

BOISE TOOK FIRST FROM SALT LAKE.

"Honest John" McCloskey's Ball Tossers Played Fine Snappy Game.

EDDIE QUICK WAS OUTPITCHED

By McFarland Who Had the Locals Badly Puzzled—Some Brilliant Individual Work by Home Crowd.

The Pacific National league season for 1904, opened at Walker's ball park yesterday afternoon with a game between Salt Lake and Boise. There were about 2,000 fans present, including scores of the fair sex. The weather was fine and the diamond was in pretty fair condition. There were many auto parties on the grounds, carriages and bugles of all descriptions. The bleachers were crowded and the grand stands well filled. The crowd was an enthusiastic one, and the fans were not slow in rooting for Boise.

Boise, 6; Salt Lake, 4.

The score does not exactly tell the story of the game, for the reason that errors were mainly responsible for the home crowd's two tallies. It was mostly a pitcher's contest, and this man McFarland had quick wits and a city block. He possessed a peculiar cross-fire, something similar to that used by "Pop" Lyster of the Denver team, and it kept the Glimmers guessing all the time.

The result of the game was a surprise to many Salt Lakeers. They expected the local bunch to have an easy time with the visitors from Boise. Perhaps they imagined that "Honest John" was only a bluff, and that he was coming down here with a bunch of level ones. But it was not so. He was a real pitcher, and he pitched a real game. He was not a bluff, and he was not a level one. He was a real pitcher, and he pitched a real game.

They began to do business in the first. The pitcher was not at all bad, and made the first hit, a grounder, and then he pitched a real game. He was not a bluff, and he was not a level one. He was a real pitcher, and he pitched a real game.

Adulteration goes full length in spices and flavoring extracts—you think it isn't worth while to cheat in such trifles—four-fifths of "vanilla" is tonka; cost's one or two cents for "$1.00 worth". Schilling's Best are entirely pure; at your grocer's.
