APOSTLE WILFORD WOODRUPF Felt as when he was first baptized into this Church—that whatever the Spirit of the Lord might give him to speak to the prople, regard-less of the feelings and views of the outside world, that he had always soken, and hoped to continue to do. He wished to say to the Latter-day Saints that with us it was the king-dom of God or nothing. Outside of the kingdom of God there is no ex-altation. The God of heaven has set His hand to establish his king-dom. All the Prophets of by gone set His hand to establish his king-dom. All the Prophesis of by gone days have prophesisd of these days, and of the setting up of the king-dom of God. He had watched and marked the progress of this work for near half a century. The God of Heaven called Joseph Smith to lay the foundation of this great lat. ter-day work, and God stood by him to the day of his death. We need not expect to pass through this work, without being persecuted, for all men in every dispensation who held the Priesthood had to contend with it more or less. If God was not the author of this bat-ter-day dispensation we should not would love its own. He could re-tready dispensation we should not meet with persecution. The world would love its own. But I say, God have mercy on the outside world, for they are in the hands of God as much as we are, and He will have with them a fearful reckoning. If the world persecute us, we need not fear and tremble, but put our trust in the Almighty. There is no prin-ciple or commandment that God has revealed for us to observe that we can ufford to give up. Our business is to keep the commandments of God regardless of the consequences.

is to keep the commandments of God regardless of the consequences. He then called on jevery man and woman in Israel to enter into their closests and pour out their souls and petitions before God, and the thou-sands of fervent, honest prayers going up before the Lord will be sure to bring down blessings upon the heads of the Saints and sanc-tify to our God all that we may be called upon to pass through. The God of heaven is going to erait Zion and make His people great in the earth. The Prophet Joseph had said the time would come when the princi-ples of the Constitution would be forsaken and that instrument would be rent asunder, and this people would then step forward and rescue it from entire destruction. The gov-ernment of this nation are fast pre-paring themselves for the sever-paring themselves for the sever-chastening hand of the Almighty. paring themselves for the severe chastening hand of the Almighty, for He holds them responsible, they have get to foot the bill for all that they do.
