THE COUNTY FAIR DRAWS CROWDS.

The Awarding Committee Begins Its Labors—Cattle Owners Made Happy Yesterday—Races.

TWO OF THE USUAL HOLD-UPS.

Ed Tout Relieved of Watch and Some Cash—A Land Case Decided.

Ogden, Sept. 17.—Last evening Ed Tout, while returning home after singing at the big concert, was held up just as he was entering his gate at the corner of Lincoln avenue and Twenty-seventh street. The holdup occurred about 10:45 and was the work of two armed men, one of whom went through Mr. Tout's pockets, while the other held him steady with a revolver. They secured $15.75 in cash, an open-faced 17-jeweled gold watch, Hamilton movement, and also a gold chain. Fortunately, however, the holdups overlooked a pocket in which was secreted several hundred dollars, which Mr. Tout had secured to take him to London to join his family, for which point he left today. As soon as released the gentleman rushed into the house and securing a six-shooter, made after the holdups but without avail. Walter Oakey, who lives but a short distance from the Tout residence, was held up, presumably by the same men, a short time after, and relieved of $7.50.

A DECISION RENDERED.

Judge Rolapp yesterday rendered his decision in the case of D. A. Smythe against E. A. Reed, and the decision was adverse to the interests represented by Smythe. The action involved the title to a valuable strip of land at the corner of Twenty-fifth street and Lincoln avenue. The effect of the decision was no cause of action for the plaintiff. It will probably be appealed.

PROVO.

MRS. LOUISA NEWELL DEAD.

An Early Settler Passed Away—Public Officials in Conflict—Bribe and Personal Special Correspondence.

Provo, Sept. 17.—Mrs. Louisa Newell, widow of the late Elliot A. Newell, died Tuesday night at the home of her daughter, Mrs. G. O. Howe of the Fourth ward from general debility. The deceased was born in Illinois, Nov. 11, 1829, and with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Horace and Harriet Roberts, moved to Nauvoo, where they passed through the persecutions endured by their co-religionists at that place.

She emigrated to Utah in 1852 with her husband and one child, now Mrs. Hays. The family settled in Provo, which has since then been their home. Mrs. Newell was a very industrious and energetic woman and did her full part in the work that fell to pioneer women. She was a faithful Latter-day Saint and enjoyed the respect of a large circle of friends. Three daughters and three sons and numerous grand children are left to mourn her loss.

FOR OBSTRUCTING THE STREET.

A complaint has been sworn to in Justice Golden's court by Street Supervisor Hanson, charging Assistant County Attorney Anderson with obstructing the street. The difficulty grows out of a dispute as to the ownership of land on Fifth South street near Sixth East street, which the city council has ordered open. Mr. Anderson claims the land and so does the city, and Mr. Anderson has caused the fence which the street supervisor moved to be put up again. He will have a hearing today. The case will probably be certified to the district court on account of the question of title to land being involved.

The Telephone Exchange Began Operations Yesterday.

M. S. Goodmanson held an auction at his place of business yesterday. He is disposing of part of his stock preparatory to moving into another building on the west side of Main street.

The tax notices were received yesterday and from the wall that was heard it would seem that a number of the people would like to move out of town. It costs money to build new school houses; but the money is well spent in doing so.

T. L. Mendenhall and wife returned from Alberta, Canada, this week, where they have been on a visit to their ranch this week. Mr. Mendenhall and his sons have purchased a 140-acre tract of land. He reports everything looking prosperous in that section.

If you ever took DeWitt's Little Early Risers for biliousness or constipation you know what a purgative pleasure is. These famous little pills cleanse the liver and aid the system of all bile without producing unpleasant effects. They do not gripe, sicken or weaken, but give tone and strength to the tissues and organs involved. W. H. Howell, of Houston, Tex., says, "No better pill can be used than Little Early Risers for constipation, sick headache, etc." Sold by all druggists.

The Genuine vs. Counterfeit.

The genuine is always better than a counterfeit, but the truth of this statement is never more forcibly realized than when you compare the genuine DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve with the many counterfeits and worthless substitutes that are on the market. W. S. Ledbetter, of Shreveport, La., says: "After using numerous other remedies without benefit, one box of DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve cured me." For all ailments of the eye, ear, nose and throat, no remedy is equal to DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve. Sold by all druggists.

PRICE.

ITALIAN ATTEMPTS SUICIDE.

Thought to be Mixed Up With the Mafia—Was Held for Murder.

Special Correspondence.

Price, Sept. 16.—Early this morning a prisoner who gave his name as Frank Bell, confined in the county jail, made a desperate attempt to commit suicide by projecting from the wall in the cell where he was confined. Deputy Sheriff World appeared in time to save the fellow's life, and Dr. Fisk put several stitches in his arm.

The prisoner was brought here from Sunnyside on a charge of murder. It seems he got into some kind of an altercation with another Italian and, without provocation, made a vicious attack with a knife, thrusting it into his victim's stomach. The men were strangers, the prisoner having arrived here some time ago from New York. The Mafia is suspected of being connected with the crime.

Care was observed to prevent the prisoner from obtaining from the outside any assistance which might enable him to escape or commit suicide, and now these precautions will be doubled.

Deceased was in his thirtieth year, and was married on the 10th of 12th of October, and a very estimable young woman of the place.

Funeral services were held over the remains at the meetinghouse, where the ward choir discoursed appropriate and touching music, and where Elders S. K. McMurdie, Chas. T. Hirst, J. P. Price, Gideon E. Olsen and John J. James, made eulogistic and consoling remarks.

A large cortege followed the remains to the grave, where dedicatory prayer was pronounced by Elder Peter O. Hansen.

The deceased was an exemplary young man, and was the oldest son of a large family, and helped his widowed mother faithfully to support and rear the younger children. He had nearly finished a nice little cottage for the home of himself and bride, but thus we again see how quickly, sometimes, hopes vanish.
