as the people retain the Spirit they have in this house, blessings will be poured out upon the inhabitants of the valleys, and opon all Israel, in rich abundance, and it will work a reformation among the Saints.

Prest. Young wished the Latter Day Saints to hearken to this counsel, viz:

We will now bring our Conference to a close. I wish the Latter Day Saints to hearken to the counsel they receive from time to time, and especially to the counsel I will now give to all the L. D. Saints in this louse, in the valleys of the mannatins, and all who are scattered among the nations of the carth. I ask one thing at your hands, and that is, to line your religious days by days.
