HE RODE ON THE COW CATCHER.

In the case of Wm. Blythe vs Union Pacific Rallroad company, which was filed yesterday in the district court, the amount of damages asked is $50,120. The complaint alleges that on or about May 18 of this year, while in the de-fendant's employ as "pilot," it was his duty to ride on the cow-catcher, or pilot, of the engine. It is alleged that on this day, while so engaged, he was riding on the pilot of an engine, which, owing to the alleged negligence and carelessness of the defendant, was un-safe, and it broke, sank and collapsed, throwing Blythe under the engine crushing and cutting his right leg, cut ting off a finger, and otherwise bruising and injuring him, which will make a helpless cripple out of him, which will event him from earning a living. evwood & McCormick are the plainprevent him tiff's attorneys.
