

NEW FACES APPEAR ON THE SAUCER.

MacLean and Moran. Riders
From the East, Go

SAMUELSON DEFEATED ONE.

One of the New Comers Defeated Hardy
Downing in Fast Race—Last
Meet Tonight.

There were new faces on the saucer last night. One of the riders, Hugh MacLean, defeated Hardy Downing in a match motor race, taking two straight heats from the San Jose rider. Although there were two or three riders through accidents the race was one of the fastest seen here this season.

The motor was new ones, and were handled by Harley Turville, well known as a bike fan, and Will Saunders of Boston.

The other new rider, J. P. Moran, was given a state of Australian polo riding with W. E. Samuelson and U. G. Harder than he has ever done in his life before, and many believe that he will be a contender for the title of champion in the future.

The attendance last night was not up to the standard, undoubtedly because of the cold weather.

Tough was the last race meet of the season for Salt Lake. Although the weather was not ideal, the riders were downing MacLean and Moran. There will also be professional and amateur open and handicap events.

The summary of last night's races follows:
