

OFFERED TO SELL A BABY FOR $125

Mrs. Mueller Tacked up Sign to Notify the Public of Her Intention.

SHE RECEIVED PROPOSITIONS

Highest Bid Was $60 But the Woman
Declined—Authorities Took Charge of Infant.

Being unable to care for her own children and provide them with suitable food and clothing, Mrs. Mueller, who resides at 443 Sixth avenue, Waterloo, tried to sell her 7 months old niece, whom she has kept ever since the death of the child's mother in Wyoming some time ago. In order to advise the public that she wanted to sell the child she posted a sign on the front of her house "Baby for Sale." The sign attracted attention and the woman received several propositions to buy, the highest offer being $60. This she refused, because she wanted $125 for the baby and would not sell for a cent less.

The matter was brought to the attention of the judge of the juvenile court yesterday afternoon and, accompanied by Mrs. M. M. Young, the probation officer, he went to the home and brought the child back with him and will find a suitable home for it.

Mrs. Mueller has four children and for some time she has been unable to support them, and therefore wanted to dispose of her sister's child so as to secure money for food and clothing. She has received no support from her husband and is in destitute circumstances.

Mrs. Mueller and her husband were notified to appear in the juvenile court this morning and show cause why their own children should not be taken from them. Deputy Sheriff Fred Butler was sent after this morning but failed to find the man and was informed that he had left the state. Mrs. Mueller had just loaded her goods into an express wagon and started for the Short Line depot with the intention of following her husband. The deputy after a chase of several blocks overtook her and brought her into court.

The children were not with the woman and she could not or would not tell the court where they were. A police officer was sent out near the depot to find them but up to a late hour had not located them. The woman told some very conflicting stories about herself and family and it is believed by the court officials that the child which she attempted to sell had been stolen and that she and her husband were trying to make commercial traffic out of the child.

The matter will be thoroughly investigated and the children if located will probably be placed in the infants' home for safe keeping until a suitable home can be found for them.

A NOTABLE RECITAL

Hawaiian Band Entertained at Tabernacle Today.

The private organ recital tendered by the first presidency to the Royal Hawaiian band at the tabernacle this morning took on a highly enthusiastic character before it was concluded. The only guests invited besides Captain Berger and his men, were the members of the Hawaiian Missionary society living in the city, and there were not more than 200 listeners in all in the rear end of the gallery. The program was brief but admirable. It included several numbers by Organist Walter J. Foulton, who officiated in the absence of Prof. McClellan, and who was strongly applauded for his excellent work. Walter Smith, a young Maori, a pupil of Prof. Schettler, astonished all by his skill on the mandolin. The "Hyperbutterfly" Quartet, a quartet was warmly received for its rendition of "While I Have You" and gave "Spin Spin" in response. The sensation of the evening was, probably, the singing of the Hawaiian national hymn, a fairly beautiful selection, which drew the tears from the eyes of the audience. All the members of the band rose as she sang, and joined in feeling style in rendering the chorus. Mr. James Harrison, a member of the band, then sang to the organ accompaniment, the song so dear to all Hawaiians, "Aloha Oe," the natives again joining in the chorus.

The recital concluded with a rendition of "America" by everyone standing. At the conclusion Presidents Smith and Winch, who were in attendance, exchanged greetings with Captain Berger and many of his men, and received their warmest thanks for the race treat enjoyed.

HAVE THEIR RAZORS OUT.

Speedy Colored Folk After Scalp of Policeman of Their Own Race.

There is trouble ahead for W. H. Chambers, the notorious colored policeman, appointed under the "American" party administration for "patrol" services rendered. A large number of colored voters are on with a petition which they will submit to the council on Monday next, asking for the removal of Chambers.

The charges they make are serious. It is alleged that he is incompetent; does not enforce the law; that he visits notorious gambling houses, and encourages the gambling element. Chambers has had an unsavory reputation is well known and was first brought to the attention of the public by the "News."

The petition against Chambers is being circulated by one Henry Rozen, known among members of his race as "Cossy." Many signatures have been placed on the document and many more will follow.

It is a fact, however, that some of the most reputable colored citizens of the city have refused to sign the petition. Not because they have any respect for Chambers, but because they do not care to attach their names to a document bearing the signatures of some with whom they refuse to associate.

AMUSEMENTS.

Salt Lake Theater.—Mr. Mayall, like a true master in the art of playing, has reserved his trump card for the final round in the game. This card is "Men and Women," a society drama of the strongest kind, one which Salt Lake's were wont to applaud in years gone by, and one which is full of heart interest and attractiveness as ever. Mr. Mayall's portrayal of William Prescott, the principal character, will rank with the best ever seen here. He has given no stronger exhibition of his ability as an actor, to our theater-goers, than that which he furnished last night in the role of the bank cashier who unintentionally becomes a defaulter and who listens with pathetic and unbroken silence to the narration of the tragic life story of a modern Jean Valjean, in the person of his prospective father-in-law, and then rises resolute and determined to hide his crime from the world, only to find in the end that he cannot flee from or escape it even by the consecration of his life to good.

Mr. Giffiths did a capital bit of work as Israel Cohen. Mr. MacLean had the villain's part and Miss Mortimer was the aid of Miss Prescott. The laughs as Sam Delaheld. Miss Elmore won applause as Agnes Rodman and Ethel Sturges did her best work as Dora Prescott. Miss Gresham had the part of Mrs. Kate Delaheld, the vivacious widow and sparkled in it.

The house was cool and comfortable and the audience good sized and thoroughly appreciative. "Men and Women" is capably presented and well worth seeing; besides it is the last week of the company here, and those who miss it will deprive themselves of a showing of excellent entertainment.

"Candle" will be given on Thursday afternoon by special request with Miss Elmore in the title role and Mr. Mayall as Armand Duval.

Casino Park.—The Tramp Detective is the offering at Casino Park this week. The engagement commenced last night before a large and enthusiastic gathering which laughed and applauded to the echo over the experiences of the tramp. Humorous situations and rapid fire excitement abound throughout. Judging from the attendance last evening it will be a "top-notch" in the matter of securing patrons for the remainder of the week, after which will come an engagement of vaudeville. It was ladies' night last night. On Friday there will be another. The management says it has found them very popular and one of the reasons for the success it is achieving.

Saltair—Royal Hawaiian Band until Friday.

NEWSBOYS AND CARRIERS ATTEND THEATER TONIGHT

At the invitation of Manager Pypel and the Herchel Mayall company, newsboys and carriers of the Desert Evening News, and the carriers who distribute the paper from North Salt Lake on the north to Murray and Bingham Junction on the south, will be the guests of the house at this evening's presentation of "Men and Women." It will require more than 100 tickets to do the corps of workers justice, and all desire to tender their thanks in advance to the management and the players, for the treat which they feel is in store for them.

Saltair—Royal Hawaiian Band until Friday.

REUNION OF SOLOISTS.

Stephen's Singers Have an Enjoyable Evening at His Home.

Prof. Evan Stephens' country home on South State street was illuminated in a double sense last night—first by a big display of Japanese lanterns hung in every tree on the spacious grounds; second by the presence of nearly a hundred of those who have acted as soloists in various concerts and operatic productions with which the professor's name has been associated for the past 20 years or more. The evening was in all ways an enjoyable one. A huge circle of chairs was provided on the lawn in front of the house, and here were seated those who did not participate in the program, while inside of the building with the professor at the piano was a quartet of soloists, soloists, soloists, whose names have been linked with so many musical successes in the past. The evening was devoted to practicing the "Lucia" sextet and the "Rigoletto" quartet, the parts being multiplied from four to a dozen times. The effect of such a volume of sound rendered by voices of such quality was almost dizzying.

Prof. Stephens stated that the evening was merely preliminary to a reunion of all his singers at Saltair on the 12th, when in conjunction with the Hawaiian band a program somewhat informal in character would be rendered, the "Lucia" sextet and the "Rigoletto" quartet being made the features, while the tabernacle choir was expected to render the Hawaiian national hymn accompanied by the full Hawaiian band.

ROSENBERG STILL HELD.

Berlin, July 10.—August Rosenberg, formerly of Seattle, Wash., who was arrested July 3 at Altona, Prussia, as a suspected anarchist, is still detained by the police, but the case has been taken out of the hands of the local authorities pending the result of correspondence between the foreign office here and the German embassy at Washington.

HOUSE MEMBERS AND SMOOT CASE

In Lower Branch of Congress
They Look Upon it as Persecution.

WOULD HAVE ACTED ERE THIS.

Congressman Howell of the Opinion
That President Roosevelt Will Be Renominated.

Congressman Howell arrived this morning from the east, and was entertained at luncheon by Collector Calister, Marshal Spry and other prominent local Republicans, prior to continuing north to his home at Logan. Mr. Howell was found by a "News" reporter to whom he said, in response to inquiries, that the already published interviews with the two senators pretty well covered the interviewing ground; but he was ready to add emphasis to the statements that the Congress just adjourned was pre-eminently noted for the great amount of work it had accomplished. Moreover, the work had been thorough, and the good results of the legislation would be made manifest.

WHAT HOUSE THINKS.

When asked as to the opinion in the house on the Smoot case, Mr. Howell said the house was almost unanimous in the opinion that the crusade against the Utah senator was in the nature of a persecution, and he would certainly retain his seat until the end of his term. If the house had been handling the case it would have been settled long ago in favor of the senator. Mr. Howell referred with pleasure to the patriotism of the house in subordinating politics in working for the best results in legislation; actual needs being considered as paramount to party advantage. The importance of the acts passed, as previously referred to by the Utah senator, was emphasized by the Congressman, and the practical given praise for his earnest disinterestedness in working for the welfare of the country at large.

ROOSEVELT AND THE PEOPLE.

Mr. Howell said President Roosevelt had the country with him, as the general public was convinced that his heart is right, and that he is working to the best of his abilities for the greatest good of the greatest number. And while he may make mistakes, they are errors of judgment rather than of the heart. Mr. Roosevelt is a very great man, says Mr. Howell, the greatest who has sat in the executive chair for a good many years, and his renomination to be a strong probability, notwithstanding his assertion that he does not want to serve another term.

OTHER CANDIDATES.

When asked as to the other candidates, Mr. Howell mentioned Secretaries Taft of the war department and Root of the state department as great men and strong candidates, but with the holding of the next presidential convention two years distant, it would hardly be profitable to attempt to make any predictions. Mr. Howell called attention to the fact that the whirlwind of time may bring about remarkable changes in the political world, but with the holding of the next presidential convention two years distant, it would hardly be profitable to attempt to make any predictions. Mr. Howell called attention to the fact that the whirlwind of time may bring about remarkable changes in the political world, but with the holding of the next presidential convention two years distant, it would hardly be profitable to attempt to make any predictions.

ARIZONA STRIP.

Mr. Howell was asked what he thought about the status of the Arizona strip proposition, and the likelihood of its ever being made Utah territory. He replied that the old Saxon idea about possession was too strong in the minds of Arizonaans for them to be ready to give up the strip, although it is really of no consequence to them. Moreover the minds of Congressmen are not at all clear on this proposition and they are averse to taking any decided action, with the sentiment against yielding the strip so strong in the territory. However, the government proposes to revert the strip into a forest reserve which practically takes it out of the hands of the territorial administration and leaves it strictly governmental domain.

SAW NIAGARA FALLS.

Mr. Howell said he had stopped en route to see Niagara Falls over which the average easterner goes into hysterics on the slightest occasion, and said he could not see that the great falls in any way approximated the scenic grandeur the canyon of the Colorado, the Canyon of the Arkansas or the Yellowstone scenery. To his mind the scenery of the Canyon of the Colorado down through the Arizona strip can be surpassed for stupendous grandeur anywhere in the world.

Regarding the proposed amalgamation of Arizona and New Mexico, Mr. Howell remarked his belief that Arizona would vote heavily against any consolidation, and that New Mexico could vote for it as its accomplishment would mean the ascendancy of the native element of New Mexico in controlling the destinies of Arizona. So of course the proposition would fall through, and both territories would remain in their present territorial status for some years to come.

SENATOR CLARK TO INSPECT ROAD

Within the next few days there are destined to be great happenings in southeastern Nevada incident to the arrival of Senator W. A. Clark, president of the Salt Lake Route. Last night W. H. Bancroft, vice president of the Oregon Short Line and the Clark road, left for Los Angeles where he will meet Senator Clark and in all probability accompany him back to Las Vegas and over the Las Vegas & Tonopah which is now completed nearly in Riolite.

In anticipation of the visit of these distinguished railroad officials the citizens of the various mining camps to be visited are making arrangements to tender banquets and indulge in a regular food of oratory and champagne. It is the intention of Senator Clark to inspect the new road and then travel by stage or automobile on to Garfield and Tonopah so as to become personally in touch with the real resources of the country and see for himself just what it will afford in the way of tonnage.

If present plans are carried out the party will leave Los Angeles tomorrow night and despite the very hot weather travel overland as indicated. Senator Clark is expected to come to Salt Lake over the Southern Pacific and via Ogden some time next week.

WASHOUTS ON DESERT.

Las Vegas & Tonopah R. R. Gets Its First Experience of Cloudbursts.

The Las Vegas & Tonopah road now being built by the Clark interests, has been christened by one of the biggest cloudbursts that has occurred in the district for years. On Friday the wind was reported to be blowing 50 miles an hour at Johnnie, Nev., while the dust storm accompanying it was simply awful. During the tornado the tents and shacks at Bowlierville were all blown down and mules, burros and horses stampeded in every direction. Somewhere back in the hills the cloudburst arrived and the result was an hour later the grade was honeycombed with the raging mud and water.

UP GOES PRICE OF MUSH.

Chicago, July 10.—Officials of the railroads of the Central Freight association and representatives of all the big breakfast food companies in the country were expected to meet at noon today at the offices of the association here. The cause of the clash is the attempt of the railroads to establish a much higher rate on train products, which will result, it is claimed, in an increase of 25 to 35 per cent in the price of breakfast foods to consumers.

WANT COAL LAND DEED SET ASIDE

Pleasant Valley Company is Defendant—Fraud is Alleged.

IN UNITED STATES COURT.

Suit Filed by U. S. Attorney General Through Local Counsel—Victim of Put up Job.

The attorney general of the United States, through the local United States attorney has filed suit in the local United States circuit court against the Pleasant Valley Coal company in action to secure setting aside a deed to coal land alleged to have been secured through fraudulent means. The land is in Carbon county, the southeast quarter of section 22, township 13 south, range 7 east, 180 acres. The complaint alleges that on April 1, 1899, the government owned in fee simple the coal lands in question, unappropriated and subjected to entry; that W. F. Carter, president and general manager of the Pleasant Valley Coal company, Robert Forrester, engineer of the company, Major W. H. Bird, attorney (now deceased), and others conspired to secure a patent to the lands through improper means. It is alleged that the deed was prepared and an affidavit, Sept. 21, 1899, whereby one Bessie Kimball applied for entry on the land in question as non-mineral bearing land.

It is alleged that Bessie Kimball paid to the receiver of the local landoffice $2,300 for the property, or $20 per acre, and that official, not knowing that she was the victim of a put up job, took the cash and secured the patent through the usual means at Washington. The complaint alleges that the land in question was not entered according to law, but rather in violation of it; that the said Bessie Kimball did not enter upon the land for her own use and benefit, but instead for the use and benefit of the Pleasant Valley Coal company; that the said Forrester acted for her as attorney, and induced her to make the entry, Forrester and Bird preparing the necessary papers, and that the Kimball woman was paid for acting as a stool pigeon the sum of $50. It is alleged that in three days after perfection of entry by Bessie Kimball, or on Dec. 5, 1899, she conveyed the land over to the Pleasant Valley Coal company, receiving in compensation the sum of $50 already mentioned. The government therefore asks that the entry be annulled, and the deed declared void and cancelled, and the land in question be reverted by decision of the court to the custody of the United States.

We desire to place in the hands of those afflicted with Bright's Disease or Diabetes a 36-page pamphlet that is saving human lives. It is not an ordinary pamphlet, but is principally made up of reports of scientifically conducted tests in a large variety of cases, showing 87 per cent of recoveries in these hitherto incurable diseases.

This booklet is for thoughtful people—people who can discriminate between common patent medicine literature and a carefully prepared report of a patient, serious and profoundly important investigation.

The specifics employed in these tests are known as the Fulton Compounds and the results obtained prove conclusively that these dreaded diseases so long fatal have at last yielded to medical science. The pamphlet is free. P. J. Hill Drug Co., Local Agent, Salt Lake.

When I suffer from Bright's Disease, weakness or loss of weight, puffiness, headache or eyeride, kidney trouble after the third month, urine may show sediment; failing vision; drowsiness, one or more of these.
