 9.30 a.m. on May 3rd, to show cause why he should not be adjudged guilty of contempt of Court, in having failed to comply with an order in this case.
E. M. Cast vs. Joseph West; defendants' motion to quash the summons granted; judgment of the Court below reversed, and all proceedings thereunder set aside and judgment entered for defendant for the costs.
Bingham Canyon and C. F. railroad company vs. Wm. Burnmaster et al; order of the Court made October 30th, 1876, providing that S.
Maltese, administrator of G. Cereghino, be made a party defendant, was vacated and set aside.
Bingham C. & C. F. railroad company vs. Wm. Burnmaster et al; on motion of plaintiffs' attorneys, case discontinued and judgment entered for defendants for costs.
Friday, April 27, morning.
Ann Eliza Young vs. Brigham Young; case having heretofore been taken under advisement, now the Court, this day, renders his decision and findings. Degree of divorce denied.
John W. Jenkins vs. Salt Lake City Railroad Company; jury trial continued.
Geo. G. Bates vs. James McK-Knight, dismissed at plaintiff's cost, on motion of plaintiff.
B. Young vs. Louis Reggeli; War-shall and Boyle enter as attorneys for defendant.
D. H. Wells vs. Oliver A. Patton et al, two cases, continued by stipulation.

That Picture.—Mr. Geo. M. Ottinger has finished his companion picture to the "Montezuma" one, on which former he has been laboring long and assiduously. It is a most excellent work of art, in which the artist fully sustains the reputation he has acquired. Every person conversant with Mexican history, in viewing the painting, will be constrained to acknowledge the fidelity with which he has adhered to it, in even the most trifling details, taking for his principal guide, as the best authority on the subject, Prescott.
This new picture, the "Gladiatorial Stone," has more simplicity than the "Montezuma" one, because it more clearly tells its own story. It was an occasional custom among the ancient Mexicans, when, in the wars waged between the different states, a prisoner, especially one of some distinction, was taken, to give him a chance for liberty on the "Gladitorial Stone," a large rock hewn into the form of an ordinary griststone, with a ring in the center, to which the prisoner was fastened by one ankle. He was stripped to a state of nudity, with the exception of a covering around his loins, and in this condition he killed or disabled successively three powerful warriors, of the tribe of his captors, clad in armor, he regained his liberty, and was escorted to his own state with honor. The prisoner was always armed with a shield and an inferior and shorter weapon than those of his antagonists. In the picture the prisoner has already disposed of one warrior, who is being carried off, and has commenced a furious combat with the second, with an expression upon his face of confidence in believing soon to dismiss him in a similar manner, while the warrior appears to almost anticipate the same result.
The features, not only of the actors in the scene, but also of the spectators, are full of character and expression. The whole picture has splendid dramatic effect and its composition is everything that could be desired. It will probably be on exhibition at Mr. Savage's gallery some time next week.
In selecting this class of subjects Mr. Ottinger has opened a field which is yet unexplored by the devotees of the painting art, which originality tends to increase the growing interest in his pictures.
Decided at Last.—The long delayed decision, in the District Court, of the suit of Young vs. Young, in divorce, has been rendered at last, Judge Schaeffer having made the following decree, in said Court, this morning:
DEGREE.
Ann Eliza Young, vs.
Brigham Young.
April 20th, 1877.
And now on this day this cause came on to be heard on bill, amended answer and exhibits and testimony; and the same being heard by the Court having heard the arguments of McBride for complainant and Williams and Sheeks for the defendant, the Court takes the matter under advisement.
April 27th, 1877. And now the Court, having duly considered the same, and being fully advised, and having made its findings herein, which findings are herewith filed, it is ordered, adjudged, and decreed by the Court that the alleged marriage between the plaintiff and defendant, on the 6th day of April, 1868, was and the same is hereby decreed and declared to have been null and void.
It is further ordered, adjudged, and decreed that all orders and decrees heretofore made by this Court, in this cause, for the payment of temporary alimony, by the defendant to the plaintiff, which have not been complied with, nor paid or collected, be and the same are hereby revoked and annulled.
It is further ordered, adjudged and decreed that the defendant herein pay the cost of this suit.
M. SCHAEFFER,
Judge.
Leave is given to either or both parties herein to file exceptions to any or all of the findings or decrees or order of the Court, within three days from the filing hereof.
M. SCHAEFFER,
Judge.
Scribner's Monthly for May contains Clarence Cook's "Beds and Tables, Stools and Candlesticks" (last paper), "Smith College," "That Lass o' Loure's" (concluding chapter), "Sea-Trot Fishing," "Agamemnon's Tomb," "Nicholas Minturn," "Greece and the Greek Museums," "Reminiscences of Washington," "Emeralds," "A London Adventurer," "Village Improvements Societies," besides the various usual topical, literary, scientific and other notices.
With numerous beautiful illustrations.
Reported Outrage.—It was reported in town to-day that a woman had been badly beaten and her person violated, in the neighborhood of Sandy, by a brute in human form, this morning. It is stated that the ruffian entered the house where the woman was, during her husband's absence, and committed the foul deed. At last accounts a number of men were in pursuit of the scoundrel.
Sunday School Entertainment.— On Monday evening, at half past seven, at the Social Hall, the Eighteenth Ward Sunday School will give an entertainment, for the benefit of the Sunday School fund.
It will consist of vocal and instrumental music, recitations, &c. A good programme has been prepared for the occasion.
Progressing.—Mr. Nathan Sears, who was accidentally run over by his wagon, a few days since, is doing as well as could be expected. One rib is very badly broken. It will probably be about three weeks before he will be able to move around again.
Lost.—Yesterday afternoon, between Kimball & Lawrence's and Dr. Sharp's, a black pocket book, containing some money. If the finder will leave it at this office he will receive a reward. The book was found in a place where it was not his own.
Third District Rule at Law.—If the defendant gains the suit he pays the costs, pending and ultimate.

THE AMERICAN BOOKSELLER, which has always been of service to book buyers, has enlarged its sphere of usefulness by incorporating with itself The Index, a journal started a short time ago for the purpose of furnishing a monthly index to the periodical literature of this country and Great Britain. The issue of the Bookseller for April contains its first list of titles to papers in the latest English and American periodicals. This list fills ten and a half closely printed pages, the titles being alphabetically arranged under their proper heads.
If its admirable feature of the Bookseller be continued, it will become of great value to all students and general readers, who will be guided at once to what they want without the expense or the trouble of searching for it through the hundreds of periodicals now published.
Revised Ordinances of Provo City, containing all the ordinances in force on the 1st day of February, 1877, and the rules and order of business of Provo City Council, also the Organic Act of Utah, Provo City Charter, and amendments thereto. Revised, consolidated and published by authority.
This is a large octavo of 160 pages, printed on good paper and strongly bound. Useful to all concerned in the municipal regulations of that city. The printing and binding were done at the DESERT NEWS office.
—The New York Herald says,
"The Japanese are becoming social guests wherever they go, but the Chinese are received with favor nowhere."
—It is said that a plot of freehold building land, having frontages to Upper Thames Street and Little Trinity Lane, London, lately sold at a fraction over £1 per square foot.
The Belfast Journal heartily indicates that it is about time for the young man of the period to lay aside Ulster overcoat and put on pantaloons.
Our Country Contemporaries.
Ogden Junction, April 25—Benjamin H. Tolman, of Brigham City, who was called at the General Conference, April, 1876, on a mission to England, returned last evening on account of ill-health.
He labored while there in Nottingham and Sheffield conference.
We hear many inquiries in regard to the Ogden Tabernacle.
Folks are getting anxious for its reopening. The reason of its close is, need of repairs. The plastering on the north side is dilapidated, and the house cannot be used until it is "fixed." Preparations for the necessary repairs have been going on for some time, and we think it will not be long before they are completed. There is no need to fear for the safety of the Tabernacle. If the walls were to come down the roof would stay up. This may surprise some people. But the roof is supported by timbers, and does not rest upon the adobe walls of which the walls are composed.
DIED.

shire, South Wales, March 20th, Elder
