SENATE.

WASHINGTON, 20.—Sargent, from the committee on appropriations, reported back the naval appropriation bill with amendments, and gave notice that he would call it up for consideration as soon as the Indian appropriation bill should be disposed of; placed on the calendar.

The Senate resumed the consideration of the Indian appropriation bill.

Windom, in charge of the bill, said, as it came from the House it appropriated $4,090,112.83, and the Senate committee on appropriations had added $998,096.35. The various amendments recommended by the committee were agreed to, except one increasing the incidental expenses $112,000 from $350,000. The committee reported in favor of striking out the third section of the House bill, which abolishes the office of commissioner of Indian Affairs, as well as the offices of superintendents, agents, interpreters, inspectors, &c., and provides for the government of Indians by the War Department.

The Senate then went into executive session, after which a recess was taken until evening.

HOUSE.

WASHINGTON, 20. — Douglass, chairman of the Freedman's Bank, made a report as to the payment of moneys due the colored sailors, soldiers and marines. The report says: The provision for payment has been partly defeated by the fraudulent contrivance of the bureau of refuge and freedmen and abandoned lands, also that the settlement covering these delinquent claims has been filed with the treasury by Gen. Howard and G. Bullock, in which the fraudulent vouchers and other false evidence of payment have been filed and used by these officers by which they obtained, improperly, credits for the money alleged to have been paid. To remedy this the committee reports a bill directing the treasury to pay the colored sailors, soldiers and marines under certain circumstances and bring all persons implicated in the fraud to justice.

After a debate, in which Hoar and Kasson defended Howard from these aspersions, the bill and correspondence were ordered to be printed and recommitted.

Randall reported the sundry civil appropriation bill; ordered printed. The bill appropriates $14,587,840 against $26,844,350 on the corresponding bill of last year.

The House then proceeded to the consideration of the bill equalizing bounties of soldiers, and was addressed by Thornburgh in its favor. It allows to all enlisted men, soldiers, sailors and marines, including slaves and Indians, eight and a third dollars for their per cent. of service between the 1st of April, 1861, and the 9th of May, 1865, deducting all bounties already paid under the United States or State laws. The bill is not to apply to substitutes, men who were prisoners of war at the time of enlistment, or men who were discharged on their own application for other causes than disability incurred in the service prior to the 19th of April, 1865, unless such discharge was obtained with a view to re-enlistment or to accept promotion, or to persons discharged on the ground of minority. All applications for bounties under the bill are to be filed within five years. The bill requires the expenditure of between nine and ten million dollars. It was passed, 141 against 46.

The Speaker laid before the House a message from the President in relation to the extradition treaty with England, and the refusal of that Government to comply with its provisions in the cases of Winslow and Brent, based upon the act of Parliament passed in 1870, and setting at liberty both the fugitives from justice. The President regards it as an abrogation and annulment of the treaty, and does not think it would comport with the dignity and self-respect of this Government for the surrender of fugitive criminals, or to entertain any request of that character from that Government. He gives notice that, without further action of Congress, he will not make or entertain any requests under the treaty. The message was referred to the committee on foreign relations.

Mutchler introduced a bill authorising the exchange of registered bonds for coupon bonds; referred.

Poppleton reported a resolution authorizing sub-committees to proceed to New York and such other places as may be deemed necessary, for the purpose of taking testimony in the matter of expenditures on public buildings; adopted.

Riddle introduced a bill to repeal the ten per cent. tax on the notes of the State Bank; referred.

Lawrence, of Ohio, gave notice that under agreement of the judiciary committee to-day, the vote on the bill for the Pacific Railroad sinking fund would not be asked before the 6th of July.

EASTERN.

The Black Hills and Indians.

CHEYENNE, Wy., 20.—The Crow and Snake allies having joined General Crook on Goose Creek, the command marched on the 15th inst., expecting to strike the combined Sioux, under Sitting Bull and Crazy Horse inside of four days. The Crow's report having seen a large Sioux village on Tongue River.

General Sheridan arrived from Fort Laramie and left for the East to-day.

The Fifth Cavalry, now at Fort Laramie, are ordered to move northward along the Powder river trail and co-operate with General Crook; more particularly in intercepting the Indians from coming southward. Colonel Stanton joins this command.

The Government saw-mill at Fort Russell was totally destroyed by fire this morning; an engineer, named Klight, was burned to death therein.

Negroes Hanged by White Regulators.

NEW ORLEANS, 20.—The Picayune reports the hanging of five negroes at Mount Pleasant, by the white regulators.

Naval Appropriation Bill—The Silver Bill.

WASHINGTON, 20.—The Senate committee on appropriations, in reporting the naval appropriation bill to-day, propose to increase the various items to $3,680,000 from the amount voted by the House. The House proviso about the employment of men during October and November was entirely stricken out.

Christiancy's silver bill, introduced in the Senate to-day, makes silver coins 25 and 50 cents legal tender for $10, smaller coins to extend to $5. The new silver dollar to be coined is to be made legal tender for $10. Silver bullion in bars, stamped by mints with their weight and fineness, and also the existing trade dollar to be made legal tender for the payment of all debts according to the metallic value as compared with the present gold standard, the market value of silver is to be determined and publicly announced from two to five days before the first of each month by a board, consisting of the secretary of the treasury, director of the mint and United States treasurer. The bill also authorizes the mints to issue certificates payable in mint silver bars, and provides that silver coins shall be exchangeable for United States notes at their nominal value, which shall, therefore, be permanently retired and made part of the sinking fund; it also provides that the treasury may obtain silver bullion at United States market value in exchange for silver dollars or United States notes or gold coin, or that it may be purchased by means of the present bullion funds.

Steadily Increasing.

PHILADELPHIA, 20.—The attendance at the exhibition is steadily increasing.

Timber was blown down, and trees entirely stripped of their leaves, and every species of vegetation in its track destroyed. The damage done is immense, but cannot now be estimated.

WESTERN.

Arrested—The Walking Match.

SAN FRANCISCO, 20.—United States Detective Finnegass this morning arrested Herman Harris, at Mohawk Valley, in the northern part of the State, a fugitive from justice from Charleston, Missouri, where he was a merchant, charged with defrauding his creditors to the amount of $30,000. He has applied for release on a writ of habeas corpus.

At 9:30 this evening O'Leary completed his hundred and sixty-second mile. The amateurs are thirty-one miles ahead.

Injunction Granted—The "Diamond" Bailed in $20,000.

In the case of A. Coolott, a stockholder of the Central Pacific against the Company, Judge Morrison, of the Fourth District Court, to-day rendered a decision enjoining the directors from using the money of the Central Pacific to pay interest on the bonds of the California Pacific to the amount of $1,600,000 endorsed by the Central Pacific. In his decision the court gave an opinion that the guarantee of bonds by the Central Pacific was illegal and not binding on the corporation.

Rudolph alias "Diamond" Blumenberg was released from the custody of the U. S. officer on $20,000 bail.

The habeas corpus case of Herbert E. Mann, the Boston forger, may continue till Thursday next.

Common Sense Wanted in Congress.

It is a marvel that some member of the democratic majority does not see the exact position of the Blaine business. The ex-Speaker has done three things. First, he has tampered with a witness of the House under subpœna, endeavored to destroy his evidence and send him out of the country. Second, he has taken from the possession of a witness under the subpœna of the House documentary evidence which is the property of the House if there is any virtue in its process. Third, he has trifled wite this evidence by reading what purported to be a copy of it to the House, without permitting any competent agent of the House to verify it. When a member puts himself in this position, clearly the dignity and authority of the House demand that he be summoned to its bar to answer for contempt. Yet Mr. Blaine throws the committee upon the defensive, bullies poor Plantation Knott until he begins to talk about pistols in the lobby, and leads the country to believe that he is the victim of a Confederate conspiracy.

The more we think of the recent proceedings in the House the more we are astonished at the audacity of Mr. Blaine and the folly and ignorance of the democratic members. If Plantation Knott, instead of gasconading about the lobbies, swearing at Blaine and threatening to shoot somebody, were to rise to a question of privilege and call the attention of the House to the fact that a member had committed an act of gross contempt, it would require more genius than even Blaine possesses to explain it away. Blaine's whole course in this matter is a gross contempt of the House, and if the democratic members had not lost their head they would make him purge himself. The case is as clear as noonday, and we are amazed that the democrats do not see it.—New York Herald.

THE EDIBILITY OF RATS.—I myself have eaten rats (says an English clergyman) and found them good eating. I was on board the ship at the time, and it was found necessary to smoke the hold out to get rid of the rats that infested the ship. Three hundred and ninety rats were found suffocated round the fires. A French third mate, who was on board, proposed to cook, and actually did cook, some of the finest of them. These I tested, and indeed ate of them. Chiefly the hind legs were eaten. They were exceedingly white, delicate, and tender, and, as far as I remember, put me in mind of chicken, with a slight flavor of game about it. They had been well nourished, and were plump and in good condition. I would not object to eat them perfectly prepared, and should regard such food as a great boon after salt junk and pickled pork of six years' storing. After carefully cleaning, I believe the Frenchman fried them, at all events they were very eatable. Speaking of this to a country friend of ours—a lady—she informed me that her husband once had a pie made of rats. They were caught in a barn where the wheat was just threshed, so that they were very nice and tender from their feeding.

RIDICULOUS PATENTS.—Among the ridiculous patents that have been granted at Washington are a trap for catching tape-worms, a combined plow and cannon, a patent brick to be tied to a cow's tail to keep her from switching her natural appendage, a house on rollers that deaden the shock of an earthquake, and a combined trunk and house. The person afflicted with tape-worm starves himself until the worm, attracted by the delicious bait in the trap, is readily caught. The combined plow and cannon is for frontier farmers, and is intended for mowing down savages. The combined trunk and house is adapted to persons of small means, and can be extended or contracted, as they may have occasion to use a house or a trunk.—Colorado Farmer.

The whirligig of fashion may bring round the most sudden and dazzling changes, and the duties of the toilet may multiply like leaves in Vallambrosa, but there is nothing that will make a woman stand before her looking-glass so long as a sunburned nose.
