CARDINAL GIBBONS ENDORSES THE KNIGHTS-THE NEW JER-SEY SPLIT.

By Telegraph to the NEWS. Montana Floods

HELENA, Mont., March 1.-Private advices from all parts of the Territory to the Montana Live Stock Journal, the leading live stock paper of the Northwest, report that the chinook which commenced on Saturday continues with unabated fury and it has carried off a great part of the snow except in the mountains, and the cattle are again feeding and resting from their recent severe experience.
The gutters of this city are flowing with torrents of water and the weather, if it continues, will cause a great flood in the Missouri and Yellowstene rivers and other streams. The chinook has been chilled within the past 24 hours by a north wind in the region of Fort Benton, but the first two days carried off most of the snow in that region. People residing on the lower Missouri River had better prepare for the high water. Citizens of Miles City and Fort Keogh fear that the Yellowstone will overflow the town and military post.

A Bloody Fond. DENVER, March 1 .- For some month

past very hard feelings have existed be tween the citizens of Leoti and Coronad, two small towns in Wallace County, Kansas, over the location of the county seat. The seat of the counthe county seat. The seat of the county government is now located at the latter place and the citizens of the former are attempting to have it moved to their own. This bard feeling often leads to rows and knockdowns when the citizens of one village would visit the other, but with no fatal results until yesterday afternoon at 3 o'clock when Frank Jonness, A. N. Barney, George Watkins, Emmet Deerming, Charles Coulter, Bill Mains and a man named Johnson left Leeti for Coronad. Upon entering that town in a wagon, they noticed a suspicious movement among some of the citizens who were standing on the pavement in front of the stores. Coulter, Rains and Johnson sprang from the wagon and reached for their revolvers. No sooner had the men touched the ground than the party in front of the stores

After the Killing the bodies of the dead men were left lying in the street, no one being allowed to remove them until nearly, midnight, when they were taken to the undertaker's. The wounded nieu were taken to the hotel and are being cared for. None of the murderers have yet been arrested, and it seems no officer in the county has any desire to attempt the task. The two towns are only two miles apart and further trouble is anticipated between the citizens.
