IMPORTANT TO THE TRAVELING PUBLIC. It is the duty of all persons before starting on a journey to ascertain by what route they can reach their destination with the least trouble, and if there are two or more roads leading to the same point, to decide which is the safest and pleasantest to travel.

We take pleasure in stating, that the CHICAGO & NORTH-WESTERN RAILWAY is the oldest, and several miles the shortest, route between Omaha and Chicago. Within the past two years the road bed has been put in admirable condition, and almost the entire line has been re-laid with steel rails.

The Depot in Chicago is centrally located, and as their trains arrive there thirty minutes in advance of all other lines, passengers can always be sure of making Eastern connections.

Close connections are made at Chicago with the Lake Shore & Michigan Southern, Michigan Central, Baltimore & Ohio, Pittsburg, Fort Wayne & Chicago, Kankakee Line and Pan Handle Routes, for all points EAST and SOUTH-EAST.

If you are going to Chicago, or East, you should, by all means, purchase your tickets by the Old Pioneer Route.

The Chicago and North-Western.

You will find on all through trains Pullman Sleepers, new and magnificent Day Coaches, and the best Smoking and Second Class Cars now on any road in the United States.

Particular information with maps, time tables, etc., may be had at any of the Through Ticket Offices in the West, or upon personal or written application to J. W. Irons, Ticket Agent, Salt Lake City, or to J. H. McConnel, Western Traveling Agent, Omaha, Neb., or to W. H. Stengett, General Passenger Agent, Chicago. d54

EVENING NEWS.

Saturday, May 22, 1875.

Local and Other Matters.

Thermometer 67 degrees F in the shade at 1 p.m. today. Cloudy.

Meetings.—Meetings at the Tabernacle at 2 o'clock to-morrow afternoon, and in the various Ward meeting houses in the evening.

Gene.—Tommy Weaver, a rather eccentric character, well known to many citizens, left for England this morning.

Body Found.—The body of W. G. Thomas, killed by a snowslide, in Big Cottonwood, last Winter, has been found, and will be brought to this city next Monday, for interment.

Went for His Head.—Last night John James was in Shingleton's saloon, where he amused himself by aiming a tumbler at the head of the proprietor. The missile hit the mark, inflicting an ugly gash, for which James was fined $20, in the police court, this morning.

More Rain.—It rained all night, we believe, from between eight and nine o'clock until nearly the same hour this morning. The vegetation looks and will look greatly improved thereby, and the atmosphere is cooled and rendered exceedingly pleasant. Showers are as welcome as flowers in May.

City Pottery.—Yesterday our reporter looked into the City Pottery, Messrs. Eardley Brothers, Croxall and Cartwright proprietors. (These gentlemen are turning out a large amount of brownware, especially flower pots, for which there is a great demand this season. Some of the ornamental ones are very neat, being a great improvement on the ordinary flower pot for the window sill.)

Experiments are made in the white ware line occasionally, which shows that it only needs an acquisition or increase of facilities to produce excellent goods of that class as well as the brown ware.

Very Bad Accident.—At seven o'clock this morning Charles D. Crouch, twelve years of age, met with a very severe accident, at the railroad depot. The lad, who is bright, active and intelligent, got to the depot every morning, to sell newspapers before the departure of the Utah southern early train. This morning he rode down on a street car, and on arriving at the depot he jumped off, when the mules gave a pull forward before the bolt was unfastened to enable them to turn around to be hitched to the other end, which caused the vehicle to lurch forward. The boy tripped in trying to get out of the way, and both wheels passed over him.

The thigh bone of his right leg is very much crushed, and three large, ugly gashes were made in the left leg.

The unfortunate lad was carried to his home, First South Street, near St. Mark's Church, on a litter, and Dr. Anderson, who was sent for, soon arrived and attended to the injuries.

Releases and Appointments.—Elder H. S. Gowans is released from the Presidency of the Manchester Conference to return home, and is appointed to take charge of the company which will leave on the 12th of May.

Elder Henry Hughes is released from the Presidency of the Welsh Conference to return home, and is appointed to act as consistorial to Elder Gowans, in charge of the May 12th company.

Elder Thomas F. Thomas, traveling Elder in the Welsh Conference, is also released to return home with the above company.

Elder George Ball, recently traveling in the Liverpool Conference, is also released to return home with the above company.

Elder Joseph H. Parry is released from his labors in the Leeds Conference, and appointed to labor in the Liverpool Conference, as Traveling Elder, under the direction of Elder W. H. Stengett.

Elder Edward Snelgrove is appointed to succeed Elder Gowans as President of the Manchester Conference, May 8.

Elder Miles Williams is appointed to succeed Elder Hughes as President of the Welsh Conference, May 8.

Theatre.—Owing to the rain the Theatre was not crowded last evening, but the performance was very superior. After the farce by the dramatic company, the Jackey Family gave their extraordinary entertainment, which is pronounced, by those present, "immense," affording a great amount of pleasure and satisfaction to the audience. The somersault from a pyramid of six tables was a wonderful feat, many others also were really extraordinary, and all were coolly, confidently, and neatly done.

This evening, the last of the appearance of the Jackeys in this city, the performance commenced with the farce of "Betsy Baker," which Messrs. Margeris and Willoughby, Miss Cogwell and Mrs. Douglas, appear, after which the Jackey Family appear in the following feats:

"The Funny Three Clowns," by Sam, Nathan and Joe Jackey. "Grand Contortion Act," by Lawrence, Charles and Johnny. "The Games of Flow," with double and triple somersaults, by Prof. Jackey and Bros. "Horizontal Bar," by Nathan, Lawrence and Joe Jackey. "Japanese Ladder," by Prof. Jackey and Charles. "Great Somersault Act," by Nathan Jackey, from a Pyramid of six tables. "The Egyptian Pyramids," by the entire Jackey Troupe, 10 in number.

The Camp Douglas Band, under the direction of Prof. Le Mar, will discourse musical eloquence.

As this is the last performance of this talented troupe in this city, all those who wish to witness some really skillful and extraordinary gymnastic and acrobatic feats, should not fail to go and see the Jackeys, for they are very superior artists in their line.

The Jackey Family appear at Ogden on Monday night, and give one of their entertainments.

Another Garroting Case.—At half past 9 o'clock last night, Mr. J. A. Stromberg, tailor, of Commercial Street, was pursuing his way homeward from his place of business. When he reached the corner of Second South and Fourth East Streets he was suddenly pounced upon by a couple of men, who each took hold of an arm. Mr. Stromberg, being deaf and dumb, was of course unable to tell what either of the men said, and he struggled fiercely to free himself from them, when one of them drew a knife and aimed a blow at him. He was the blow from his body, but the blade of the weapon passed through his right hand. He also received a severe injury on the left knee, which causes him to be very lame. Luckily for him, a wagon drove up to the spot, which and the effect of scaring the ruffians, who then ran away. Mr. Stromberg made his way home as speedily as he could. On reaching his house he discovered that his watch and chain were gone, they having been apparently wrenched away, leaving the hook and key in his vest. He arose early this morning and went to the spot where the struggle took place, where he found the missing watch and chain lying upon the ground.

The night was very dark and it was raining at the time, and Mr. Stromberg was unable to see the surroundings by candlelight to identify any of them, although he could distinguish that one of them was rather tall, while the other was very short.

Mr. Stromberg is satisfied that but for the timely arrival of the wagon he would probably have been killed. His clothes were very much torn in the scuffle or struggle.

Conference at Merthyr Tydfil.—According to the Millennial Star, the Welsh Conference was held at Merthyr Tydfil on Sunday, April 25, Elder L. John Nuttall reporter. Meetings were held morning, afternoon and evening.
