

Oscar Focker, Arthur Naylor, Kenneth Thompson, C. R. Naylor.

Mrs. Henry Siegel entertained in honor of Miss Sanders and Miss Lazarus on Tuesday afternoon, her function being a tea.

Mrs. Charles C. Crismon and Miss Alice Crismon were among the many guests of Miss Mary Sharp who entertained in her honor this week, their function being a delightful Kensington and the guests being chiefly members of the sewing club.

Miss Jean Spencer entertained the O. O. F. club on Wednesday in honor of Miss Maud Riter who leaves tomorrow for a three months' trip in Europe. The rooms were handsomely decorated in large red peonies and snowballs and a word contest was the feature of the afternoon. The prizes for the greatest list went to the guests of honor. The prizes for the greatest list went to the guests of honor.

Mrs. W. J. Tollerion who has been spending a few days with her mother, Mrs. E. Deal leaves today for her home in Pocatello.

Miss Edna May has returned from an extended trip through southern California.

Mr. and Mrs. Allen will leave early in June for California.

Mr. and Mrs. George J. Gibson left Friday for the east, where they will visit for several weeks with Mr. Gibson's mother.

Miss Lavina St. Claire will be here from Missouri early in June to spend the summer with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Lee St. Claire.

WEDDING BELLS

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Bagley announce the engagement of their daughter Stella to Herbert E. Cutler, son of Governor Cutler, the marriage to take place some time in June.

Mr. and Mrs. I. N. Dunyon announce the engagement of their daughter Carrie to Mr. Sam Ashby, the wedding to take place June 18.

Mr. and Mrs. George Hawkes, 835 East Third South street, announce the engagement of their daughter, Ethel Elsie, to Seymour W. Sears. The wedding will take place the latter part of June.

Mr. and Mrs. Alfred N. Cherry announce the engagement of their daughter, Lotta Blanche, to Nesbitt Percy Brown. The wedding will take place the latter part of June.

Mr. and Mrs. B. B. Blinn announce the engagement of their daughter, Ardelia, to Benjamin Tibby, the wedding to take place June 7 at the home of the bride's sister, Mrs. George W. Derr.

The date set for the marriage of Miss Katherine Moffet and Willard Hanson is Tuesday, June 12.

Miss Chloe Burns and Clarence Newlove Sampson will be married June 2 at the home of the bride's mother.

Mrs. S. E. Biddle announces the engagement of her daughter Kathryn to Edmund Logan Thompson, the wedding to take place in June.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert A. Brighton announce the engagement of their daughter Helen F. to Joseph Shepherd, the wedding to take place on June 21.

A pretty wedding reception took place on Thursday night at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Hall, following the marriage of their daughter Amy to Edward H. Dugg, the ceremony having been solemnized in the Tabernacle during the day. The room was beautifully decorated in American Beauty and La France roses and pink callifations and assisting were a number of intimate friends of both families. The bride wore a dainty gown of white organdie and lace. Mr. and Mrs. Davis will be at home after June 15.

Another wedding of the week was that of Miss Ethel Wilkinson and Isaac Harmon, the event taking place at the home of the groom, which was effectively decorated for the event. A number of relatives and a program of songs were present, the affair being a most enjoyable one.

CLUB CHAT.

The Utah Women's Press club meets tonight at 7:30 at the Exposition office in Templeton block, and a program will be given, consisting of Current Events, by Mrs. Mary Kelly, a talk on the National Council of Women, by Mrs. Minnie J. Snow, and an original poem by Mrs. Hattie C. Jensen.

The Women's club met this week with Mrs. Allen T. Sanford, when the reports of the year were read and the election of officers took place. The following result: President, Mrs. Nellie Bowman; vice president, Mrs. Agnes Pease; recording secretary, Mrs. Augusta Deane; corresponding secretary, Mrs. E. J. Cook; treasurer, Mrs. Helen Y. Kimball; critic, Mrs. Amelia B. Gattrell; auditor, Mrs. Helen P. Sanford; historian, Mrs. Sarah A. Powers; advisory committee, Mrs. Corolla Johnson, Mrs. Demie Whitley. This will be the last regular meeting of the club until fall. The club luncheon will be given at the Commercial club June 12, only members of the club to be present.

THE LARGER OUTSIDE CITIES

OGDEN.

Ogden, Utah, May 26.—At the home of the bride's parents, 2933 Grant avenue, Miss Gertrude Koon and Charles C. Thornhill of Idaho Falls, Ida., were united in bonds of wedlock in the presence of relatives and friends, on Tuesday evening. After the ceremony all present sat down to a sumptuous wedding repast. The home was tastefully decorated with cut flowers for the occasion.

S. C. Hamilton, who has been in Ogden the past two weeks in the interest of the United States standard voting machines, entertained at a trout and chicken dinner, Monday evening, at the Hermitage County Recorder D. W. Ellis. City Recorder W. J. Crisp, County Clerk David Watson and his daughter, E. P. Brown, W. D. Van Dyke and Carl Allison.

Mrs. William Jones of South Weber celebrated her sixty-ninth birthday Wednesday. In honor of the occasion.

Ice Cream Soda, Crushed Fruit Flavors

A 10c Drink Elsewhere. 5c Here only.

Also the Choicest Cream and Bon Bons, in boxes or loose, at the

OLYMPIA CANDY KITCHEN,

No. 272 South Main.

her sons and daughters, together with a few friends, gave her a delightful surprise party. They sang songs, and had a general social time. A dainty repast was served.

Miss Mayme A. Lums, one of the clerical force of the John Seaver & Sons company and Edward F. Mich, prescription clerk at Gidding's drug store, stole away Wednesday to Salt Lake City, where they secured a marriage license, and were married by Rev. Elmer L. Goshen. The contracting parties are both very popular in Ogden, and have a host of friends who will shower down congratulations on them.

Thomas Culley and wife and Mrs. Israel Froehman returned home this week from a pleasure trip to Denver where they were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. John Suse, formerly employed in the Pullman service in this city.

Miss Eva Rex and Mr. Archie J. Gale took of Ogden's popular young people, were married this week.

A very enjoyable time was had Monday evening at the Fifth ward amusement hall at the ward primary ball, which was well attended. A special feature of the evening was the excellent music furnished by the Road Children's orchestra, comprised of Leonard Read, Earl Read and Wm. Allard.

Mrs. J. G. Paine entertained the Ladies Aid society of the Methodist church Thursday afternoon at her home on Adams avenue.

Edward Tont, accompanied by his daughters, Nanette, Maggie, and Hazel Tont, sailed this week from Liverpool, England, for home. They will arrive

Miss Mary Thurman was a Salt Lake visitor this week.

Mrs. Gertrude Page visited relatives

Miss Fawn Twelves was the hostess at a charming card party Wednesday.

Mr. Ralph Jones gave a delightful social Thursday night at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. S. S. Jones, attended by a large number of young people who spent a merry evening with song and games. Refreshments were served.

The Seventh and Eighth grade pupils of the Thompson school gave a pleasant social in the school Tuesday evening, attended by their parents and the teachers. Principal Povelson was presented with a pretty souvenir by the Eighth grade graduates. Refreshments were served.

Mr. and Mrs. John J. Booth and Miss Rachel Booth have gone to Anaconda to reside.

Miss Nelke's advanced class in elocution gave a reception in gymnasium hall Thursday evening, attended by many invited guests. A pleasant evening was passed with music, songs, games and dancing. Refreshments were served.

Charles Vincent of the Second ward was the guest of honor at a pleasant family party given at his home by his children Wednesday evening, the occasion being Mr. Vincent's eighty-sixth birthday anniversary. Many congratulations were extended to Mr. Vincent, who is hearty and vigorous for his years and a family dinner was enjoyed.

Mrs. D. D. Houtz left for Salt Lake City to visit relatives.

Mrs. E. L. Parker of Salt Lake visited her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Dunberry, this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Brig Smoot visited Salt Lake friends this week.

Samuel F. Leigh of Cedar City is visiting Provo friends.

The graduation ball given in the Masonic hall Friday evening by the graduates of the city schools was attended by a large number of young people, and a very pleasing social event.

Mr. and Mrs. A. A. Moon announce the engagement of their daughter Rose to Edward A. Biscoe, the marriage to take place in June.

Mrs. Thornhill will leave for St. Louis tonight.

Miss Alice Isley is visiting friends in Provo.

Mrs. R. E. Allen delightfully entertained at a lawn party in honor of her sister, Miss Iona Knight, at her home on East Center. The lawn was beautifully illuminated with numerous Japanese lanterns. Cozy nooks with settees and rugs were invitingly arranged. Music and mirth held sway until a late hour. Delicious refreshments were served.

Miss N. A. Douglass announces the engagement of her daughter, Miss Anna, to Mr. Bert Sutton, marriage to take place some time in June.

Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Hodson entertained Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Hampshire at dinner Thursday.

Miss Mollie Swenson of Salt Lake is visiting her sister, Mrs. A. Robbins of this city.

Mr. S. E. Leigh of Cedar City is visiting friends in Provo this week.

Miss Miriam Nelke was the guest of honor at a delightful social given by her students of the Brigham Young university. Music, recitations and games were enjoyed by all. Dainty refreshments were served.

Miss Margaret Call, who has been employed as a teacher in one of the public schools of this city, left for her home in Willard Saturday. She will visit relatives in Salt Lake before returning home.

The woman's Republican club gave a reception in their club room Sunday day evening. A number of musical selections were rendered and a social time enjoyed by all. Light refreshments were served.

Miss Viola Elliott is home again, after having spent the winter in Coalville, where she has been engaged as a teacher.

A very pleasant social was given at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Jones Friday evening, but some of the students of the Franklin school in honor of their teacher, Mr. Eugene Roberts, who is about to leave for a two years' absence. Games, sweet music and the partaking of a dainty lunch were enjoyed by about 50 young people.

Mrs. Walter Startup was the pleasing hostess at an afternoon social Thursday. About 30 lady friends enjoyed the afternoon together. A dainty lunch was served.

Mrs. Markham Cheever was the guest of Mrs. Harsh at Olmstead.

Mrs. D. H. Calder went to Salt Lake City to see Sarah Bernhardt.

Miss Mattie Wilcken of Salt Lake is spending the week in this city, in honor of the Miss Ethel and Opal Noon.

The Forum Debating society entertained at a musical Tuesday evening at the home of Mrs. Howard Schaefer. Delicious refreshments were served.

A social evening which proved to be very delightful in every detail was given in the faculty room of the U. A. C. on Monday evening, when the Social girls entertained for the 1906 debaters of the college. The room was very tastefully decorated and the following program was greatly enjoyed:

Vocal solo Nellie Hayball Sing Minnie Peterson Piano solo Carrie McAllister Piano solo Carrie McAllister Song Mark Brown

At the conclusion of the program games were played and six of the hostesses presided over chaffing contests, delicious candy. The debaters were: Dave Farrell, B. B. Hillman, Ben Riter, Jr., Bert Judd, Jim Kearns, Mildred Ferguson, others who were present are the following: The Social girls: Maudie Eberhart, Dora Quake, Kate Adams, Grace Fisher, Eva Farr, Mabelle Nebeker, Nell Hayball, Edna Smith, Verna Bowman, Mildred Jensen, Minnie Peterson, Doree Johnson, Eva Schaefer, Dora Powell, Mildred Ferguson, Letitia Flint, Blanche Caine, Julia Nibley, Ella Maughan, Moll Homer, Carrie McAllister, Messrs. Joseph, Bert, Stuart Lee, W. B. Cager, Aaron Vetter, J. T. Carr, Billy Roberts, W. A. Jensen, P. G. Peterson, E. G. Peterson, Mark Brown, Dave Stevens, Roy Ebert, Roy Rudolph, Lin Stewart, Fred Matthews, Fred Jensen.

The Misses Moll Homer, Vesta Kerr, Carrie McAllister and Radie Ormsby entertained the following ladies at a very delightful afternoon tea, which was served at the U. A. C. on Sunday last: Montama P. A. Yoder, G. H. Champ, Willard Langton, Misses Elizabeth Smith, Wyant, Verna McAllister, Edna Peterson, Ruby Nebeker, Belle Pratt, Florence Dea, Ina Stratford, Bertha Eccles, Lora Roberts, Nan Nibley.

Mrs. Willard Langton entertained a number of friends at a most pleasant five o'clock tea at her home on Thursday. Mrs. Langton's guests were Mrs. W. B. Preston, Jr., Mrs. T. W. Naylor, Miss Dora Wright, Mrs. Leo Campbell and Mrs. Guy Thatcher.

Miss Amy Wilson entertained at a most enjoyable afternoon party on Thursday, the guest of honor being Miss Miriam Smith. The affair was in the nature of a Keweenaw, the following having been present: Mesdames J. H. Wilson, E. W. Robinson, John Christiansen, Louis Moeck, J. Wilson, Dr. Cutler, the Misses Florence Miner, Hattie and Mollie Smith, Abby Greenbeck, Nettie Maughan, Stella Ebert.

Mrs. A. H. Thompson was hostess at a family dinner party on Monday in honor of her mother, Mrs. Laura Miner's birthday.

Mrs. Annie Hyde, who was the guest of Mrs. Laura Miner for several days, has returned to her home in Salt Lake.

A very pleasant event of the week was the party given by the Webster society of the E. Y. C. to the Osma society of the same order on Monday night. Those who were present enjoyed dancing and very dainty refreshments.

Mrs. J. A. Hendrickson was hostess at an afternoon tea which was served at the E. Y. C. on Friday last.

A picnic party who enjoyed immensely an outing in Jessop's Grove on by Elder M. E. Kartehne. A wedding dinner, attended by members of the family, was given at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. James Fisher, Mr. and Mrs. Frampton will reside in Pleasant Grove.

Mrs. Isabelle Smith was the hostess at a charming social given Wednesday afternoon in honor of her daughter, Mrs. Raymond Knight, who will soon return to her home in Alberta, Canada. Many relatives and friends of Mrs. Knight were present, and the occasion was characterized by cordial sociability. Delicious refreshments were served.

Mrs. Read Smoot returned from Washington Friday, after an extended and enjoyable visit to the national capital.

Supt. Samuel R. Brown entertained the officers and teachers of the Fourth ward Sunday school Monday evening. The hours passed with music, song, readings and games. Dainty refreshments were served.

A pleasant children's party was given at the home of Mrs. Joshua F. Dunn, Monday evening, the occasion being the birthday anniversary of their daughter Vilate, whose young friends were the guests. The young people enjoyed a merry evening, including dainty refreshments.

Mrs. A. O. Whitmore of Salt Lake visited her parents, Dr. and Mrs. H. J. Richards of this city the past week.

Mr. Jack Alford of Salt Lake has been the guest of Miss Beulah Bachman the past week.

Miss Leon Bachman entertained at luncheon Thursday.

Mr. Ralph Jones gave a delightful social Thursday night at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. S. S. Jones, attended by a large number of young people who spent a merry evening with song and games. Refreshments were served.

The Seventh and Eighth grade pupils of the Thompson school gave a pleasant social in the school Tuesday evening, attended by their parents and the teachers. Principal Povelson was presented with a pretty souvenir by the Eighth grade graduates. Refreshments were served.

Mr. and Mrs. John J. Booth and Miss Rachel Booth have gone to Anaconda to reside.

Miss Nelke's advanced class in elocution gave a reception in gymnasium hall Thursday evening, attended by many invited guests. A pleasant evening was passed with music, songs, games and dancing. Refreshments were served.

Charles Vincent of the Second ward was the guest of honor at a pleasant family party given at his home by his children Wednesday evening, the occasion being Mr. Vincent's eighty-sixth birthday anniversary. Many congratulations were extended to Mr. Vincent, who is hearty and vigorous for his years and a family dinner was enjoyed.

Mrs. D. D. Houtz left for Salt Lake City to visit relatives.

Mrs. E. L. Parker of Salt Lake visited her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Dunberry, this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Brig Smoot visited Salt Lake friends this week.

Samuel F. Leigh of Cedar City is visiting Provo friends.

The graduation ball given in the Masonic hall Friday evening by the graduates of the city schools was attended by a large number of young people, and a very pleasing social event.

Mr. and Mrs. A. A. Moon announce the engagement of their daughter Rose to Edward A. Biscoe, the marriage to take place in June.

Mrs. Thornhill will leave for St. Louis tonight.

Miss Alice Isley is visiting friends in Provo.

Mrs. R. E. Allen delightfully entertained at a lawn party in honor of her sister, Miss Iona Knight, at her home on East Center. The lawn was beautifully illuminated with numerous Japanese lanterns. Cozy nooks with settees and rugs were invitingly arranged. Music and mirth held sway until a late hour. Delicious refreshments were served.

Miss N. A. Douglass announces the engagement of her daughter, Miss Anna, to Mr. Bert Sutton, marriage to take place some time in June.

Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Hodson entertained Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Hampshire at dinner Thursday.

Miss Mollie Swenson of Salt Lake is visiting her sister, Mrs. A. Robbins of this city.

Mr. S. E. Leigh of Cedar City is visiting friends in Provo this week.

Miss Miriam Nelke was the guest of honor at a delightful social given by her students of the Brigham Young university. Music, recitations and games were enjoyed by all. Dainty refreshments were served.

Miss Margaret Call, who has been employed as a teacher in one of the public schools of this city, left for her home in Willard Saturday. She will visit relatives in Salt Lake before returning home.

The woman's Republican club gave a reception in their club room Sunday day evening. A number of musical selections were rendered and a social time enjoyed by all. Light refreshments were served.

Miss Viola Elliott is home again, after having spent the winter in Coalville, where she has been engaged as a teacher.

A very pleasant social was given at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Jones Friday evening, but some of the students of the Franklin school in honor of their teacher, Mr. Eugene Roberts, who is about to leave for a two years' absence. Games, sweet music and the partaking of a dainty lunch were enjoyed by about 50 young people.

Mrs. Walter Startup was the pleasing hostess at an afternoon social Thursday. About 30 lady friends enjoyed the afternoon together. A dainty lunch was served.

Mrs. Markham Cheever was the guest of Mrs. Harsh at Olmstead.

Mrs. D. H. Calder went to Salt Lake City to see Sarah Bernhardt.

Miss Mattie Wilcken of Salt Lake is spending the week in this city, in honor of the Miss Ethel and Opal Noon.

The Forum Debating society entertained at a musical Tuesday evening at the home of Mrs. Howard Schaefer. Delicious refreshments were served.

A social evening which proved to be very delightful in every detail was given in the faculty room of the U. A. C. on Monday evening, when the Social girls entertained for the 1906 debaters of the college. The room was very tastefully decorated and the following program was greatly enjoyed:

Vocal solo Nellie Hayball Sing Minnie Peterson Piano solo Carrie McAllister Piano solo Carrie McAllister Song Mark Brown

At the conclusion of the program games were played and six of the hostesses presided over chaffing contests, delicious candy. The debaters were: Dave Farrell, B. B. Hillman, Ben Riter, Jr., Bert Judd, Jim Kearns, Mildred Ferguson, others who were present are the following: The Social girls: Maudie Eberhart, Dora Quake, Kate Adams, Grace Fisher, Eva Farr, Mabelle Nebeker, Nell Hayball, Edna Smith, Verna Bowman, Mildred Jensen, Minnie Peterson, Doree Johnson, Eva Schaefer, Dora Powell, Mildred Ferguson, Letitia Flint, Blanche Caine, Julia Nibley, Ella Maughan, Moll Homer, Carrie McAllister, Messrs. Joseph, Bert, Stuart Lee, W. B. Cager, Aaron Vetter, J. T. Carr, Billy Roberts, W. A. Jensen, P. G. Peterson, E. G. Peterson, Mark Brown, Dave Stevens, Roy Ebert, Roy Rudolph, Lin Stewart, Fred Matthews, Fred Jensen.

The Misses Moll Homer, Vesta Kerr, Carrie McAllister and Radie Ormsby entertained the following ladies at a very delightful afternoon tea, which was served at the U. A. C. on Sunday last: Montama P. A. Yoder, G. H. Champ, Willard Langton, Misses Elizabeth Smith, Wyant, Verna McAllister, Edna Peterson, Ruby Nebeker, Belle Pratt, Florence Dea, Ina Stratford, Bertha Eccles, Lora Roberts, Nan Nibley.

Mrs. Willard Langton entertained a number of friends at a most pleasant five o'clock tea at her home on Thursday. Mrs. Langton's guests were Mrs. W. B. Preston, Jr., Mrs. T. W. Naylor, Miss Dora Wright, Mrs. Leo Campbell and Mrs. Guy Thatcher.

Miss Amy Wilson entertained at a most enjoyable afternoon party on Thursday, the guest of honor being Miss Miriam Smith. The affair was in the nature of a Keweenaw, the following having been present: Mesdames J. H. Wilson, E. W. Robinson, John Christiansen, Louis Moeck, J. Wilson, Dr. Cutler, the Misses Florence Miner, Hattie and Mollie Smith, Abby Greenbeck, Nettie Maughan, Stella Ebert.

Mrs. A. H. Thompson was hostess at a family dinner party on Monday in honor of her mother, Mrs. Laura Miner's birthday.

Mrs. Annie Hyde, who was the guest of Mrs. Laura Miner for several days, has returned to her home in Salt Lake.

A very pleasant event of the week was the party given by the Webster society of the E. Y. C. to the Osma society of the same order on Monday night. Those who were present enjoyed dancing and very dainty refreshments.

Mrs. J. A. Hendrickson was hostess at an afternoon tea which was served at the E. Y. C. on Friday last.

A picnic party who enjoyed immensely an outing in Jessop's Grove on to New York, and to Mr. Havreamp's parents in Cincinnati, Ohio, next week.

Mrs. E. A. Thornhill left today for St. Louis to visit relatives.

Mrs. W. C. Cates and family left today for Telluride, Colorado, to join her husband, who is there with the Telluride Power company. She was accompanied by her sister, Miss Sue Leedom.

Misses Alice L. Reynolds, Nellie Schofield, Angie and Ora Holbrook, of this city, and Miss Mamie Adams, of Salt Lake leave Monday on their European tour.

Mrs. Benjamin Bennett was the guest of honor at a surprise party given by a number of the ladies' friends Friday evening, the occasion being Mrs. Bennett's birthday anniversary. The evening passed in a delightfully sociable manner. Refreshments were served.

Dr. and Mrs. E. W. Taylor left today for Boston and other eastern parts to be gone for some time.

Mrs. A. O. Whitmore of Salt Lake visited her parents, Dr. and Mrs. H. J. Richards of this city the past week.

Mr. Jack Alford of Salt Lake has been the guest of Miss Beulah Bachman the past week.

Miss Leon Bachman entertained at luncheon Thursday.

Mr. Ralph Jones gave a delightful social Thursday night at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. S. S. Jones, attended by a large number of young people who spent a merry evening with song and games. Refreshments were served.

The Seventh and Eighth grade pupils of the Thompson school gave a pleasant social in the school Tuesday evening, attended by their parents and the teachers. Principal Povelson was presented with a pretty souvenir by the Eighth grade graduates. Refreshments were served.

Mr. and Mrs. John J. Booth and Miss Rachel Booth have gone to Anaconda to reside.

Miss Nelke's advanced class in elocution gave a reception in gymnasium hall Thursday evening, attended by many invited guests. A pleasant evening was passed with music, songs, games and dancing. Refreshments were served.

Charles Vincent of the Second ward was the guest of honor at a pleasant family party given at his home by his children Wednesday evening, the occasion being Mr. Vincent's eighty-sixth birthday anniversary. Many congratulations were extended to Mr. Vincent, who is hearty and vigorous for his years and a family dinner was enjoyed.

Mrs. D. D. Houtz left for Salt Lake City to visit relatives.

Mrs. E. L. Parker of Salt Lake visited her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Dunberry, this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Brig Smoot visited Salt Lake friends this week.

Samuel F. Leigh of Cedar City is visiting Provo friends.

The graduation ball given in the Masonic hall Friday evening by the graduates of the city schools was attended by a large number of young people, and a very pleasing social event.

Mr. and Mrs. A. A. Moon announce the engagement of their daughter Rose to Edward A. Biscoe, the marriage to take place in June.

Mrs. Thornhill will leave for St. Louis tonight.

Miss Alice Isley is visiting friends in Provo.

Mrs. R. E. Allen delightfully entertained at a lawn party in honor of her sister, Miss Iona Knight, at her home on East Center. The lawn was beautifully illuminated with numerous Japanese lanterns. Cozy nooks with settees and rugs were invitingly arranged. Music and mirth held sway until a late hour. Delicious refreshments were served.

Miss N. A. Douglass announces the engagement of her daughter, Miss Anna, to Mr. Bert Sutton, marriage to take place some time in June.

Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Hodson entertained Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Hampshire at dinner Thursday.

Miss Mollie Swenson of Salt Lake is visiting her sister, Mrs. A. Robbins of this city.

Mr. S. E. Leigh of Cedar City is visiting friends in Provo this week.

Miss Miriam Nelke was the guest of honor at a delightful social given by her students of the Brigham Young university. Music, recitations and games were enjoyed by all. Dainty refreshments were served.

Miss Margaret Call, who has been employed as a teacher in one of the public schools of this city, left for her home in Willard Saturday. She will visit relatives in Salt Lake before returning home.

The woman's Republican club gave a reception in their club room Sunday day evening. A number of musical selections were rendered and a social time enjoyed by all. Light refreshments were served.

Miss Viola Elliott is home again, after having spent the winter in Coalville, where she has been engaged as a teacher.

A very pleasant social was given at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Jones Friday evening, but some of the students of the Franklin school in honor of their teacher, Mr. Eugene Roberts, who is about to leave for a two years' absence. Games, sweet music and the partaking of a dainty lunch were enjoyed by about 50 young people.

Mrs. Walter