

REPUBLICANS PUT TICKET IN FIELD

J. D. Murdoch Heads the List With Nomination for Mayor.

With the naming of the Republican candidates for city officers by the convention held in the Salt Lake theater yesterday, all tickets of all political parties now in the field have been named, and the work of the campaign proper will now commence.

REPUBLICAN CITY TICKET.

Mayor—James D. Murdoch, Recorder—Major H. P. Myton, Auditor—J. A. Edwards, Treasurer—A. H. Peabody, Attorney—L. E. Willey.

With the naming of the Republican candidates for city officers by the convention held in the Salt Lake theater yesterday, all tickets of all political parties now in the field have been named, and the work of the campaign proper will now commence.

The Republicans named as their candidate for mayor, James D. Murdoch, who was already on two tickets as nominee for controllerman from the First ward.

Following is the platform adopted by the convention: We congratulate the Republican party upon the able, broad-minded and patriotic leadership of William Howard Taft.

The visit of the president of the United States to the city of Salt Lake is without doubt an epoch-making event in our history.

We are proud of the State of Utah, and of Salt Lake City, and have the utmost confidence in our citizenship. We denounce as infamous the exaggerations and falsehoods spread broadcast by the organs of the self-styled "American" party.

We believe in public improvements and pledge the assistance of the Republican party for every movement toward the upbuilding of Salt Lake, but do not believe in the extravagant or wasteful use of money under the guise of providing such improvements.

We are opposed to the licensing of saloons by means of bonds, and to the traffic in vice and sin inaugurated, upheld and protected by an "American" administration.

We believe in public improvements and pledge the assistance of the Republican party for every movement toward the upbuilding of Salt Lake, but do not believe in the extravagant or wasteful use of money under the guise of providing such improvements.

tion, held in the theater on Sept. 28. E. L. Willey was nominated for city attorney by Ben Rich, seconding speeches being made by Andrew Smith, Jr., and H. S. Joseph.

The convention authorized the city committee to fill all vacancies which might be made on the ticket, and adopted as the emblem of the party the eagle surmounting the beehive after which the convention adjourned.

ITALIAN WIELDS RAZOR.

Mary Pagliassotti Badly Cut by Salvatore Polidoro.

Mary Pagliassotti, an Italian maid of 19 years, was received at the emergency hospital yesterday afternoon the victim of a brutal attack in which her face and hand were slashed with a razor.

The girl received a bad cut across the forehead and hand but before Polidoro was able to carry out his murderous intent her screams were answered by the hurrying steps of Coletti and others.

After the girl's wounds had been dressed by Dr. F. B. Steele, she was removed to her home by Coletti.
