The Great Country Paper of the West.

Issued Mondays and Thursdays and Contains All the Cream of the Daily and Saturday News.

LOCAL BRIEFS.

Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Read of Modena are visitors in the city and are making their home at the Culver.

H. J. Stirling, R. Anderson and C. J. Merritt, railroad officials from Omaha, are guests at the Knutson's, on their way east.

Frank M. Leland, a prominent mining man of Mackay, Idaho, is a guest at the Knutson's. Mr. Leland is here on business, and will remain for a day or two.

H. L. Harrington, western agent for the Utah Canning factory, is a guest at the Culver. Mr. Harrington is vis-a-vis the canning industry is growing steadily and there are bright prospects for the industry throughout Utah.

Board to Meet Friday.—The board of education will hold a meeting next Saturday at noon to open bids for the construction of cement walks around the new Jefferson school building in the southern part of the city.

Disputed Territory Surveyed.—Supervisor Reynolds of the forest service has surveyed disputed territory between the north fork of Provo canyon and Deer Creek and finds the line but a short distance from the imaginary line adopted by the rangers.

G. W. Gates, identified with the lumber business in Oregon with headquarters in Portland, is registered at the Knutson's. Mr. Gates says the lumber business is improving rapidly throughout the west and that it keeps the big concerns hustling to fill the demand.

M. L. Clos, a cattle buyer for a Los Angeles firm, is in the city this week and is registered at the Culver. Mr. Clos says that business conditions throughout the country where he has traveled show marked improvement and that good times are here to stay.

Heavy Holding Imports.—The Salt Lake custom house is in receipt of a large and assorted variety of Japanese goods for local consumption, leather goods for the holidays, fruit trees imported from the Philippines and from Holland, ferns and many other important lines of goods.

Postal Official Here.—Charles P. Grandfield, first assistant postmaster general, spent a short time in the city yesterday afternoon, during which he was shown over the city and through the post office building, by Postmaster A. L. Thomas. He left for Denver on the D. & R. G. on 5:45.

Visit Local Court.—Clara Metal, delegate of the Home of Minnesota Conference of the Methodist Episcopal church and voluntary probation officer of the juvenile court for that church in St. Paul, was a visitor at the local juvenile court. Mrs. Metal is on her way home from Los Angeles.

Fair Association to Meet.—The annual meeting of the Utah State Fair association will be held at the chamber of commerce, Nov. 1, at which time the secretary's report on this year's fair will be presented to the attendance of the fair and the receipts and disbursements.

Buy for Investment.—The Tuttle Bros. company has the rights to A. E. Pomere, a well known Los Angeles investor in Salt Lake real estate, the 66 foot lot on the east side of State street, 196 feet north of Seventh South street, about $176 per front foot, or $11,220. This is said by the firm to be 20 per cent less than the general market figures for the vicinity. The purchase was made for investment.

Congregation Overcrowds Church.—The congregation attending the First Christian Science church has become so large that the auditorium can not accommodate it. So it has been decided that all members living north of Third South street will be allowed the Second church which stands forth in the Ladies' Literacy club in Third East street near South Temple. This will increase the latter's congregation by about 100 persons.

Bailey Files Protest.—J. H. Bailey has filed a protest with the city council against the condition of the street at Third West and Fifth South streets, where cement sidewalks have recently been laid. Bailey says piles of dirt have been left there and the first time rain comes the walks will be small rivers. He asks that the dirt be cleared away and the gutter be placed in good condition.

Watching Meter Jumpers.—The Utah Light & Railway company is after those parties who are using "jumpers" over their meters to steal electricity. Where a party is suspected, a second meter is put in and the reading compared at the close of the month. Where there is a discrepancy in the consumer's favor, the matter is at once investigated. The company is watching every suspected case.

Contract For Warehouses.—The contract for the construction of the warehouse of the Armour Packing company at Third West and Fourth South streets has been let to Holmes and Watkins, local contractors, for $70,000. The building will be 112 by 118 feet and be two stories high. The contract for the excavation of the basement and the cement work has been let to the Hindey Construction company, who will start work right away.

Bonnie Apprendon Gone.—State Auditor Jessie Jewell says that the application for the state of $20,000 for the payment of bonds on war animals has been submitted and will be received Nov. 1, that money is paid out in bonds will be from the taxes levied for bounty purposes. There are warrants calling for nearly $20,000 now.

The Ensign stake Relief societies will hold their regular meeting in the Twenty-third ward chapel Friday evening, Oct. 28, at 7 p. m.

The regular monthly meeting of the Liberty stake Relief society will be held in the Ninth ward chapel Friday evening, Oct. 28, at 7 p. m.

Manufacturers Meet Thursday.—The first meeting of the series to be carried on this season under the direction of the Manufacturers' association will be held Thursday evening at 8 o'clock in the chamber of commerce. J. E. Clark of the Utah Gas and Coke company will give a talk on gas. Electricity will be discussed by A. J. McMillan of the Utah Light and Railway company. William J. Silver, the veteran machinist, will talk on steam power. A cordial invitation is extended to all interested in these subjects to present.

Harry Burton and F. R. Morgan.—Who have been clerks at the Culver bank for a long time, will leave that bank for a vacation. The last Mr. Burton had had in three years. They will be succeeded by J. W. Thompson of Los Angeles, and Jack Dupont of Colorado, who are now here and will assume their new duties on the first of next month. Mr. Burton was for 12 years a clerk at the Knutson hotel and Mr. Morgan was also associated with the hotel. Both are well known in the hotel business and have many friends here and elsewhere. Upon their return it is most likely they will go into business for themselves.

Women Make Good Progress.—At Tuesday afternoon's meeting of the directors of the Orphans' Home and Day Nursery it was announced that $7,000 had been collected during the year, which may prove to be the largest sum ever given. The association has now over $20,000 of the $50,000 required to erect the home. The general committee was divided into distinct committees. These groups of three have been named thus far, the others will be appointed in a day or two: Mrs. W. Mont. Ferry, Mrs. David Keith, Mrs. E. O. Howard, Mrs. C. M. McMillan, Miss Louise Morgan, Mrs. Edna Miller, Mrs. A. F. Walker, Mrs. Marion E. Fraire, Neva Davis; Marion Peterson.

EXHIBITORS ARE THANKED.

State Fair Officials Seek Their Support For Next Exposition.

Five hundred letters were mailed last evening by Secretary H. S. Ensign to the exhibitors at the recent state fair, thanking them for their support and asking for their support next year. The letters were as follows:

"The president and directors of the Utah State Fair association take this opportunity of thanking you for your aid in making the state fair of 1909 the unequalled success which all its patrons claim it to have been. Your personal interest in its success is greatly appreciated, and your exhibit with the numerous others, did much to demonstrate Utah's wealth of resources and industries."

"A most cordial invitation is extended to you to exhibit at the fair again next season, when, it is anticipated, more of Utah's industries will be represented. Trusting that the state fair of 1909 was not without benefit to you, we are yours for a greater year."
