Last Night's Dispatches.

EASTERN.

Review of the Day.

PHILADELPHIA, 10.—After the reception in the Judges' Hall, the President was driven through the grounds, and the visitors generally appear satisfied with the Exhibition. The Empress of Brazil, escorted by Mrs. Gillespie, visited the Women's Pavilion this afternoon, and made a tour of all the aisles and passages. There were no formalities attending the visit. Dom Pedro also visited the Pavilion and gave emphatic approval of the work there displayed by American women. One of the most impressive scenes of the day took place in the Machinery Hall, where the President, assisted by his Imperial Majesty, Dom Pedro, started the motive power of that hall. At a signal from General Hawley, the President and Emperor each seized the crank which opened the valves and turned it several times. A sound was at once heard, which gave to the people the understanding that the engine was about to move. The monstrous seventy ton fly wheel began to move slowly and increased gradually in rapidity until it was traveling at its full speed. General Hawley started the hurrah, which was taken up by the surrounding multitude. Deafening echoes traveled through the building, and as all of the wheels in the hall began to move the ringing of bells and other demonstrations told to the world that the Centennial Exhibition was fairly opened.

Rejoicings.

It is officially estimated that one hundred and ten thousand people entered the Centennial grounds today. Dispatches from various places throughout the country show that the day was observed as a Centennial holiday. Philadelphia was grandly illuminated to-night. Great crowds of people rendered the streets nearly impassible. Grant was serenaded to-night; no speeches.

Wool Market.

BOSTON, 10.—The wool market remains dull, sales showing a large falling off, as compared with last year's sales. Ohio and Pennsylvania 40 @ 42 for X, 42 @ 43 for XX, and 42 @ 45 for better grades up to XXX. There is a very little good Ohio wool in the market, and the stock of Pennsylvania is light, but there is considerable offering from neighboring markets at comparatively low prices. Michigan and Wisconsin fleeces are dull and selling at 35 @ 37½, but it is difficult to realize over 35. For best combing wools dull, sales limited. New California continues to arrive quite freely, and is selling at 19 @ 24, an occasional choice lot brings an advance on the latter rate, but good average lots will not bring over 24. Pulled wool in fair demand at low prices. Principal sales are for sugar, and X @ XX 35 @ 40, and very choice eastern and main super as high as 45 @ 48 in small lots.

All Quiet—In Jail.

MASSILON, 10.—The rioters are now quiet, but an outbreak is anticipated hourly. Twelve men are lodged in jail, and more arrests are expected.

The Mayoralty Muddle—Silver Coin.

CHICAGO, 10.—Hoyne opened an office this morning and issued licenses, etc., affixing his signature as mayor. Colvin has issued a proclamation warning people against doing business under such licenses. The whiskey trials, which were set for to-day, have been postponed until Friday. They are the cases of Murnh, Wadsworth, and Ward. The U. S. sub-treasury has received from the mint at Carson, Nevada, about one hundred thousand dollars in silver coin, which will be immediately put in circulation.

Barnum Nominated.

HARTFORD, Conn., 10.—The vote for senator to-night in the democratic legislative caucus is as follows—Barnum 100, English 74, Ingersol 1. Barnum was then nominated by acclamation.

NEW YORK, 10.—Wm. Harvey, better known as "Reddy the blacksmith," a well known character of this city, died to-night of consumption.

The Investigation.

The Herald's Washington special says it is understood that some of the ablest democrats in the House are engaged in summarizing the results of the investigation, and that before the session closes, these results will be presented to the country in one or two speeches which will show, in unbelievable and readable form, what the congressional investigations have developed. But the committees are by no means done. Some of them have scarcely begun. A good deal of work remains, and there is no disposition to leave anything undone.

Silver Depreciation.

The Times editorially says, at the beginning of Nero, B.C., Roman silver bullion had already fallen to 57½ pence per ounce, the pound sterling would buy sight draft on Amsterdam for 11 florins 16 centimes. With silver quoted at 58½ pence per ounce the pound sterling purchased draft for 12 florins two centimes. The fall in value, both of bar silver and Dutch coin, being about eight per cent. If the Dutch Government proceeds with the gold coinage and withdraws its silver from circulation we shall have considerable addition to the complaints of silver bullion in the market, and in all probability a further change in value. Under these circumstances it is not advisable for the U. S. to authorize the coinage of any silver beyond what is needed to supply the place of fractional currency. The projected dollar piece, according to present appearances, will be ready worth one cent less than the greenback dollar.

Fires.

Several dwellings at Worcester, Mass., were burned last night. Loss $41,000.

Centennial Matters.

The Philadelphia morning papers are almost wholly given up to the Centennial and the scenes and incidents at Philadelphia yesterday. The general opinion is that the opening day was a success, beginning well for the Exhibition. Wagner's Centennial March has taken greatly with the people, who have heard it at rehearsal, and all the opening ceremonies, but some critics say it is not equal to the famous Kaiser March, or the Huldigeings. Some disappointment has been expressed that the illustrious composer had incorporated no well known American air in the march, but it now turns out that "Yankee Doodle" runs through the entire latter part. In New York people seem only to have begun to think this is the Centennial year. Still public buildings, ships in the harbor, etc., are decorated with flags and bunting, though smart thunder showers interfere sadly.

The Sun says Grant read his speech, and his reading was in an artistic and captivating manner. To cap all, a man fell in a fit during the reading. In the confusion nobody could hear. Out of doors much of the walking had to be done in the mud. Many fences had not been removed, and on every hand was a lack of completeness. The restaurants were inadequate. Everything was eaten before a fourth of the demand was made. There is a strong probability that the exhibition will be open on Sundays. The soldiers here are a mere caricature, only fit to serve in burlesque. Wagner's march was a dead failure. A drove of mustangs will be taken to Fleetwood Park today for exercise preparatory to next Tuesday's race. They were exhibited yesterday and had their riding qualities exhibited by Californians. Thirty-two have just been shed for the first time and many had to be thrown down or suspended in mid air.

Bowen & Beecher—"Put Him Out."

The special committee appointed to investigate Bowen's case reported a majority considered him proved guilty of equivocation and deserving of the severest censure of the church. The committee subsequently adjourned for eight days, in order to give Bowen an opportunity to tell all he knows to Dr. Taylor, of Broadway Tabernacle, if the latter will not tell the public.

The session was very stormy and excited. Beecher rose and started to speak, saying, "I am accused of a monstrous crime." Dr. Park, one of Bowen's counsel, interrupted, "And you are guilty, too, sir." Instantly a hundred people were on their feet, and Park was ordered out, being hissed to the door.

The Whiskey Cases.

The Times editorially says, half a dozen whiskey dealers were arrested yesterday and held to bail to answer the charge of neglecting duties imposed upon them by law with reference to the payment of taxes. These dealers had received a large amount of whiskey from the west, and it is suspected they have been aiding western distillers in putting crooked liquor upon the market. Their bail, however, was fixed at a comparatively low figure, and the anticipation of any whiskey war like that in St. Louis does not seem reasonable.

Dr. Hall Dead.

Dr. Wm. H. Hall, editor of Hall's Journal of Health, fell in the street to-night in a fit and expired, cause of death unknown.

I. O. S. Convention.

MILWAUKEE, 10.—The Independent Greenback State Convention was held at Madison to-day. Delegates were chosen to the national convention at Indianapolis. Among the resolutions adopted was one nominating Judge Davis for President.

Fastest Time Yet.

LEXINGTON, Ky., 10. — There were two races over the Association course. The second race was remarkable for the reputation of the two contestants. It was a dash of two miles and a half for four-year old. Aristides won, Ten Broeck second; time 3:45½, the fastest on record.

The Whiskey Cases.

ST. LOUIS, 10.—The stay of execution for two weeks, granted by Judge Dillon in the McKee and Maguire cases, having expired today, a motion was made in the circuit court this afternoon for another stay for a week until certain papers now before the department can be examined. After some discussion the stay was granted by Judge Treat, who, however, required McKee to give an additional bond of $25,000, and Maguire $20,000. McKee returned from Washington this p.m., and his counsel stated in court that there was a reasonable prospect that his sentence would be commuted.

Delegates to Cincinnati.

DETROIT, Mich., 10.—The Republican State Convention, to-day, chose delegates to the National Convention, but left them uninstructed as to the man whom they should support.

LOUISVILLE, 10.—A fire this afternoon destroyed James Clarke's great tobacco preparing house; loss $45,000, insurance $23,000.

The Molly Maguires.

POTTSVILLE, Pa., 10.—The cross-examination of Detective McParlon was resumed to-day. The witness admitted that he knew that Jones was to be assassinated. He knew it at 10 o'clock on the day before the deed was committed, but he could communicate with no one but Franklin. He knew of the intended murder of Sawyer, but he did not know when or where it was to be committed, and he was shadowed. He thought his own life was of more value to him than the lives of all the people in the court room. On his examination he said he knew Jones was being constantly guarded. Witness warned Gerster Jones, and so saved his life for a time. He saved the lives, at different times, of a boss named Forsyth, at Shenandoah, of Dr. Bisbell, of Jessa and Wm. Major, and of Wm. Thomas, all of whom were threatened and their murder was really contemplated.

WESTERN.

The Chinese Question.

SAN FRANCISCO, 10.—The Chinese question is beginning to excite interest in British Columbia. A dispatch from Victoria says a resolution passed the House without debate, declaring it expedient for the Government to take steps to prevent the province being overrun by Chinese to the injury of the white population.

FOREIGN.

Rochefort in Trouble Anderway.

PARIS, 10.—Rochefort's journal has been again prosecuted for publishing a letter from a person deprived of civil and political rights.

SPAIN.

Liberty of Conscience.

MADRID, 10. — Senor Castelar spoke yesterday in Congress in favor of complete liberty of conscience, and urged the alteration and extension of article 11 of the new constitution.

TURKEY.

Fifty Arrested.

CONSTANTINOPLE, 10.—Fifty persons who took part in the riot at Salonica have been arrested.

RUSSIA.

Gone to Berlin.

ST. PETERSBURG, 10.—The Czar left here last night for Berlin.

GREAT BRITAIN.

Accident at the Races—Failures—Discouraging from Liberia.

LONDON, 10.—During the races at Chester to-day, a temporary stand was so crowded that it collapsed. Two persons were killed and many seriously wounded. The wounded were removed to the infirmary.

Turner, Nott & Strong, corn and provision merchants, of Bristol, suspended; liabilities between $400,000 and $500,000.

Advices from Liberia are most unsatisfactory and discouraging. The new administration's financial statement is looked forward to with great anxiety. It is stated that much of the proceeds of the English loan have been wasted in England in lawsuits. President Payne, aided by the presence of a United States man-of-war, succeeded in concluding peace with the Cape Hollies tribes, and returned to Monravia.

CORRESPONDENCE.

Conference—Distribution of Elders—Baptisms, etc.

LAIE, Oahu, S. I.,
April 25, 1876.

President B. Young:

Dear Brother—Our late conference for the Islands held here, commencing on the 6th and ending on the 10th inst., was largely attended and very interesting. All the foreign elders present. We had eight long meetings. Many came from the distant islands of the group. Elder Napela came from the Island of Molokai. Our valley elders all participated in the preaching to the people. I addressed the Saints a number of times at considerable length. Many of our native elders delivered short but spirited addresses. A rich portion of the Holy Spirit blessed the entire conference. All seemed to feel well and amply paid for having come to conference. We truly had a good time of social reunion and rejoicing together, one long to be remembered. Peace and apparent satisfaction visibly dwelt in the heart of each one present. The spirit of gathering to Zion dwelt with, and was preached upon by, many of the native speakers.

The following distribution of foreign Elders was made—S. P. Richards and H. S. Woolley to go to the big Island of Hawaii; R. Stringham and Wm. H. Branch to the Islands of Maui, Lanai and Molokai; and R. G. Lambert to remain with me for the present upon the plantation. The other brethren will return here in time for two to visit and make a circuit of the Island of Kauai, and two others to make the tour of this Island, Oahu, before next October Conference.

A goodly number were baptized during the last six months, new members.

Our work on the plantation continues on quietly, smoothly, and favorably. All is peace on the place. The cane grows very fast and is looking well. We keep it well cultivated, stripped, etc., and are still plowing for more new plant. We have now over twenty acres just ready to begin planting, the newly prepared, which has all been plowed and harrowed and cross-plowed with big plows, then harrowed again, and is now being laid off with big plows, going twice in each furrow, preparatory to planting. We keep a number of single mule plows running, plowing out between the rows of cane.

Your brother in the covenant of peace,

ALMA L. SMITH.

THE RESURRECTION.—To accommodate the public and meet the great demand for President Young's discourse on the "Resurrection" it has been determined to issue an authorized edition, in pamphlet form, neatly got up, in paper covers, and sold at ten cents a copy. It is now ready, and can be obtained at the NEWS office.
