A laborer, giving the name of G. H. Leaden, entered the Clayton house yes-terday afternoon and asked for a room. As soon as he was shown to his room. As soon as he was shown to his room, he proceeded to purioin any and every portable article worth having. Some of the roomers saw him leaving and raised the alarm. The proprietor saw him, and, with the persuading influ-ences of an ugly looking gun, made Leaden halt until Officer Williams ar-rived. The latter took his prisoner to the station, where he was booked on the charge of larceny. the charge of larceny.

It is feared that Mayo, the 15-years-old son of M. S. Perry of 543 west Third South street, has been murdered in Texas. The boy ran away last Octo-Texas. The boy ran away last Octo-ber, and after drifting about the coun-try, reached Mansfield, Tex. Last Feb-ruary, Mrs. Perry received word from the young man that he was coming home, but a letter has now been re-ceived from the Texan for whom the boy was working, stating the man's belief that Mayo had disap-peared, and had probably been mur-dered by a worthless companion.

A reception will be given to Bishop D. S. Tuttle this evening, from § to 11 o'clock, at the home of George Y. Wal-ROCKY lace, where the many friends of the bishop are invited. Tomorrow morn-ing, Bishop Tuttle will deliver the bac-calaureate sermon before the graduat-ing class of Rowland hall, and on Wednesday evening, next, he will preside at the graduation exercises of the St. Mark's Training school for nurses to be held in the rooms of the Ladies' Lit-erary club. On the next day, Bishop Tuttle returns to St. Louis. BROWN, TERRY & WOODRUFF Co.

Charles F. Spaulding, the mining en-gineer, has obtained from Washing-ton full protective patents on his im-provements for the construction of coke east car line. ovens, a work that occupied several years of his life. He believes that his inventions will revolutionize the coke industry. By experiments at Sunny-side he has demonstrated that a better quality of coke can be produced and in about one-half the time required by the present process. The improvement con-sists of providing the oven with an air blass. He goes to Pittsburg next week on business connected with putting his invention into practical use.
