AMERICAN.

The Blaine letter.

NEW YORK, 26.—The Times says of Blaine's letter: It seems to us that the ground upon which Blaine now puts the American condition is impregnable, and that any action of a European power seeking to substitute their political guarantee for ours, may fairly be considered unfriendly. The case would be somewhat analogous to our furnishing a guarantee of neutrality to Egypt in case it had been asked, and we had had the physical force to establish it for the Suez Canal. The instincts and the good sense of our country have always restrained it from intruding in any way into the agreements of European powers for the neutrality of business highways in the Old World, where their interests are supreme, while ours is comparatively slight. It would be but reciprocal action for European powers in like manner to entrust to the United States the preservation of neutrality on an isthmus so near its own domains. All this leaves aside the antiquated notion of the slumoratory that this country could not permit a European power to guard a new foothold in this hemisphere on the ground that it is our manifest destiny to some day annex it all to ourselves.

Business.

Only two towns in the country show a decrease of business. The transactions this week over the corresponding week last year are Baltimore, of three and nine-tenths per per cent., and Memphis, of seven and eight tenths. The gains are as follows:

New York, 6.8; Boston, 34.8; Chicago, 34.7; Philadelphia, 21.3; Cincinnati, 41.6; St. Louis, 16.3; San Francisco, 28.2; New Orleans, 4.7; Pittsburg, 33.8; Louisville, 47.1; Milwaukee, 11.3; Providence, 16.1; Kansas City, 43.3; Cleveland, 26.5; Indianapolis, 7.1; New Haven, 1.9; Worcester, 20.0; Syracuse, 54.3; Lowell, 13.4.

Commenting on the figures the Public says: We have reached the period at which the enormous transactions began last year. As soon as the elections in October had terminated the uncertain result of the Presidential contest, business and speculation both began to increase with rapidity from this time until the end of the year. Comparison will be made with the returns of unprecedented magnitude The largest crops ever known were in motion one year ago. Now an important decrease in the yield is apparent, but there is compensation for the decline in quantities moved on the leading products. First in the material advance in prices of those products, and second in the greater general prosperity of the country, which several successive years of bountiful crops have helped to produce and which cannot be extinguished by a single season of disaster, hence the exchanges of October 1881, still continue to exceed those of the corresponding weeks last year, and at many points quite largely. The increase at Boston, Cincinnati, Louisville, Pittsburg, Kansas City and Syracuse, is the more significant, because the volume of speculative business at those cities, is comparatively smaller than at Chicago, San Francisco or New York. In truth it is an astonishing increase.

Insane.

Nicholas Tenbosch, a corn speculator of Liverpool and San Francisco, who has been missing a couple of weeks, has been found in the insane asylum on Ward's Island, where he had been placed by the authorities.

The Garfield Fund.

The amount of the Mrs. Garfield fund to date is $361,791. Paid by the Trust Company for $311,000 of United States four per cent. registered bonds, $361,770, leaving a balance of cash in the hands of the Trust Company of $21,000.

Danger.

The danger from contact with uninsulated electric wires, is beginning to excite fear on the part of insurance companies and the police.

Charity.

Stocks.

Stocks are advancing on order of Vanderbilt's houses to buy.

Mark Twain.

The Tribune reviews Mark Twain's new book "The Prince and the Pauper," to be published in December, by subscription. It says: The romance asks us to believe that by a series of accidents the son of Henry VIII., and a stout boy, whom he miraculously resembles, changes places. The young Prince, who afterwards becomes Edward VII., is thrust out of the palace gate and, falling into the pauper's family, is accepted as their own, while the pauper begins life as the King's son, amidst obsequious compliances of the courtiers, among whom his freakish exchange of clothes with the prince has left him. The fascination of the narrative and strength of the implied moral are felt at once and increase together to the end in a degree which will surprise those who have found nothing but drollery in Mark Twain's books, and have not perceived the artistic sense and strain of deep earnestness underlying his humor. The romance is imagined with poetic delicacy. It has scenes and episodes touched in with the tenderest, sweetest feeling. It is full of action and the interest holds to the end, and on its artistic side there is nothing more remarkable than the conscientious realism.

Whiskey, Revolvers and Death.

ATLANTA, 26.—After the performance of Coup's circus at Carterville, a difficulty occurred between the circus men and deputy marshals and others. A negro was shot dead, and others on both sides badly beaten and bruised. Two circus men were shot. Whiskey was at the bottom of the trouble. A lion and bear escaped from the cages during the fight. The bear was killed and the lion is still at large. There is considerable excitement.

The Centennial.

RICHMOND, 26.—Twenty thousand strangers united with the entire resident population in the observance of the Richmond Yorktown Centennial Celebration. The procession of military and civic organizations and industries of the city occupied two hours passing a given point. At the close of the parade the British flag was run up over the State capitol and saluted. A pyrotechnical display finished the festivities.

Baltimore, 26.—The German guests were banquetted to-night by the citizens.

Convention.

ST. LOUIS, 26.—The Mississippi River Valley Improvement Convention is in session here. Five thousand delegates are present. It is a powerful and representative body.

Rising River.

BURLINGTON, Iowa, 26.—The river is still rising and is two inches above the high water mark of 1880. Heavy losses of crops are reported.

Explosion.

Two men were killed and three wounded by the boiler exploding in Finneo & Daniel's spoke and hub factory, at Dayton, Ohio, yesterday.

Cold.

MOUNT WASHINGTON, 26.—There is light snow, and the wind 90 miles an hour. It is three degrees below zero. Thermometer has fallen 40 degrees since yesterday.

Rain.

SAN FRANCISCO, 26.—Yesterday it was again raining in the southern counties. To-day the storm extended over the central and northern portions of the State.

Missing.

BOSTON, 26.—Twenty valuable oil paintings, shipped several days ago by the managers of the Mechanics' Fair to the Pennsylvania Art Club, Philadelphia, are missing with the railroad car with which they were shipped.

FOREIGN.

Foxhall.

NEWMARKET, 26.—A tremendous outburst of enthusiasm greeted the hoisting of No. 4 as winner. Very seldom has such a shout been heard at Newmarket. Wm. Day, trainer of Keene's horse, was perhaps the happiest man on earth. It is 22 years since Day's charges, Dullcella and Weatherbound, won the Czarowitch and Cambridgeshire. He lead Foxhall into paddock for the jockey to be weighed, and was compelled to repeatedly bow acknowledgements for himself and horse. Watts, the young jockey, also came in for an immense greeting; he was congratulated for the manner in which he had achieved the victory. Archer himself, who by the way has not ridden a winner for the last two days, greatly to the disgust of himself and his army of followers who have the constitutional habit of backing Archer's mounts, could not have timed the finish better. He made the supreme effort just at the proper moment, having made a wonderful calculation of Foxhall's capabilities, for Lucy Glitters, carrying 35 pounds less weight, and Triskar, carrying 19 pounds less, challenged him with enormous advantages in regard to weight, but Foxhall's immense stamina, added another to the long list of American successes. The victory is altogether unprecedented in the history of racing, as such great horses as Sterling, Blue Gown and others, when attempting a similar feat failed. Ben d'Or greatly disappointed his admirers; starting as a hot first favorite, he had to concede Foxhall eight pounds weight to day, while in the city and suburban, with a concession of 36 pounds, he beat him by a length and a half. With to-day's defeat Ben d'Or ends his racing career, as he will be immediately sent to the stud. Mistake was warmly backed, but came in with the ruck. There was some difficulty about his jockey. Lorillard had second call on Barrett, but the boy, for some reason, wished to ride Lord Falmouth's Muriel and only when threatened to be brought before the Jockey club, gave way and rode Mistake in the race. Keene is reported to have won £25,000.

Just before the race, Cathyate offered to match Foxhall against Ben d'Or, at weight for age, for £1,000 or £2,000 aside, over the last mile and a half of the Beacon course to take place on Friday. The Duke of Westminster's friends, however, refused the challenge.

London, 26.—Foxhall's triumph is received with favor.

The Sportsman says: Foxhall's performance is unprecedented. He is certainly the best three year old colt of the season.

The Standard says: We heartily congratulate the Americans upon having at last seen so rare return for the vast sums they have spent in purchasing our thoroughbred stock.

Secession.

LONDON, 26.—Last night at Liverpool, Chamberlain, a radical member of Parliament for Birmingham, devoted considerable time to the exposition of the recent conduct of Irish affairs by the government. He said that if the League leaders did not countenance they permitted acts of outrage which no civilized government could be expected to endure. The common sense of the country and the political opinion of the people and America, as shown universally in the foreign press, all confirm me when I say that the objects of the Land League have been developed and have altogether changed their character since the land act was passed. The original objects were even praiseworthy. To have stifled the agitation at one time would have brought ruin to thousands and tens of thousands of decent people now protected by the land act. He concluded by saying that unless the Government and country accept the idea of secession of Ireland from the Union (cries of never) and severance of the two countries, (cries of never) I think the time has come when the Government is bound to show its authority. (Loud cheers.) The future is still uncertain, but I think it is not without hope, that our contest is not free from trust with Irish people.

Liberals.

A Dublin dispatch says: Of twenty-three members of the corporation who voted against the motion to confer the freedom of the city upon Parnell and Dillon, nineteen were liberals, which shows how strong was the feeling against the proposal.

A Plot.

A correspondent of the Press Association in Dublin, says: The chief of the detectives confirmed the report that they discovered a plot to assassinate Forster, and added, he knows the names of two men that were told off to commit the crime. The chief declared there was any plot against Gladstone or Sir William Harcourt.

Criticism.

The Times discussing Secretary Blaine's letter to Minister Lowell with reference to the Panama canal and the Monroe doctrine, says: The weighty nature of the interests of America in the use of any interoceanic canal through the Isthmus of Panama will be readily admitted, but Blaine pushes the point too far when he would have the world take it for granted that no Government except his own and that of Columbia has any claim to be consulted in regard to the neutrality of the work. The proposition is far from self evident, and is unfortunately not supported in the letter by argument which will make it acceptable to the European Powers and last of all to England.

Defeated Horses.

The Sporting Life says of the horses Keene's Foxhall defeated for Yorkshire and Cambridgeshire, that they were far superior to those defeated by Roseburg in 1876, the only previous occasion on which the same horse, the same year, secured both stakes.

Anarchy.

PANAMA, 26.—Lima dates to the 3rd say accounts of atrocious murders and assassinations are daily conveyed to Chilean headquarters. The Chilian patrol occasionally captures the malefactors, and after a court martial, the murderers are shot and the thieves whipped on the church steps. The Peruvians say, however, that it is because the people are Peruvians, not criminals, that they are punished. The band of Tenor's mountaineers were found recently near Lima. They resisted capture by the soldiers, but were finally taken, and the brick kiln, which had served as a bulwark against the soldiers, remains as a monument over their last resting place. The Peruvians say the slain men were laborers in the brick kiln, and thought the Chilian soldiers were mountaineer men, hence the resistance. The practical abolition of the provisional government and seizure of the treasure by Gen. Lynch, leaves in the Chilian hands entirely the government of the territory now occupied by them. Envoys from the extinct, but still hopeful, government of Calderon, have been sent to Admiral Montero, in Caramacs, and Gen. Cacers, in Chisla, offering them important positions in the new government to be formed out of the Chilian lines, but it is altogether unlikely these officers will abandon the Pierola, at present the most powerful in Peru.

Challenge.

TORONTO, 26.—Harlan telegraphed Trickett he will row him a three-mile race, provided it be rowed over the same course as his former race with Ross, and two weeks later.

Gambetta's Banquet.

HAVRE, 26.—A banquet was given to Gambetta here last night. In the course of a speech he said he had gone to Germany to study the means by which Bremen, Hamburg, Stettein and Lubreck had attained their present greatness.

Correspondence.

Cache Valley.

WELLSVILLE, Cache Co., Utah, October 24th, 1881.

Editor Deseret News:

Cache County is in a most prosperous condition, new houses are quite plentiful in every town, and farmers are almost universally driving new wagons. Business is brisk with the merchants, while all branches of labor find ready employment. And yet the supply is not sufficient for the demand. Good crops have blessed the industrious husbandman, while plenty smiles throughout the land, and peace and brotherly love prevail. The Saints of this county have been liberal in their donations to the Logan Temple, and the Lord has abundantly blessed their liberal hands, which blessings are plain to be seen on every hand. This should be a testimony to all the Saints that the Lord does not forget those who are willing to work for His blessings. His rewards are certain to those who show their faith by their works.

Logan Temple shows itself to the happy dwellers in this valley as a testimony of the faithful labors of the Saints, and all rejoice in its speedy completion that they may be partakers of its blessings.

Wellsville was yesterday visited by Apostles L. Snow and M. Thatcher, President Preston and O. Snow, Counselor C. O. Card, and a number of other leading Elders, and excellent instructions were given to the people which we think were received with a good spirit.

Wellsville is improving but sadly needs some industry started at home to employ the young men, instead of their having to go to freighting or to work on the railroad, as this kind of employment has a bad effect on the morals of the youth. The DESERET NEWS is well sustained in the settlement, and is always anxiously looked for. R.

SHORT AND SHARP.

We can not understand why milk should go up to 10 cents a quart. There is not any scarcity of water at present, so far as we know.—Somerville Journal.

It was at the Music Hall not long since, that a lady remarked to a waiting friend, after a solo on the big organ, "That's all very well; but you just wait till they put on the vox populi."—Boston Courier.

A renovated and reconstructed Presbyterian church announces through its friends in a religious journal that, "with a new minister and a new pipe organ, a large attendance is secured, and the solemn truths of revelation are presented and received with unusual earnestness."

"My dear," said Smithers to his wife, "what gentleman of this community continually attracts a preponderance of the public attention?" And when Mrs. S. had given it up, he told her, "A Mr. E., to be sure." His wife says it is a Mr. E. to her that Smithers hasn't landed in a lunatic asylum or the Pennsylvania Legislature long ago.—Oil City Derrick.

A pupil teacher, who had just received an appointment in a quiet country village, says that the second morning "I found leisure to look about me, and among the scanty furniture I espied a three-legged stool. 'Is that the dunce's stool?' I said to a little girl of five. The eyes sparkled, and the curls nodded assent, and the lips rippled out: 'I suppose it is—the teacher always sits on that.

Fitznoodle was out again worrying the life out of the ducks, and an unseen man on the other side of the pond rose up threateningly, with a long gun, and called out, "Did you shoot at me?" "Did any of the shot hit you?" inquired Fitznoodle. "Yes they did," said the man, rubbing his legs. "Then you may be certain that I didn't shoot at you. I never hit anything I shoot at."—Lancashire Intelligencer.

It is said that a dense black gum may be obtained from the outer layers of the birch tree bark by distillation, which possesses all the ordinary properties of gutta percha, and has the additional merit of resisting the deteriorating influence of air and the corrosive action of acids. This advantage makes it useful as an ingredient of India-rubber and gutta percha, which it renders far more durable. Whether these statements are true remains to be proved.

An officer of the Union army relates that upon one occasion after a charge upon the enemy's works, a fierce encounter and a fall back for reinforcement, a bright young Irish soldier was found to have a rebel flag captured from the foe. Approaching him he said: I'll send that to the rear as one of our trophies; give me the flag." Sure, I'll not give it to ye," said Pat; "if ye are wanting one, there's plenty av 'em behind that ridge over beyont where I got this; sure ye can go and get one for yerself."

A scholar in one of Binghampton's public schools who had "been over the map of Asia" was reviewed by his teacher with the following result: Teacher—"What is geography?" Scholar—"A big book." Teacher—"What is the earth composed of?" Scholar—"Mud." Teacher—"No; land and water." Scholar—"Well, that makes mud, don't it?" Teacher—"What is the shape of the earth?" Scholar—"Flat." Teacher—"You know better. If I should dig a hole through the earth where would I come out?" Scholar—"Out of the hole."
