L. D. S. U. TEAM WINS FROM GRANITE BOYS

Basketball Five Takes Farmers Into Camp by the Overwhelming Score of 54 to 8.

Though the score was one-sided, the game played Tuesday afternoon in the L. D. S. U. gym betwen the Granite high school basketball team and the L. D. S. U. five was interesting and greatly enjoyed by a large crowd of rooters for both teams. The game gave the fans a chance to "get a line on" the L. D. S. U. team and those who saw the boys work were not disappointed. The varsity swamped Granite, winning by a score of 54 to 8.

The Granite boys started off like winners, throwing four baskets and playing a good game. The varsity, however, played a strong steady game and kept on piling up score after score, showing remarkable speed when necessary and the holding of the enemy down at will. Granite made several changes in the second half but it was the same story. They were outclassed and outplayed. Coach Taylor was highly pleased with the showing of the winning team as it was the first contest of the season. The boys are going after the championship and the other teams will have to travel pretty fast to head them off. The line-up of the game was as follows:

Granite		L. D. S. U.
Miller, Leggroan, Rynearson	L. F.	Lund
Thorum	R. F.	Kessler
Hampton	C.	Briggs
Mackay	R. G.	Summerhays
Heintz	L. G.	Lindsay

Referee—Metcalf; timers, Sharp and Pixton. Twenty-minute halves.

SIGNAL CORPS TEAM BEATS B COMPANY

At the national guard armory Tuesday evening the Signal Corps team of the guard gave B company five of Fort Douglas a correct idea of the game of basketball. The guard boys swamped the regulars and gave them a drubbing to the tune of 38 to 12. Both teams played fast ball but the guard had more speed and accuracy. The winning team showed great improvement in all departments of the game. The teams lined up as follows:

Signal Corps.		Company B.
Hannible	R. F.	Cereghino
Beck	L. F.	Howard
Hume	C.	Tarrell
Warhurst	R. G.	Anderson
Richardson	L. G.	Shiloh

Referee—Arthur Smith.

COACH DAD CONVILL PICKS BASKETBALLERS

Basketball is all the rage at the high school these days and the boys and girls are hard at work developing good teams. Coach Convill has selected and posted 16 names to comprise the basketball squad, and it will be a case of hard practise every afternoon. The girls are also taking a lively interest in the game and each week they will have Monday, Wednesday and Friday to practise in the gym until 4 o'clock when the boys will have the building.

Those chosen by Coach Convill are the following: Frank Hurlburt, forward, (captain); Heber Pete Romney, forward (manager); Roy McIntyre, center; Thomas Fitzpatrick, guard; LeRoy Warthman, forward; Rydalch, center; Curtis Hawley, forward; Lawrence Godbe, guard; Wilson, forward; Arthur Doran, forward; Wetzel Francis, guard; Wallace, center; Kimball, center; Wilkensen, guard; Atkins, center, and Price, guard.

It is expected that by tomorroow morning final arrangements will be made for the match roller skating race between Banty Green of Logan and Willie Schatz of Salt Lake. The race will be for the Utah championship, now held by Schatz, and the distance will be five miles. The race will be run at the Auditorium on Richards street during one of the evening sessions. Since the opening of the season the management has been requested by scores of local roller fans to promote a race between Green and Schatz.

COMPANY C LOSES SHOOT BY DEFAULT

The rifle shooters of the national guard and those of company C were matched to shoot Tuesday evening but the C company rifle experts failed, for some unknown reason, to show up, and the match went to the guard boys by default. Not to be disappointed and to keep in practise, the first and second teams had a match shoot. The first team won by a score of 401 to 365, and carried off a prize valued at $10. The scores:

BOYS' RELAY RACE RUN THIS EVENING

The inter-association relay race of 25 miles, between boys representing the Y. M. C. A. of New York, Cleveland, Cincinnati, Fresno and Salt Lake, is scheduled for this evening. There will be 100 boys at the local association and each is to run a quarter of a mile. After the race the time of the runners will be figured up and the team making the best time is to receive a banner and there will also be individual prizes for the fastest runners. The contest will be open to the public and a large crowd is expected to be on hand this evening to see the boys sprint around the track.

BELMONT'S HORSES IN WINTER TRAINING

New York, Dec. 15.—A string of 16 race horses owned by August Belmont will leave early next week for Garnet, S. C., where they will undergo winter training. The string is headed by Prisicillian, who has never met defeat in this country, though he failed to win in England.

The Belmont horses will begin their next season's racing at the earliest opportunity, many of them being entered for the meeting of the Maryland Jockey club which will open the season in the east.

ASTOR'S YACHT IS TIED UP.

New York, Dec. 15.—Col. John Jacob Astor's steam yacht Nourmahal tied up at shipyard in Brooklyn today. The yacht went into her winter quarters almost as spick and span as when she left here for West Indian waters, where she encountered the November hurricane. Despite the anxiety caused because she was not reported for more than a fortnight, she emerged from the storm unscathed.

"I have seen reports that the Nourmahal could not stand a good blow," said her captain today. "Those who were alarmed as to her seaworthiness should have seen her in some of the West Indian squalls which we faced. While the world was searching for us, we were as snug as a bug in a rug."

JEFFRIES HANDS HOT SHOT TO McCAREY

Los Angeles, Dec. 14.—Jim Jeffries has spoken and the great white champion's voice can be likened unto the roar of the jungle lion. In a telegram sent to his Los Angeles business partner, Jack Kipper, he hands out a blistering indictment against Promoter T. J. McCarey. He calls the local fight magnate hard names, and when Jim resorts to this stand it is safe to say that the big fellow is thoroughly aroused.

The Jeffries telegram which was received here at noon yesterday reads as follows:

"Rochester, N. Y., Dec. 13.—Jack Kipper, Los Angeles.—I understand that McCarey says there is something crooked about the match. He is simply sore because Rickard outbid him. I never knew anybody who could holler longer and louder than a cheap faker when he has lost. Show message to the newspapers.

"JAMES J. JEFFRIES."

This wire is taken to mean that Jeffries is angered at the screened statement made by McCarey upon his arrival home last Friday morning. McCarey, upon this occasion, gave it as his belief that he had been "counted out" by the rival promoters—said, in so many words, that no matter how big he might have made his Los Angeles bid, the opposition would have found a way to beat him out.

The Rochester telegram was read to McCarey over the telephone. A moment of silence followed before he answered, in a firm voice, "I shall refuse to enter into any controversy in this matter. I lost the fight, and that settles it. So far as I am concerned, my future interest in the Jeffries-Johnson battle will be only that of a spectator.

"Jeffries will hurt only himself and his own interests by calling me names. It is unlike Jim to do this sort of thing, and I am sorry that he has made this mistake, for mistake it is. This telegram will act in boomerang fashion.

"The whole sporting world knew in advance how scant my chances were of securing the fight. The New York critics were saying two days before the bids were opened that my trip from California to that city was but a waste of time and money. I merely went through with it to show that I was sincere and game. Every move I made spoke for itself. Nothing that I could say now would help the prospects of the big battle."

BOB ARMSTRONG LIKES JEFFRIES

New York, Dec. 14.—Big Bob Armstrong, who always trained with Jeff and who knows him perhaps better than any of the sparring horses, has arrived from the coast. Bob believes that Jeff will surprise a lot of people. "I can't understand where folks get the idea that Johnson is going to run away with the Jeffries match," he said. "Jeff has always made good. He's a great fighter, and if it comes to a question of who's been leading a gay life I am inclined to think that Johnson has been the offender against good condition. There is no reason why Jeff shouldn't still be as good as ever. He was always so far above the rest that it isn't likely that he has fought his last good fight, particularly as he retired when great.

"Jeff looks soft now, of course. But you wait until he gets out there in the mountains and gets to climbing. Those old muscles of his will harden up again. Johnson will go through a new experience in this fight. It will be the first time that he will be clinching and tugging with a man bigger than himself. He will stall and tincan, but if Jeff hits him there is going to be ructions. Jeff doesn't like to fight. He's afraid. Tommy Ryan. Neither man relished going into the ring, but when either of them got in there, then there was trouble.

"There never was a gamer man than Jeff, and he will fight like a demon when he meets Johnson. He may be mad, but until he collapses Mr. Johnson is going to have all the fight that he can attend to.

"I seconded Johnson against poor little Ketchel. It was sad to see the game little fellow take it. He is the bravest man in fighting shoes. They made a terrible mistake when they told him to box with Johnson. They should have sent him in with his old-time style. He might have whipped Johnson if they had.

"It was bad generalship to think that a naturally rough-and-ready fellow like little Steve could outbox a master like Johnson. Ketchel's best chance is a fast rough fight. Everybody who saw him tear through clever Jack O'Brien knows how he should have fought Johnson. Fighting like that, he has a chance to whip Johnson. Langford or any man in the world. He isn't through yet by a long shot."

JOHNSON OBJECTS TO "HOODOO" CLAUSE

New York, Dec. 14.—When the final business articles of agreement, signed by Jeffries, Johnson, their representatives and promoters alike, were presented to Jack Johnson for his perusal, the big black discovered two clauses in them that made him turn almost white. In that portion of the agreement covering the distribution and handling of the money by Stakeholder Big Tim Sullivan, there appeared the following clause:

"In the event of the death of Jack Johnson before July 4, 1910, these agreements and contracts are null and void, and whatever money Johnson has deposited shall be turned over to George Little." Another clause read: "In the event of the death of George Little before the fourth day of July, 1910, and providing Jack Johnson fulfills his part of this agreement and boxes James J. Jeffries, all moneys due George Little from Johnson's winnings and picture returns shall be turned over to Little's heirs."

Johnson came up out of his chair like a typhoon when he read the passages. He wouldn't listen to any argument advanced for their remaining in the final articles. Johnson declared that he had no notion of dying before Independence day, and he considered the objectionable clauses as the worst kind of a "hoodoo." Finally a pen was scratched through both clauses.

Berger, Gleason, Rickard and Little joined in the merrymaking over Johnson's apparent discomfiture, but Johnson didn't see the joke of the thing, and he was so worked up over it that he was ready to call everything off. His "golden smile" didn't reappear for a long time after the pen had eliminated the "hoodoo."

Jack Gleason said in Chicago, on his way west, that the price of seats for the fight had been practically determined. It will cost $100 for the best ringside seats, and the gallery gods will have to pungle up $5.

Gleason is reported as saying that Johnson demanded a negro and a white man to act as judges of the fight in conjunction with the referee in case the fight went the full 45 rounds. George Little denied it last night, and said that no such proposition was ever hinted at. Johnson, he declared, was well satisfied to abide by one man's decision if the fight should by any chance go the full distance. There is nothing to prevent the referee of this contest ordering a continuation, as the articles say that the fight is to be one of 45 or more rounds in duration.

HEAGREN LANDS WRESTILNG CONTEST

Harry Heagren, who gave Salt Lake wrestling fans some real contests, has matched Stanley Karp and Gus Anderson for a contest at Ogden Jan. 6, during the convention of the National Woolgrowers' association. Anderson is considered one of the best welterweight mat men in the country and a contest between him and Karp is sure to be interesting.

Heagren made efforts to match Mike Yokel and Karp but the latter did not care to wrestle under the terms dictated by the Y. M. C. A. and the affair was called off. Yokel was then matched to meet O'Connell of Portland and now Karp has secured a match with Anderson. A special train will be run from Salt Lake to Ogden on the evening of the match.

PAPKE TO MEET WINNER OF BOUT

Kewanee, Ill., Dec. 15.—Ed Papke yesterday signed articles for a 20-round bout between his brother, Billy, and the winner of the Wille-Harry Lewis bout, to take palce in Paris in February. Billy Papke left yesterday for Hot Springs, Ark., where he will have his arm treated, going abroad the middle of next month. Jack Pollock of Kewanee will accompany Papke as trainer.

BAT NELSON TELLS OF EARLY STRUGGLES

Buffalo, Dec. 14.—Battling Nelson, world's lightweight champion, makes a huge joke out of the recent statement that he was planning to retire from the ring in the near future. The Durable Dane admits that he is so fixed financially that he need never crawl under the ropes again, but in the same breath he tells of the easy money which is awaiting him on the coast as soon as he finishes his present lucrative theatrical contract.

"My theatrical time with the Sam T. Jack show embraces 19 more of the best towns in America," says Nelson. "I have a salary big enough to satisfy the average man, besides a percentage of the profits of the show.

"When that contract is over, look at the soft marks that are anxious to fight me. In order to gain the world's title, I had to defeat the greatest bunch of lightweights that ever lived and flourished at one time. I had to whip Art Sims, Jack O'Nell, Spider Welch, Martin Canole, Eddie Hanlon, Young Corbett, Jimmy Britt, Herrera, Joe Gans and Fighting Dick Hyland. I knocked out every man of the lot excepting Herrera, and would have finished him in a few more rounds.

"I will stick to this game for at least three years more. Then it is plenty of time to talk of retiring, for by that time all the present bunch of challengers will be in my knockout list, and I will have to retire simply for want of men to fight in big battles. At present I can add another fortune to the one I already possess by careful attention to business. When you see me quit the game you'll know it is because there isn't another dollar in it for the lightweight champion."

PREPARING FOR SEASON'S BATTLES

Football Coaches and Managers of Conference Schools Will Meet in Chicago Next Week.

Chicago, Dec. 15.—Football coaches and managers of the conference schools will meet here a week from tomorrow to settle definitely the intercollegiate turmoil over next season's battles. The question of Michigan games and problems bearing on the continuance of friendly relations in the "Big Eight" will be up for decision.

The athletic authorities received their notification last night.

Coach Stagg's schedule problem took another tack yesterday when he received a plea from Carlisle for a battle. The Indians want to appear at Marshall Field on one of the big dates, and Coach Stagg says he will consider the request in view of the fact that they have adopted eligibility rules since they beat the Chicagoans two years ago.

Coach Stagg's best offers outside the conference are now Carlisle and the Navy.

AMERICAN GAME OR RUGBY STYLE?

Pittsburg, Dec. 15.—At a meeting of the intercollegiate association of western Pennsylvania and West Virginia, held here yesterday, the first final collegiate action looking toward the abolition of American football and the adoption of Rugby, unless the rules of the American game are radically changed, was taken. In the association are Washington and Jefferson, University of West Virginia, Geneva, Grove City and Allegheny colleges.

CONEY ISLAND CLUB CLOSE EIGHTEEN STAKES

New York, Dec. 14.—Tidings of great joy will come to the horsemen of America with the advent of the new year. On Jan. 2 the Coney Island Jockey club will close 18 stakes to be run for during its June meeting. The Brooklyn Jockey club will have 13 stakes to close on the same date, but its full list of stakes for the spring meeting will equal the number of the Sheepshead Bay track. In October five of the events which will be decided closed and received a big entry list. These 36 stakes will have a guaranteed value of $103,500—a fine racing plum for horsemen to begin the next racing season with.

That the racing associations are well pleased with the patronage of last season these lists attest. Both jockey clubs have increased their offerings and added to the value of many of their events. The Brooklyn Jockey club list shows four more stakes than last year.

As an instance of the belief of the turf authorities that the future of racing has a bright outlook the Brooklyn and Suburban handicaps have jumped in value $1,000 each. Last year the Suburban was worth $5,000, guaranteed, and the Brooklyn was worth the same. Next year each has a value of $6,000. While these two events are best known to the racegoing public, the greatest increase in values is shown in the Great Trial and the Double Event, to be run over the sheepshead Bay course. Last season Dalmatian, the big 2-year-old colt, owned by Sam Hildreth, won both stakes. His net winnings for the Great Trial amounted to $1,925, and his portion of the Double Event was $1,710. Next year the Great Trial will be worth $10,000 and the Double Event $8,000.

The Brooklyn Jockey club has not been behind its neighbor in sharing its prosperity with the horsemen, and has increased the Great American stakes from $2,500, the value of last summer, to $5,500, and adopted a similar policy in respect to the Tremont stakes.

KOREA MAY HAVE ANOTHER ITO

Tokio, Dec. 14.—Korean may again have a resident general whose name is Ito. The present resident general, Viscount Sene, is in extremely poor health, and it is probable he will shortly return to Japan.

According to a well-founded report, his resignation is not improbable. Already his successor is being talked of in the person of Viscount Miyoji Ito, who has for years been the confidential secretary and adviser of the late Prince Ito. Viscount Ito is himself a privy councillor and has the name of being one of the most astute politicians of the younger statesmen of Japan.

JAPANESE IN PHILIPPINES.

Tokio, Dec. 14.—There are now, according to a report in the now, according to a report in the Japanese foreign office, 732 Japanese laborers in the Philippine Islands. Some of these are working in sawmills and in railways, but they are mostly carpenters. The report of Director Saito of the section of emigration of Japanese in the foreign office, discourages the emigration of Japanese to the Philippines. He says that there is not much room at present for more foreign labor, and as there are already about 100,000 Chinese laborers in the islands, the opportunity for the employment of Japanese is not good.

THINKING 17 YEARS

For 17 years many people have been thinking of turning their claims to us for collection. They have been reading continuously of the Thousands of Dollars we have collected for their acquaintances and friends, but they have wondered and thought and pondered with the question in their minds as to whether we could collect some money for them. In the meantime the people who have been owing them have forgotten all about the obligation, and some have died, leaving their bills unpaid.

Many people continue to think, instead of getting busy and turning in their claims.

When a claim is once recorded with this Association it stays on our records forever. We purchased a new index the other day, which cost $105.00 and will properly index 500,000 claims. This is the third large index we have purchased for the purpose of keeping the records pertaining to claims placed with us for collection.

It is time you turned in those claims. You can not devote a part of today to better advantage. Get them ready. We will collect over $250,000 during the year 1910. You can have some of this money if you turn in your claims.
