Its application cannot be detected, and it is absolutely free from all possible harm, warranted purely a vegetable extract from the flowers of Southern France.

TERRITORIAL DISPATCHES.

SECOND DISTRICT COURT.

The Lee Case—Sentenced Deferred—Scurrilous Attack—Case of Idaho Bill et al.

BEAVER, Utah, Sept. 21.

Bishop asked a delay of ten days before sentence was passed on Lee, to give him time to file grounds of appeal. The court granted a delay. Lee is sad and mad and threatening betimes. There is much comment on certain letters in a certain sheet respecting the jury in the Lee case, which are full of the basest falsehoods and wilful misrepresentations, and the editorial attack on Prosecuting Attorney Howard is denounced as unjust.

A jury has been empanelled to try the case of Idaho Bill, Al. Winn and Hanson, and the trial is now going on.

LATEST DISPATCHES.

The Biggest Day Yet.

PHILADELPHIA, 21.—The attendance, to-day, exceeds that of any previous day in the history of the centennial exposition. Over 100,000 admissions were reported up to one o'clock. President Grant is present, and at noon lunched at the British headquarters.

New York State Day.

This is New York State day and the trains all morning were run into the city densely packed with New Yorkers. Not only was the capacity of the railroad transportation taxed to its utmost, but the transportation to the grounds, for the first time, was insufficient.

Crook's Troops Feeding on Horse and Pony Flesh—Crazy Horse the Cause of the Trouble.

CHICAGO, 21.—The Times special correspondent with Crook telegraphs from the expedition, on the Belle Fourche, Sept. 15th, that the commanding officers and men lived almost exclusively on horse and pony during their march from the morning of the seventh to the fourteenth. They had lost from 300 to 400 horses since leaving Powder River August 26th, and the remainder are weakly and out of condition. Gen. Crook expresses his opinion that Crazy Horse is the head and front of the trouble in the Hills. He had ordered 800 ponies from Laramie Plains to remount the cavalry and pursue this chief, but Sheridan's orders to meet him at Fort Laramie spoiled this plan. The wounded are doing well. The command has made 186 miles on about two days rations since leaving Pearl River on the sixth.

A Change of Clothes—The James and Younger Gang.

SIOUX CITY, Iowa., 21.—Doctor Master, while going to visit a patient eight miles northeast of this place, yesterday afternoon, was attacked by two of the James and Younger gang, retained a prisoner three hours, and compelled to change horses and clothes, receiving pants with a bullet hole in the knees. He reports one robber badly wounded, and thinks they cannot travel much farther.

Correspondence.

Brigham City.

SALT LAKE CITY,
Sept. 20, 1876.

Editor Deseret News:

It is indeed surprising, in these days of controversy concerning reform, political and domestic economy, communism, and the like kindred subjects, discussed by the greatest intellects of the age without practical results, that Brigham City, the capital of Box Elder County, Utah, a "Mormon" community at that, should be steadily and successfully demonstrating the feasibility of uniting the industries of a whole community, and resolving them into a commonwealth. The problem has been committed into the hands of that prudent and wise gentleman, Elder Lorenzo Snow, who, in connection with others, has formed a nucleus of home industries which bids defiance to the fluctuations of trade, or commercial depressions.

A visit to the various departments of this institution will at once convince a person that is not blind to apparent facts how a community can control their own industries, and live independent of commercial disasters, so fearful in their effects, especially to the dependant classes of France, England and America. The capital stock of the Institution exceeds one hundred and fifty thousand dollars, subscribed by the citizens of the place.

The product for the year last ending amounted to over one quarter of a million dollars. Thirty thousand dollars of this product was turned into cash, then into merchandize and other materials for the benefit of the business and employees. Liberal wages are allowed the operatives, who are engaged by the day, or work by the peace, and receive their pay in the products of the institution, including one-sixth store pay, or can have a house built for them if they require it, and have the cost cancelled by exchange account. If an employee be a stockholder he or she receives a yearly dividend which has never been less than nine, and as high as fifteen, per cent.

The combined interests of the people are divided into about fifteen separate departments, each under the management of a suitable foreman, who keeps the accounts of his respective business. At the end of each year these accounts are resolved under one general head, and a dividend declared as in the case of any other private business or firm.

The woollen factory is a neat model, and furnished with machinery of the latest and most approved style, producing very excellent cloth, and of great variety.

The tannery is the best in the Territory, furnishing leather grading from the heavy cowhide to the fine roanskin. Twenty boot and shoe makers are constantly employed, making up this leather into various styles, suitable to the tastes of the buyers, whether wood-haulers, or trippers of the fantastic toe will can be suited. Also several saddle and harness makers are engaged, making up goods for their department, and supplied with leather from their own tannery.

In the tailoring department a number of young ladies, with sewing machines, are constantly engaged making up all kinds of gentlemen's clothing for sale and custom work. In this department I saw very fine straw-braided hats, for both ladies and gentlemen, made up by ladies of Brigham City, the straw being of their own raising. The workmanship proved that they were well skilled in the business.

In addition to the manufacture of straw goods the fur hat makers form quite an important branch in their vocabulary of industries.

The cabinet makers cannot supply the home demand for furniture, and especially in the article of baby carriages, which seems to belong to this department. The furniture exhibited for sale at the wholesale store would grace some of our large fashionable homes in Salt Lake City.

Their sawmills supply the demand for cabinet and building purposes, and are credited by the usual exchange account.

The blacksmith, machine and wagon shops do all the repairs necessary in their respective lines, and seem to have plenty to do. The [illegible] there are no idle shops in Brigham City.

In addition to their mechanical pursuits, they manage to conduct large farms and herds of stock. Their dairy of itself is a great institution, consisting of over five hundred head of milch cows under daily manipulation, producing large quantities of the finest butter and cheese sold in Salt Lake market. I understand that their present shipments of cheese to this market amount to fifty boxes per week, and still they are urged to increase the supply.

A square plot of twelve acres of ground is laid out for the location of all their mechanical and mercantile industries, on which already stand the wooden mills, tannery, pottery, machine shop, and other buildings in course of erection. The whole plan is arranged with a view to the economy of labor, also the health and pleasure of the operatives.

One grand feature of the co-operative system of Brigham City is that it admits of no idlers, all seem to follow some industrial pursuit. Even the tramps are put to work on outside contracts, and earn their board without being a tax on the people. This city, however, is entirely lacking in the spirituous and fermented ingredients of modern civilization, and used so generally in the development of individuality. Instead of saloons they have halls of science, high schools, social, musical and dramatic entertainments.

All these matters are conducted by men who have proved themselves worthy of the confidence of the people and whose motto in business transactions is "As with the priest so with the people."

—An interesting account is given by the Anglo-Jewish Association of a community of Jews in India, known as Beni-Israel [Children of Israel]. They are supposed to have come to India 1,000 years ago. They dress like the Hindoos, use the Hindoo language, and know but little about Hebrew. They observe the Sabbath day strictly, and follow the Levitical code, but they associate but little with the Jews, owing to the difference of costume and language.

PEOPLE'S TERRITORIAL CONVENTION.

HEADQUARTERS, People's Territorial Central Committee,
Salt Lake City, Sept. 9, 1876.

To the People of Utah.

The election of Delegate to represent the Territory of Utah in the Forty-Fifth Congress will be held on Tuesday, November 7th next ensuing, and it is most desirable that the candidate chosen as the representative of the people should receive their fullest support and that every person entitled to the elective franchise should exercise it on that day.

To the end that an increased interest may be awakened in election matters and to endeavor to draw out the entire vote of the Territory on this important occasion, it has been determined to hold a People's Territorial Convention, composed of Delegates from the several counties, to convene at the City Hall, in Salt Lake City, on Saturday, October 7th, 1876, at 12 m.

The business of this convention will be to nominate a candidate for delegate to Congress, and to inaugurate such measures as will insure increased attention to our elections throughout the Territory. The number of delegates to compose the Territorial Convention has been fixed at seventy-eight, being twice the number of the Councillors and Representatives in the Legislative Assembly, and the allotment of delegates to the several counties has been based, as far as possible, upon their representation in the Legislature. To secure the proper election of these delegates it is suggested that each county hold a county convention, composed of delegates sent from primary meetings previously held in the several precincts. The delegates to the Territorial convention should come duly authenticated with credentials signed by the President and Secretary of the convention appointing them. It will be well for each convention to appoint alternate delegates to represent the county in case of the failure of the regular delegates to be present at the convention. It is also suggested that each County Convention while in session appoint a County Central Committee to attend to all election matters in its county, which Committee should immediately organize and place itself in communication with the People's Territorial Central Committee at Salt Lake City, that concert of action in these matters may be secured throughout the Territory.

The number of delegates to the Territorial Convention to which each county is entitled is as follows—

County.	No.	County.	No.
Salt Lake,	18	Sanpete,	5
Utah,	8	Wasatch,	2
Juab,	3	Summit,	3
Millard,	3	Morgan,	2
Beaver,	3	Davis,	4
Piute,	1	Box Elder,	3
Iron,	3	Tooele,	3
Kane,	2	Weber,	5
Washington,	2	Cache,	7
Sevier,	2	Rich,	1
Total,			78

It is hoped that the leading men in each County will take immediate steps to carry these suggestions into effect, by calling primary meetings in their precincts and County Conventions in their Counties, that the people may be thoroughly aroused to their duty, that the result of these measures may prove beneficial to our citizens, and that the delegate selected to represent us in Congress may receive, at the coming election, such a vote as was never before given to a delegate from any Territory.

By order of the People's Territorial Central Committee.

JOHN SHARP,
Chairman.
THEODORE MCKEAN,
Secretary.
